Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Campbell, 140 Elm Avenue, entertained at their home in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Alan MacLean, who were recently married. Mr. and Mrs. MacLean were escorted to their seats of honor by

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Baker. Mr. Campbell presided. He called upon Mrs. J.A. MacLeod to read an address. Mrs. Edward White presented a purse of money to the newlyweds on behalf of those present. A social hour followed Mrs. Harry Keating extended a vote of thanks to the host and hostess for the use of their home.

Miss Andrea MacLean, Moncton, N.B. and Miss Maura McGloan, Lancaster, N.B. were among the students from St. Mary's College, Antigonish, who arrived in Charlottetown to attend the funeral of the late Jerome Gillis. While here they were guests of Miss MacLean's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Frank MacIntyre, Weymouth St.

ELIEN'S DIARY

The Time To Save Is When The Barrel Is Full

"Scarf, sweater, jacket, gloves Granddaughter checked off the items of wear with which she must garb herself against today's cold wind, before she went with the others 'in the road' to Rob's and the pickin'. Mack was searching cellar and building for elusive baskets, gathering them up blithely, anticipations of an afternoon spent in company with Gage obviously high. "Plenty" he commented, carrying them then to stow in the waiting truck. "You had better find yourself a smaller basket" he cautioned from the veranda. He laughed. "How old do you think I am—just a baby?" he queried. Is our grain-harvest all gathered. Not entirely. There remains a corner of a field to be reaped, this work deferred however in favor of the digging today. "We may say it's done," James commented at dinner. "There are only a few bushels out. And" he smiled "isn't it good to have it over? It's not the work of the harvest I mind—it's a nice work, but there is always the concern of not getting it all gathered in because of delaying weather. "But," he nodded "once it's cut and in stook, it's usually fairly safe. We were fortunate to get the rest under cover, weren't we? Both the grain and the straw. Yes, every last bale is in." "Ah, ha!" a shifty brown rooster looked up with a pointed smile this afternoon, when we spread the fowls' supper in the yard "aren't you being a little too generous with the grain? I'm afraid you've forgotten your husband's maxim: the time to save."

"As when the barrel is full!" "We grinned. He nodded. "It's a long time between harvests, you know." This was a cold day and often sunless. Wind-blown but pretty. The trees deepened their shades—here was a scarlet so pretty.

Pope-McOnie Wedding Is Held In Montreal

The marriage of June Elizabeth, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Fraser McOnie of Montreal to Mr. George Creelman Pope, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. George Reginald Pope of Summerside, Prince Edward Island took place on Saturday afternoon at half past three o'clock in the Church of St. Andrew and St. Paul, Montreal, the Rev. R.J. Berlis officiating. Red gladioli and white gladioli and white chrysanthemums were used to decorate the church.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white brocade fashioned with a fitted bodice having a V-neckline, long sleeves and a very full skirt. Her full length veil of marquisette was held by a circlet of tulle and seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of sweetheart roses, white carnations and stephanotis.

Miss Maureen Crawford McOnie, as maid of honour, for her sister, and Miss Nan Pope, sister of the bridegroom, as bridesmaid, were in dresses of white velvet hats and carried red velvet muffs with sprays of white carnations and shasta daisies.

Mr. Peter Pope acted as best man for his brother and the usher were Mr. Peter Beswick, Mr. Morley Rowat and Mr. Fraser McOnie, brother of the bride.

The reception was held in the Blue Room of the Ritz Carlton Hotel. Later Mr. and Mrs. Pope left by car for New York and Washington, D.C. the bride travelling in a suit of cinnamon brown, with apple green accessories, a mink stole and a corsage bouquet of anemone roses.

The October meeting of Little Flower sub-division of C. W. L. was held Oct. 5th at 8 p.m. The president Mrs. Somerled Kelly presided and called the meeting to order. Rev. Fr. Robin opened meeting with League prayer and prayers for His Holiness Pope Pius XII. Roll call was answered by twenty-six members. Members of previous meeting were read by secretary, Mrs. B. F. McCarty and approved and signed as read. Correspondence consisted of a letter from Mrs. Basil MacDonald. A short discus-son followed on possibility of holding Diocesan C. W. L. Convention here next year. It was decided to leave matter to executive for further consideration.

Th president thanked all members for help and co-operation with bazaar and bean supper held last week. Treasurer Mrs. J. B. Jay read the financial report - the proceeds of bean supper was $168.40. Hand books of By-laws were handed out to conveners.

A discussion on Girl Guide work followed and it was decided to take up the matter later. It was decided to hold a bingo on Oct. 15th.

The Social Welfare Convener was asked to bring comforts and pay visit to Hungarian Families residing here.

A very informative talk by Fr. Robin on mystical body of Christ was enjoyed by members. Meeting closed with prayers.

Does BLADDER WEAKNESS MAKE YOU FEEL OLD

TORONTO—Special: Thanks to new scientific laboratory formulation, thousands of men and women now escape feeling old, tired, irritable and depressed from losing sleep and worrying about "Bladder Weakness"—too frequent, burning and itching urination. MR. AND MRS. JOHN SCHILLER

Lealands Has Another Most Beautiful Wedding

The marriage of Ann Ruth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Boswell, Lealands, Victoria, to Mr. John Peter Schiller, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Schiller of Windsor, Ontario, took place recently in the United Church, Victoria, Prince Edward Island. The Rev. K.C. Charman was the officiating minister.

Miss Elaine Loggie, a Mount Allison Conservatory of Music, classmate of the bride, played the wedding music. During the service a girls' choir consisting of Miss Elizabeth Anderson, Miss Diane Rupert, Miss Sandra Sutherland, Miss Diane Rodd, Miss Gail Carter and Miss Nancy Thompson, all former music students of the bride sang "O Perfect Love" (Barnsky), "The Lord's Prayer" (Malotte) and Handel's "Where'er You Walk." "The Lord's Prayer" was a special arrangement of the Malotte music by the Canadian musician, Dr. Leslie Bell, a personal friend of the bride.

Pink and white gladioli in tall stands and baskets made a fitting background for the impressive ceremony.

The bride, a picture of beauty, was given in marriage by her father. She wore an imported model gown of blue pink Chamilly lace and tulle over satin. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a Sabrina neckline. The long sleeves ended in a point over her hands. The voluminous tulle skirt which formed a chapel train, was appliqued at the front with two wide panels of Chamilly lace. Her fingertip veil of blue pink tulle illusion was held by a halo of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of pink sweetheart roses arranged on a white Bible.

Mrs. Charles Howatt, as matron of honor for her sister, and Mrs. Ralph Manning, also a sister of the bride, and Mrs. Kelsey Raymond were gowned alike in silvery pink crystalettes 110 or length dresses made with Princess bodice and triple-tiered skirts. They wore portrait hats with velvet trim and carried matching baskets filled with white carnations. The baskets were designed and made by the bride's mother.

Little Miss Janet Lea, and Miss Ann Trenholm of Montreal, as flower girls wore frocks of white organza over bluish pink. Matching bonnets formed their head-dresses and they carried baskets of pink rosebuds.

Master Ronald Ballem was ring bearer. Mr. Ralph Manning acted as best man. The ushers were Mr. Lea Windsor, Mr. Alan Boswell, Mr. Bryce Boswell and Mr. Edward Boswell.

Mrs. Boswell, the bride's mother was costumed in a gown of ivory tan lace and wore a rose-colored portrait hat. Her corsage was of feathered carnations in a shade to match her hat.

Telegrams and letters were received from Great Britain and many parts of the United States and Canada.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the lovely Lealands gardens of the bride's parents. The toast to the bride was given by Mr. Walter Shaw, the opposition leader in the government of Prince Edward Island.

Mrs. Alan Stewart and Mrs. Gordon Lea presided over the beautifully appointed bride's table. Assisting in serving were Mrs. Bill Trenholm, Mrs. David Seales, Mrs. Lloyd MacLeod, Miss Annabel Lea, Mrs. Frank Currie, Mrs. Ronald Atkinson, Mrs. Charles Ballem, Mrs. L. Johnson, Miss Sylvia Boulter, Mrs. Sandy Morrison, Mrs. Ken MacLean, Mrs. Keith Boulter, Mrs. Emerson MacDonald, Mrs. James Williams, Mrs. Harold Woodside, Mrs. George Cannon, Miss Barbara Stewart, Mrs. Charles Schurman and Miss Lillian Ann Hogg.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Schiller left for Montreal where they will reside. The bride wore for travelling an original model of navy English wool with sapphire mink collar, three quarter length sleeves, blouson back held by a belt, and tapered skirt. She wore a French original model hat created by Emme. The hat was of red satin and velvet in a turban bonnet style. Her accessories were navy and she wore a corsage of gardenias.

Mrs. Grace McFarland Is The Senior Woman Mayor

Miss Ann Walsh, a member of the Business and Professional Women's Club week committee has compiled this interesting biography of Mrs. Grace McFarland. The latter served six years as Mayor, being the record for holding of this office, and becoming Canada's senior woman mayor because of the continuous years. Mrs. McFarland has a most youthful appearance and is a most attractive woman.

The following is the Grace McFarland story:
Mrs. Grace McFarland, a native of Leamington, Ontario, has been active in the civic life of that city practically since her graduation from college.

She started out her career as a legal stenographer, and later was employed as assistant to the Town Clerk Treasurer, which position she held for nine years, leaving to form her own insurance company.

Grace McFarland has been active in the Business and Professional Women's Club since 1948, serving as charter president of the Leamington Club, regional Advisor for District No. 1, vice-president of Electoral District A member of a committee on Equal Pay for Equal Work. (which they succeeded in getting passed by the Ontario House), and Emblem Convener for Ontario.

In addition to this Mrs. McFarland has been eight years on the Leamington City Council, being the first woman to sit as deputy reeve for the town; also the first woman to sit on Essex County Council since its inception over one hundred years ago.

Several members passed in articles for a travelling basket which will be making the rounds. A letter was received from P.E.I. Hospital, asking for the usual donations for their annual bazaar.

It was moved and seconded that $3.00 be given to cancer fund. Collection amounted to $2.25.

Mrs. Ira McDonald invited the members for the next meeting, to her house. Roll call to be answered with a get-well or a sympathy card, lunch committee to be Mrs. Forsyth, Mrs. Walter McLure and Mrs. Donnie Allan.

Two nighties were passed in. Lunch was served by hostess and committee, and meeting closed with the national anthem.

"Our dreams came true at 60"

How we retired on $300 a month for life

"My wife and I have always wanted to travel. So when I retired last fall we set out to see a lot of places we've only dreamed of before. And I get $300 every month while enjoying it—thanks to my Confederation Life Insurance Pension Plan.

"When I first talked to my Confederation Life man, I was pleasantly surprised at how easily I could make my dreams of retiring come true—without risking my savings. And my Confederation Pension plan provided excellent Life Insurance protection for my family. For any man who values security, I believe the Confederation Life Pension Plan with Life Insurance is a perfect way to protect your family and make your dreams of retirement pleasures come true!"
