Junior Farmers and Junior Club News

The Northam Holstein Calf Club has a great bunch of calves this year. Each boy and girl is giving them great care. They are being brushed, petted, trained for showing, and, of course, well fed.

The "Riverside" Calf Club of Montrose-Alma has a much reduced membership and number of calves this year. The calves are of top quality and will give the experienced breeders and showmen keen competition in the open classes at the Alberton Exhibition this year.

The club met at Roy Barbour's, Friday, July 6th, and judged two classes of Holsteins. Morris Deacon, Fieldman, was present to hear their reasons and to lead the instruction period in judging.

The St. George's Ayrshire Calf Club met at the home of Dan MacLean, DeGros Marsh on Monday, July 9th for a judging class. The ten members present made a good job of placing the animals. Following the judging a public meeting was held in the school where films loaned by the National Film Board were shown.

The St. Catherine's Shorthorn Club sponsored films loaned by the National Film Board on Tuesday, July 10th. These were shown on the lawn of Mr. W. R. Shaw. Ice cream, soft drinks, and cake were sold by the St. Catherine's Club. There was a good attendance of members from St. Catherine's and New Argyle Clubs and also many of their parents and friends.

The Miscouche Holstein and Jersey Calf Club met at the home of Edmund Gallant, Miscouche, for a judging class Friday, July 13th at 4 o'clock. The 13 members present made a good job of placing the four excellent Jersey cows. Before the judging, most of the members participated in a softball game. There are 13 calves in the club this year but only three of them are Jerseys.

Friday evening July 13th the Linkletter Club held their regular study meeting. Nine members were present and Robert Linkletter, the vice-president, presided. There were some discussions on the obtaining of club sweaters and the raising of more money for the treasury. Secretary-Treasurer, Vera Rogers, reported $3.00 on hand. The club members have 8 calves and so $10.83 will be needed for prize money. Morris Deacon, Fieldman, gave a short talk on the Provincial Judging Competitions and the awarding of prizes at the Achievement Day. He also conducted the study lesson and the test on the lessons for May and June.
