

The Ideal Drummer.

Once upon a time there was a drummer who met a lovely girl. She belonged to a family who had everything they wanted and she was the one woman to whom he never wanted to sell anything. She returned his affection. So novel was the sensation of meeting a force he could not cope with, so entirely strange the feeling of being conquered and subdued, that he could not tell the old gentleman anything about it. It was a case where he could not combat opposition and even his ingenious brain could not fashion any plot which should overwhelm the evident predilection the family had against him. But she loved him, and that was all. She told her father. The old gentleman's hair rose in wrath. He stormed.

"What, let you marry that blow-pipe, that swivel tongued, brass-cheeked thing. Never, You may die an old maid. You may select a husband from the dime museum, but this copper gas generator, never!"

"But pa, I want to marry him."
"Look here child. If that fellow ever comes in to talk to me about you, I'll throw him out of the window. I'll—I'll—Why confound it, girl, haven't I had my ears talked off by him about his darned samples and stock? Don't I know him? If he can talk like that about business, I don't know what he'll do about love!"

"But pa, I will marry him. You may as well let him ask you."

"All right. I'll listen to him as long as I can and when I get worn out I'll kill him."

She told her lover of the interview, and he only remarked: "Never mind. I'll fix him."
So the drummer went into the old man's library. The irate father sat in an easy-chair, waved his hand to the drummer and fixed himself in an attitude of despairing resignation. The drummer had his hat in his hand. There was silence. The old man was astonished. Still the drummer spoke not.

"Well?" said the old fellow. No response.

The drummer twirled his hat in his hands and kept his eyes on the door.

"Aren't you going to speak at all?" yelled the old fellow. Never a word from the drummer. After a few minutes silence the old fellow said meekly:

"Look here, young man. You want to marry my daughter. Take her. If you are capable of keeping your mouth shut so long for her sake, you must love her. But—well—you've got me. Take her and be happy."
"Thank you," said the drummer.
"Good morning."

A Wedding Dowry.

The dowry given by the Duke of Bedford to his daughter on her marriage with Sir Edward Malet, on the 19th inst., was $650,000, invested in consols. The London papers have columns of descriptions of the gorgeous ceremony in Westminster Abbey. The radical newspapers contrast the unseemly splendor of the wedding pageant with the Duke of Bedford's constant refusals to subscribe to local charities. They recall the fact that the bulk of his immense income is derived from the rental of rookeries in London slums which are in a sad state of dilapidation. They also recall that during the small-pox scare in London last summer the Duke of Bedford refused to clean the pestilential alleys of his property around Covent Garden market, and even refused to allow others to remove the accumulated filth of years. It is said that the only time when his grace shows a lively sense of his duties as a landlord is when some tenant fails to pay his rent, in which case the tenant is evicted with great promptness.

A Good Yield.

The annual report of the inspector of mines of Nova Scotia show over 16,000 ounces of gold produced in Nova Scotia last year. The most notable returns were from Salmon River, where 9,799 tons of quartz yielded 3,379 ounces of gold and from Gallagher's mine at Stormont, where 913 tons yielded 2,212 ounces. At Oxford mine 1887 ounces of gold were taken out from 2,464 tons of quartz. Several promising districts are reported as being opened out in readiness for this year's work. The copper, iron, antimony and manganese mines all appear to be making progress.

Gordon's Diaries.

Gordon's diaries have arrived in London. He wished them to be printed before publication. So will Her Majesty's Ministers. In the last letter written by Gordon, this is what he said of Her Majesty's Ministers:—"I will accept nothing whatever from Gladstone's government. I will not even let them pay my expenses. I will get the King to pay them. I will never put foot in England again, but will (D. V. I get out) go to Brussels and so on to the Congo."

A New Department.

A new department is being added to the Halifax Cotton mill for the manufacture of colored yarns. Saturday last being the second anniversary of the opening of the mill, Manager Stevenson presented each female operative with a printed cotton dress made in the mill and two shirts to each male operative. Last year the manager distributed 3,000 yards of cottons to Halifax charities.

AYER'S Cherry Pectoral.

No other complaints are so insidious in their attack as those affecting the throat and lungs; none so trifled with by the majority of sufferers. The ordinary cough or cold, resulting perhaps from a trilling or unconscious exposure, is often but the beginning of a fatal sickness. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has well proven its efficiency in a forty years' fight with throat and lung diseases, and should be taken in all cases without delay.

A Terrible Cough Cured.
"In 1857 I took a severe cold, which affected my lungs. I had a terrible cough, and passed night after night without sleep. The doctors gave me up. I tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, which relieved my lungs, induced sleep, and afforded me the rest necessary for the recovery of my strength. By the continued use of the PECTORAL a permanent cure was effected. I am now 62 years old, hale and hearty, and am satisfied your CHERRY PECTORAL saved me."
HORACE FAIRBROTHER,
Rockingham, Vt., July 15, 1882.

Croup.—A Mother's Tribute.
"While in the country last winter my little boy, three years old, was taken ill with croup; it seemed as if he would die from strangulation. One of the family suggested the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, a bottle of which was always kept in the house. This was tried in small and frequent doses, and to our delight in less than half an hour the little patient was breathing easily. The doctor said that the CHERRY PECTORAL had saved my darling's life. Can you wonder at our gratitude? Sincerely yours,
MRS. EMMA GEDNEY,
120 West 128th St., New York, May 16, 1882.

"I have used AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL in my family for several years, and do not hesitate to pronounce it the most effective remedy for coughs and colds we have ever tried."
A. J. CRANE,
Lake Crystal, Minn., March 13, 1882.

"I suffered for eight years from Bronchitis, and after trying many remedies with no success, I was cured by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. JOSEPH WALDEN."
Byhalia, Miss., April 5, 1882.

"I cannot say enough in praise of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, believing as I do that but for its use I should long since have died from lung troubles."
E. BRAGDON,
Palestine, Texas, April 22, 1882.

No case of an affection of the throat or lungs exists which cannot be greatly relieved by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, and it will always cure when the disease is not already beyond the control of medicine.

NEW IMPROVED PATENT EIGHT-FLANGE FIRE-PROOF SAFE.

THE only Eight-Flange Safe in the world, and containing more improvements than ANY SAFE made, such as:

1st. THE PATENT INSIDE BOLT WORK, which is placing the bolt work with the whole of the flanges (six inches) between it and the outside, that is, as far from the fire and thief as it can be.

2nd. THE PATENT-HINGED CAP—the back plate of the door being on hinges, enabling the owner, by turning a thumbscrew, to have easy access to the lock and bolt-work. He can thus easily change the lock, clean, oil, and keep the bolt-work in good order.

3rd. IRON INSIDE LINING, stronger than wood, and which retains the moisture in the filling for an indefinite time. Wood is thicker and weaker, and after a few years absorbs the moisture and "requires filling over again."

4th. FOUR-WHEEL COMBINATION LOCKS, the simplest, strongest, most efficient and easiest to change of any in use.

5th. SOLID ANGLE IRON FRONTS, BACKS AND CORNERS, which prevents warping or injury to safe from falling, or falling walls or timbers.

6th. EIGHT FLANGES—the most important improvement ever made in fire-proof safes, providing eight laps, thus preventing the passage of heat, it having to pass over twelve inches, no injury arises from this source, as in other safes containing one, two or three flanges.

THESE SAFES have stood the test of years, and the greatest fires on this continent, and have the CHAMPION RECORD in the Boston, Chicago and Haverhill Fires.

WE are selling these safes as low as any good safe, and are disposing of large numbers throughout the Dominion.
