Big Issue At MMHL Meeting

SYDNEY, (CP)—A big issue at the Maritime Major Hockey League's annual meeting in New Glasgow Sept. 26 will be the $2,500 forfeited to the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association by the Quebec Senior Hockey League, it was learned here.

The QSHL clubs each forfeited their $500 bond when they turned professional after a squabble with the CAHA over a player deal. The QSHL, only other major league, was to have met the MMHL final for the Alexander Cup.

Actually $3,500 was forfeited but the CAHA claimed $1,000 because of unusually high administrative costs of the major circuit.

Halifax Atlantics, who won the Alexander Cup with the MMHL championship claim the money should be theirs. The other three clubs say it should be shared.

W.B. George, CAHA president, will attend the meeting and later decide what happens to the money.

See Los Angeles National League City

ST. LOUIS, (AP)—The Sporting News, an copyrighted story Friday lay out the flimsy on Los Angeles as an eventual National League city.

J. G. Taylor Spink, publisher of the baseball weekly, said the earliest date for the expansion of the National League would appear to be five years away.

The story cites two incidents to support its prediction of the promotion of the current Pacific Coast League city to major league status:

1. In 1947, the Sporting News reports, the National League revised its constitution to provide for an expansion to a 10-team circuit. This was done, the Sporting News states, without concurring action by the American League.

2. The Los Angeles Angels, a PCL club owned by E. K. Wigley—who also owns the Chicago National League franchise—has informed the nearby Hollywood club it would not renew Hollywood's permit to operate in the Angels' territory after 1948, the Sporting News said.
