

DOWN THE BACK STRETCH

A newcomer that will brighten the racing picture in Cape Breton is the five-year-old brown stallion Colonel Handsford 210 1 5, by Wilmington 159 1 2. He took his record in a winning race last season at Yonkers, N. Y., and was eligible at the beginning of this season on the 224 pace. At the holiday card July 1st in Sydney, he scored his second win and looks like a very good gaited, free-legged pacer.

Foxboro summaries sent us by our good friend George R. MacDonald, Boston, show June 22nd MacDonally's second to Aerial Chief in the 222 class pace conditioned, time, 2:08 4 5.

The following letter has been received from Harry Irving, formerly of this Province and now associated with J. H. Irving, real estate business, Lethbridge, Alta. "I enclose two programs for races held at Lethbridge on June 24-25. We were rained out on the 23rd but had splendid racing the following two days. We are trying to revive harness racing in Alberta and believe we will succeed. I am sure 85 per cent of those attending the races at Lethbridge had never seen a harness race before and they were very pleased with what they saw. The horse finishes had them on their feet and the pari-mutuels were well patronized. The only trouble out here is the scarcity of horses. I attended the races at High River on July 1st. There had a large crowd and it is one place where the people have stayed faithful to the harness horse, probably because a large number of them are former Islanders. Among those I noticed race day were Charlie Farquharson and Fred Blake and they were all smiles. H. B. MacLeod has not returned from the Island with his horses but we are expecting him soon. He will do much to help the sport here. My thoughts will be with the Islanders during Old Home Week. I did enjoy my visit and the races so very much when I visited my native province three years ago. The Back Stretch keeps me in touch with your racing and I am a faithful reader. With best wishes to all friends at home, Harry."

On the first day's program there were eight races. In the 6th race Kenny Onward, owned and driven by D. Sampson, was the winner in 2:12 2 5 and he was also the winner of the 8th race in 2:12—the fastest time of the meet. On the following day the fastest race was won by Miss Skipalong, owned by R. MacDonald and driven by L. Menard, time, 2:14 1 4. Other events were won in 2:16, 2:16 1 2, 2:17. And now that harness racing is definitely back in Alberta it won't be long before the breeding of trotters and pacers will come back with it. Years ago some of the fastest horses in the world were bred in Alberta and what happened in the past can happen again.

The credit for the fastest heat paced in the Maritimes is still held by Truro Raceway, because of the performance of Hedgewood. Chief in the 10th race on the program of July 1st, when he headed a group of six other free-for-allers in 2:09 2 5, the fastest performance he has given since he was brought to the Maritimes. Our congratulations to owner-driver Jimmie Given, who seems to have found the key to this horse. The next fastest performance in the Maritimes was that of Pat D. Mount in the Free For All at Woodstock the night of July 3rd, when he paced in 2:09 3 5. Second to him was Joe Spencer 2:10. Pat D. is owned by John E. Forbes of Fredericton. Another pleasing feature at Woodstock that night was the winning of the 5th race by Sandy Budlong, also owned by Mr. Forbes and driven by Harry Mount, in 2:13—a new record. Sandy is by Calumet Budlong out of Alestra 2:12 1 2. The same night Beck Dale "Lansing" owned by Mrs. Allison Langille, Union Mills, won in 2:18 1 3—a new record.

Last Monday night at Woodstock Frankie Carr drove Betty Ellis to a win in the second race in 2:16 3 5—a new record for Betty. She is owned by W. B. Nevers, Hartland, N. B. He also won the 4th race with Lock Hanover in 2:18 2 5. Second to him was the 8th race with Lock Hanover in 2:10. Heine Strong 2nd. Lock Hanover is owned by W. B. Nevers. Other winners that night were the trotter Tyndall Semple, owned and driven by George Woodside of Fredericton, in 2:19 2 5, the pacer Sudden Mary, owned by Cecil McShane, Houlton, Maine, in 2:13 1 5, Royal Jr. Langille, in 2:14 and Arlene's Money, owned by E. A. Linden, Newcastle, N. B., in 2:24 3 5.

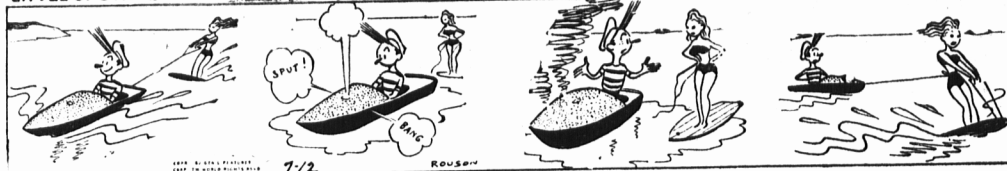

Among the reduced records made at Truro Raceway the past week we notice Tony Mite, that started the season green, then won in 2:18 2 5, and now sports a mark of 2:14. He is owned by John MacLeod of Yarmouth, Miss Cherry Valley, owned by George MacLeod, and driven by Clayton MacLeod, in 2:13, which is three-fifths of a second better than her previous record. Not only that but she finished her last eighth with a remarkable dicting 2:10 for her before the season ends. The first dash in which she took part with seven other winners was won by the trotter Brook of Athol 2:11, a 14-year-old that we Islanders passed up and was purchased by C. L. Dauphinee, Halifax. His winning dash was in 2:15 4 5 and he was second to Miss Cherry Valley in her record mile.

The line we got on Joey Harvester from a friend is certainly correct as he won both his dashes July 5th, stepping the first in 2:14 to head Billy P. C. Parker 2:11 4 5, and the 9th race in 2:13 4 5. Second to him was Buster C. 2:09 4 5, owned by Dr. J. A. Donahoe, and driven by Ray O'Brien. We make another prediction and it is that Joey Harvester will 2:10 at some time this season. A new record was taken by the four-year-old pacer Model Rudlong by Calumet Budlong, owned by J. C. Ryan of Springfield and driven by Chester Smith—2:20 1 5, and a two-time winner was Ridgewood M. 2:11 3 5, that Frank Daniels was home first with in 2:14 2 5 and 2:16. Ridgewood M. will be remembered as the pacer that astonished us all a couple of seasons ago, starting green and showing two-minute speed. Frankie Daniels certainly had a big night, driving four winners, while Johnny Conroy was first to the wire with two. Johnny Conroy's driving percentage is the highest in the Maritimes by a long shot at present.

Returning to Spud Island. Last Saturday night at the Charlottetown track we were very much impressed, as no doubt were all those present, by the performance of the three-year-old pacer Money Royal, owned by Dr. Preston McIntyre, Montague, and driven by Archie Hlewellyn, when he paced his mile in 2:15 2 5 under conditions that were not really fast. Second to him

LITTLE SPORT

IN THIS CORNER

Slowly but surely the links of the strong chain that brought the swashbuckling Islanders to the Maritime finals in the spring of 1951 and into second place in the Maritime Major League of 1952 are being broken. Several of the links were severed in the summer of 1951. Death in the mid-spring of 1952 severed Johnny Dutack's link forever. Over the weekend another link will be severed, possibly forever, when Leo Lamoureux, the coach of the club for the past two years, leaves for North Bay, Ontario.

And with Lamoureux's departure from the Province will end another era in the career of Leo Lamoureux the hockey player and coach. Possibly it will be his last hockey era for in a telephone conversation with Leo yesterday we learned that he has accepted a good position with a well known company in North Bay. He has been given an opportunity to coach the North Bay Black Hawks but his decision on that matter will rest upon his work. "The job comes first and hockey second. I can coach the team without interfering with my work then I may end up coaching the team but if hockey interferes with my work then it's good-bye hockey," he stated.

In spite of his good job there is no doubt but that Lamoureux regrets leaving the Province. "I have made a lot of good friends here and I hate to leave the Island," he stated. "However, I have to turn down. Had the club here wanted me back they would have offered me another contract. I thought that I deserved another chance, after all I had a first and a second placings. We just lost out straight in the playoffs but the play-offs anything can happen."

The truth of that last statement was never more evident than in the semi-final series between the Islanders and the Halifax Saints last spring. Twice the Islanders held healthy leads going into the last period and twice they blew the game. Ironically it was the defense, a position at which Lamoureux himself was a star in his playing days in the N.H.L., that let him down. A number of foolish penalties, series of scatter-brained plays or misplays and the series was shot. To those who watched the final twenty minutes in a Halifax Forum on a Saturday night last March the process was only too apparent.

In our minds the man chiefly responsible for putting the Islanders out of the series was big Bob Drainville. Drainville won the fourth game for Halifax with a body check along the Halifax blue-line with about ten minutes left in the game. He hit Bruno Favero from behind with a rough check. The check had the desired result for within two minutes two Islanders, who wished to retaliate, were in the penalty box and before they returned Drainville had scored the goal that started the Halifax ball rolling. Before the game had ended one of the Islanders own players shot the puck into his own net and another shot the puck directly into a Halifax player's pads to enable that player to break away and score the series-ending goal. That, we know was

Locke Scores Upset In British Golf Tourney

ST. ANNE'S-ON-SEA, England, July 11—(AP)—Stern-faced Bobby Locke, who treats his golf as a problem of mechanics, worked his way through pelting rain and blustering winds today to capture the British open championship by a single stroke with a 287.

It was a story-book finish for the South African, who captured this crown in both 1949 and 1950. Locke went into today's final round of 36 holes trailing the leader, Irishman Fred Daly, by four strokes. But Daly blew under pressure and had to be content with third as 22-year-old Peter Thomson of Australia carded 282 to Daly's 289.

Of four Americans among the 46 finalists after the week-long series of eliminations, the best showing was turned in by Willie Goggin of Montclair, N.J., he had a 298 to finish in a six-way tie for ninth place.

Gene Sarazen of Germantown, N.Y., who won this title 20 years ago got an even 300, along with the defending champion, Britain's Max Faulkner.

At 302 was Jimmy Hines of Chicago, while Frank Stranahan of Toledo, Ohio, one of six amateurs in the final round, returned 311.

Daly held the lead most of the two days, but Locke finally got to him and took the lead after the first nine on the afternoon round.

A half gale and heavy showers swept in from the sea, and a wild crowd of spectators swarmed over the fashionable 6,647-yard Royal Lytham and St. Anne's course for the final day's play.

Angels Move Into 3rd Place In Softball League

The Guardian Angels moved into a third place tie in the City Softball League standings yesterday evening by coming from behind in the last of the seventh inning to score two runs and defeat the North End Bowery Bombers 11-10. The Angels and the Bombers are tied for third place with eight points each.

Ray Stull, well known softball pitcher, paved the way for the Angels' victory in the seventh inning. Coach Elmer Ward sent Stull in to pinch-hit for Billy Acorn to lead off the inning and Stull came through with a booming double.

Ward himself followed at the plate and when the infield overthrew first on Ward's grounder, Stull came home to score. Another infield overthrow by the Bombers allowed Ward to cross the plate with the winning run and the ball game.

The Bombers raced into a 6-0 lead in the second inning and held that margin until the last of the third when the Angels came up with three runs. The Bombers got those three back in the first of the fourth. The Angels accounted for single runs in the fourth and fifth to make the score 9-5 and in the sixth they came through with four runs to knot the count 9-9.

Monaghan scored for the Bombers in the first of the seventh. He came home from third after first baseman Jimmie Hughes singled.

Dick Doyle, on the mound for the Angels went the distance to pick up his third league win of the season. He allowed eleven hits and struck out five. Mike Connolly, on the hill for the Bombers, gave up seven hits and struck out three in going down to defeat.

Mahar and Jimmy Hughes of the Bombers pulled off the fielding plays of the game. Mahar made two sensational catches in center field to rob Gene Ward of hits while Hughes pulled down a line drive over first base to cut short a Guardian rally. Manny Kays of the Guardian played a strong game on third base.

HUNTERS' CORNER

The Department at Ottawa responsible for the enforcement of the Migratory Birds Convention Act and the Regulations imposed thereunder, such as open and closed seasons, bag limits, shooting restrictions, etc., has always taken a "dip" in the response to repeated complaints that the goose season opened too early (Oct. 1st) as there were no geese to shoot for the first three weeks of the open season. The Department concerned, the Department of Resources and Development, relaxed their stringent rule in respect of split seasons and gave us just that on ducks and geese.

Prior to 1949 following the eel grass failure, wildgeese had a hard time adjusting themselves to changed feeding conditions. Even after the eel grass staged a comeback the geese born after 1933 had no idea what eel grass meant as a staple diet with their forebears and them it was just so much grass and unpalatable at that.

It took years before the younger generation acquired a taste for eel grass and this change in feeding habits is still in process of adjustment. Prior to 1933 when eel grass beds flourished in rank growth off our shores the geese arrived in this province every fall early in September. Exhibition Week, in the old days September 24th to 26th, was regarded among the goose hunting fraternity as tops for the season.

The goslings had to have fresh water and flocked to the inland lakes and ponds. They were easily decoyed in the early days of the season before they got "wised up" and even inexperienced goose hunters had good luck. After the cooler days of October set in the geese didn't move inland so freely. Old

Third Place In Baseball League At Stake Sunday

Third place in the Island Baseball League standings will be at stake Sunday afternoon when the Intermediate Abbies and the Maritime Central Airways nine meet in a regular league game on Memorial Field.

The Maritime Central Airways team now hold third spot with eleven points and coach Tom MacFarlane stated last night that he would be sending right-hander Freddy Keilor onto the mound Sunday to try and nail down that coveted position.

The Abbies are only point behind the Airways team and a win will move them into third place. Coach Freddy McCabe will be pinning his hopes on his ace hurler, Merlin "Red" MacKenzie.

Handrahan for the Bombers was the winning pitcher. He worked for six innings and in the seventh gave way to Earl MacKinnon who came in to retire the Morell batters O'Brien hurled for Morell.

Merlin Devine of Peakes hit a home run in the fifth inning to account for the longest blow of the game.

heart-breaking for Islanders' fans and for Lamoureux but it was something for which we could not quite hold the coach responsible.

In his two-year tenure as coach here, Lamoureux had his glorious moments. After taking over from Murph Chamberlain during the 1950-51 season he led the Islanders to the Big Four championship in a convincing fashion. During the tumultuous play-off with the Sydney Millionaires he brought the Islanders close to the Maritime title, losing out in the sixth game at Halifax. Actually he came to within half a minute of winning the sixth game on Sydney and necessitating a seventh and final game at the Sydney Forum.

Last year Lamoureux was able to select a team and guide it home second despite the strengthening of the various teams in the circuit. This was quite a feat when one considers that the Sydney Millionaires, so great in 1951, finished out of the play-offs. The team that Lamoureux placed second to was the Saint John Beavers, a squad formed from the best in the O.H.A. Major League in 1951 and one of the best teams to come out of the Maritimes for nearly two decades.

Lamoureux demonstrated that he could still play hockey last year when he donned the blades in Saint John and played alongside ten other members of the Islanders team. The game ended in a 2-2 draw, the one of the two games in which the Islanders earned a tie in Saint John all season. The rest of the games in that City were lost by the Islanders. The result showed only one thing that Lamoureux at 37, overweight and out of active hockey for about four years, was still a lot better hockey player than most of those whom he was coaching.

In his two years here Lamoureux had a first and a second in the language of harness horsemen, a win and a place. That, we believe, is a pretty fair record and we doubt if there are many who will do much better than it. He leaves his successor a tough target to shoot at let alone better. The win and place pay-offs were not too bad. A lot better than ending in a show pool or out of the money.
