DOMESTIC ECONOMY

Said Brown unto his wife one day,
"We've nothing left to eat;
If things go on in this queer way,
We can't make both ends meet."
His wife replied in words discreet,
"Oh, we won't be badly fed;
If you can make but one end meet,
I'll make the other bread!"
Chicago News.

BUT MAKE WIFE!

You can't make good Bread, if you don't use good Flour. It's a mistake many people make in buying Flour as well as other things, in thinking they are using economy by buying a cheap grade but it generally proves the dearest in the end. When in want of Flour give us a call; we keep most of the standard brands and can quote as low prices as anyone in the trade.

WONDROUS REMEDY

Is What a London Doctor Calls
Dodd's Kidney Pills.

LONDON, Oct. 1.—A large decrease in the number of cases of Kidney Disease has been noted in this city during the past year.

"Here's only one thing to be said about it," said a prominent physician, speaking on the subject to-day.

"This falling off is due solely to the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills by the people. Dodd's Kidney Pills are the most wondrous kidney remedy ever known. They are used in nearly every household, which accounts for the great decrease of Kidney Complaints."

CORRUPTION MUST CEASE.

THE CLERGY OF A NEW BRUNSWICK DEANERY SPEAK OUT PLAINLY.

At a regular meeting of the clergy of the Rural Deanery of Shediac, held at Petitcodiac, N. S., on September 18th and 19th, the matter of bribery and corruption at elections were discussed. After the discussion the following resolutions were adopted:

That, whereas, without admitting any personal knowledge of specific acts of bribery at elections, the clergy of this Deanery are never the less cognizant of a prevailing feeling and conviction amongst electors of every shade of political opinion that such acts are practiced:

And, whereas leading men of all political parties openly admit and deplore the prevalence of such practices, and the fact that without them, as things are, neither party could hope to gain an election:

And whereas leading politicians do from time to time urge that the clergy as the proper teachers of public morality, should do all that in them lies to abate this evil:

Therefore, be it resolved in view of the near approach of the general elections:

That the clergy of this Deanery do agree to again preach in their respective parishes against this publicly acknowledged and lamented evil, and will otherwise continue to promote, and will be ready to co-operate with all Christian ministers and public men in promoting a higher standard of public sentiment in this matter. But they respectfully remind all political candidates, and their agents and supporters, that no abatement of this evil can be looked for until they shall combine absolutely to refuse to offer or receive any bribe or other consideration, direct or indirect, for the purpose of influencing votes:

And further resolved that a copy of this resolution be sent to the press in the county of Westmorland, and also to the Sheriff of the said county, respectfully praying the said Sheriff to take any steps that in his judgment will be most likely to bring about so desirable a reform.

E. BERTRAM HOPE,
Secretary of the Rural Deanery of Shediac.

To universal demand for army reform, arising from Great Britain's war experiences, provoked Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, the last Liberal al war minister, to say: 'Officers should be better paid or be obliged to spend less, otherwise the army will remain the playground for the rich.' He did not care whether the officers came from the ranks or from the outside, but they ought to be able to live on their pay. Then the officials would find that the officers would devote themselves seriously to their profession. That there should be a democratic army was the lesson of the war. The experience of correspondents accompanying the army entirely confirms this view.

The British Government has announced that as the Orange Free State and the Transvaal are already annexed there will be no reason at any time in proclaiming the conclusion of peace. It would indeed wreck the protected conciliation policy if a day were selected which the jingoes of future years could celebrate as a kind of Sedan Day; besides ironic comparisons of the conduct of the war would surely be called up.

An interesting report comes from Komati Poort to the effect that Mr. Kruger, in a letter to his wife, announcing that he is going on a six months' holiday, said in substance, that after the capture of Machadodorp, he knew the struggle was hopeless, and counselled moderation, but that Mr. Steyn's 'arbitrary behavior' overruled his counsel.

Weak, Sickly Children

Are Restored to Health and Vigour by Using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Many children are pale, weak, and bloodless from their birth. Many others have their blood and nerves exhausted, and their systems broken down by the ravages of disease, or as the result of over-study at school.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is the ideal treatment for children. It supplies the very elements which are lacking in the pale, weak, and nervous. It restores the colour and richness to the blood, invigorates the nerves, and builds up the system. As a restorative after the exhausting and debilitating effects of measles, scarlet fever, and such ailments, it is of incalculable worth.

Mrs. Stephen Dempsey, Albury, P. E. county, Ont., writes:—"My little granddaughter, nine years old, was very pale and weak, and had no appetite. She had a tired, worn-out appearance, and was delicate and sickly. I got some of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food for her, and it has helped her very much. She is gaining considerably in weight and looks real healthy."
