

MAY 27, 1895.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

Judge Priest in St. Louis has established the proposition that a lady who is engaged to a man has an insurable interest in his life.

A gentleman lately returned from the country states that the work of the road machine is not more permanent than that done by plough and shovel.

The following record of contested elections will give the reader an idea of the mathematical exactness of the relative purity of the two parties.

Members unseated..... 48 83 Members disqualified..... 1 8

There is no older hunting establishment in the world than that of the Goodwoods, which is now about to be broken up by the Duke of Richmond.

The Colonist (Victoria, B. C.) Moral reforms are very seldom ineffectually effected by statute law.

Rev. Dr. Dewar says farewell to the readers of the Christian Guardian in his week's issue of the paper.

According to the London Economist, Newfoundland's 3 1/2 per cent. bonds which on April 20th were selling in London at 86 began to advance immediately upon the announcement of Newfoundland's intention to enter the Canadian union.

In the course of his latest speech Sir William Harcourt appealed to the experience of the last half century in defence of the commercial and monetary principles which had made the national life what it was.

Prince Bismarck in his speech made when receiving the delegation from the Rhenish provinces a few days ago, said: "While in office I was always solemnly sworn to defend the rights of the small and the weak."

According to the latest official statistics there has been a decided advance in the export trade of Canada. During the earlier portions of the year we behind the record of 1894.

Commenting upon the Royal Academy exhibition recently held in Toronto, the Canadian Architect says: "The architectural section of this exhibition has for the first time formed an important part of the exhibition."

THE SONS OF ENGLAND

Parade at St. Peter's Church—Eloquent Sermon by Rev. James Simpson.

Englishmen and their descendants are less inclined to club together than either Scotchmen or Irishmen. There are, however, a few St. George's societies in Canada and lately a considerable number of the Sons of England.

There are in Charlottetown two lodges of the Sons of England—Eton Lodge, established about four years ago, and Prince Edward, established a few evenings ago.

The estimate of the mint director is that there was produced in the United States last year 1,910,000 ounces of gold of a value of $39,500,000.

The Pope has issued another encyclical on "The Union of Christendom." To all who to this end, for nine consecutive days before Pentecost, either publicly or privately recite some special prayer to the Holy Spirit, he grants on each of those days an indulgence of seven years and seven quarantines and a plenary indulgence on any one of those days.

He is the man who does not sympathize with his wife at this season. All the jokers, they are all men of course, picture the woes of man in house-cleaning time.

But what about the women? Is it fun for them? You great strong healthy men, who kick because your comfort is a little disturbed. What about your wives? Don't you know that their more delicate organization suffers a hundredfold more?

Jack and Jim met on Queen Street, in front of McLeod's Shoe Store. After the weather (ever present friend) is disposed of, conversation follows thus:—

Jack—"Well, Jim, hard times don't seem to hurt this store much. They keep things moving. I hear they sell good shoes here, and just about as cheap as other folks sell shoddy. The people seem to be 'on to it.'"

Jim—"Oh, yes, a fellow can get a good pair of solid lace shoes for an even dollar; women's, too, for 75c. Just look in the window and see those beauties for $3, and the latest narrow toe, black or tan. By George, no wonder they do the trade."

Come along here now, you fellows, or a cop'll arrest you for stealing a look at McLeod's Shoes. Ha! ha!
