NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

CANADIAN.

QUEBEC, Oct. 13.

The Princess Louise will arrive at Quebec on Saturday morning, and will immediately proceed on board the "Sarmatian" for England. The "Tourmaline" has arrived and will fire a royal salute on the arrival of Her Royal Highness and will escort the "Sarmatian" to sea. Sir Patrick McDougall is expected from Halifax to assist at the departure.

HALIFAX.

HALIFAX, Oct. 14.

The Halifax sugar refinery is at last a settled fact. The directors, at their meeting last evening, decided on the Kaye property at Richmond as the site. The price is $18,000. The property is 458 feet 8 inches front and 115 feet depth at the north end, 196 feet 6 inches at the southern end. The greatest width is about 245 feet. The directors have decided to go to work at once and prepare for the erection of suitable buildings in the spring. The engineers are at work, to-day, surveying the ground and it is probable that before the cold weather sets in all that will be necessary, will be completed and other preliminaries arranged for the rapid completion of the work in the spring. Mr. Schriber (engineer) and Mr. Pottinger, manager of the L. C. R., have been consulted and have offered to do all in their power to further the interests of the refinery.

EUROPEAN.

LONDON, Oct. 14.

Editor Lawson, of the London "Telegraph," has brought a suit against Labouchere for libel.

The Pope on Friday underwent a slight surgical operation, but is confined to bed.

DUBLIN, Oct. 14.

Five hundred tenants of the Marquis of Sligo and the Earl of Lucan met near Westport, and solemnly pledged themselves to pay no rent until a reduction is granted proportionate to the great fall in prices on all agricultural produce. A notice was posted at Warrenpoint, County Down, Ulster, that any man coming into the county to pay more than a pound an acre for land may bring his coffin with him.

AFGHANISTAN.

LONDON, Oct. 14.

A despatch from Allahabad to the 'News' says: Gen. Roberts and staff visited the late Residency at Cabul, portions of which are burned, but the greater part is still standing, though completely looted. The bodies of Major Cavagnari and Dr. Kelly are said to be buried beneath the debris and charred logs at the northern end of the Court yard. Search will be made. Major Cavagnari's visiting diary was found at the Ameer's palace.

A Simla despatch of the 14th to London says the camp at Ali Keyl was attacked by the neighboring tribes, who were repulsed.

UNITED STATES.

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.

News from the White River Agency, in Wyoming Territory, corroborates the first report that the Indians massacred and mutilated all the white men they could find, and carried off the women and children.

THE OHIO ELECTION.

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 14.

Fifteen wards of townships show a Republican net gain of 2,000. The Republicans claim that this indicates a majority of 7,000 for Cuyahago county, which last year gave but 4,738.

CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 14.

The first ward of Springfield shows a Democratic gain of 43.

Clifton voting place, in Hamilton county, gives a Republican gain of 2,350.

Forty voting places scattered over the State show a Republican net gain of 545.

A Columbus, Ohio, despatch says: Reports to midnight indicate Foster's election for Governor by from 25,000 to 30,000.

The Government's Immigration Policy.

REPORTS so far as received give indications of the most flattering success of the immigration policy of the Minister of Agriculture in the matter of inviting tenant farmers' delegates to visit Canada. There are now fifteen of these gentlemen in various parts of the Dominion, five being in Manitoba, and the balance partly in the Eastern Townships and partly in Western Ontario. So far, all express themselves as thoroughly well pleased with what they have seen of the country, and the indications are that their visit will result in a large and valuable immigration next spring. The attempt of the Grit press to show that this policy will result in benefiting the United States is nonsensical, as none of these delegates have visited the United States, nor will they do so, it being their firm determination, if forced to emigrate from Great Britain, not to leave the shelter of the old flag, nor to advise any of their countrymen to settle anywhere but in the Dominion.

Rev. R. Wilson, a missionary, was garroted on Dorchester street, Montreal, on Monday night, and robbed of four dollars in silver.

Correspondence.

We do not hold ourselves responsible for the statements or opinions of our correspondents.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

DEAR SIR,—In perusing a late number of the Patriot, which by accident fell into my hands, I was for a moment astounded to find such gross accusations hurled against the editor of the Herald; but when I considered the character of the penman, I was not the least astonished, as it is customary for the editor of the Patriot to indulge in language unbecoming to a person who considers himself capable of editing a paper. He complains that Prof. Caven is unable to edit his paper, and at the same time attend to his duties as Professor. Now, I contend Prof. Caven performs his duties as faithfully, as does any Professor in connection with the institution.

If Prof. Caven does edit the Herald he does so in a masterly style which is a credit to any journal. But alas! the same cannot be said of the editor of the Patriot; who is unscrupulous in his attacks against his political opponents.

He says "Mr. Caven's political opponents when they come into power will demand the instant dismissal of such an active and bitter partizan as the editor of the Herald." If this change of the Government to which the Patriot refers shall occur it will be more than likely Prof. Caven will be retained in his position, as it is difficult within the limits of the Dominion to substitute another who shall be competent to take his place.

He also says "Professor Caven makes use of his position to advance the party to which he belongs." Now I defy the Patriot to substantiate his assertion which is basely untruthful. If the editor of the Patriot was aware of the small amount of influence commanded by his paper, he would cease from drawing his conclusion and leave it to those who are competent to do so. He also refers to his inability to teach certain branches; why is utterly untrue. The authority from whom the Patriot obtained his information is, I presume, equally as unscrupulous as the Patriot himself. I defy his informant to manfully sustain his assertion.

In conclusion I may add that parties reading the Patriot should entirely discard any accusations hurled against his political opponents.

Thanking you kindly for space in your valuable paper,

I remain, yours,

PRO BONO PUBLICO.

Ch'town, Oct. 14, 1879.

General Grant and the Indians.

The known hatred of General Grant for the Indian may have something to do with the report which, according to the American Correspondence, is current in Washington that he has just offered to conduct the campaign against them. It is said that "finding himself in close proximity to the theatre of the rebellion, the idea naturally occurred to him, like a good patriot, to place his sword anew at the service of his country. After the ovation which he has just received at San Francisco upon his return from his voyage round the world, General Grant could easily raise in a single day enough Californian volunteers to chastise the Utes who massacred, on the 27th September, a small body of American troops. . . . It is the general opinion that, besides being urged thereto by his patriotic feelings, his present action is in obedience, not to any desire to increase his popularity in view of his re-election to the Presidency, but to that of avenging his old companion at arms." This last reference is to General Custer.

It is curious that no one has drawn a parallel between the fate of Captain Cook, the famous explorer of the 18th century, and that of the young Prince Imperial. They were both unexpectedly attacked by savages and killed in the presence of a small number of followers, who in neither case tried to do more than save themselves. But nobody was court-martialed for escaping and leaving Captain Cook to his fate, though he was the only man left ashore when the Sandwich Islanders came up with him and killed him with weapons not unlike those used by Catewaway's Zulus.—Mail.

The recent fire in the Ottawa House of Commons is likely to have beneficial results, so far as the ventilation of that chamber is concerned. It is proposed to connect the galleries with the fan in the boiler, and by this means the foul air will be drawn out and a supply of fresh air sent in. It is also proposed to tint the walls and make other improvements. Men have already been at work and necessary repairs made to the roof.

False Impression.

It is generally supposed by physicians and the people generally that Dyspepsia can not invariably be cured, but we are pleased to say that GREEN'S AUGUST FLOWER has never, to our knowledge, failed to cure Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint in all its forms, such as Sour Stomach, Costiveness, Sick Headache, palpitation of the heart, Indigestion, bad taste in the mouth, &c. Out of the 50,000 dozen bottles sold last year, not a single failure was reported, but thousands of complimentary letters from Druggists of wonderful cures. Three doses will relieve any case. Try it. Sample Bottles 10 cents. Regular size 75 cents. For sale by all Druggists.
