The cable despatch stating that the cases against the Irish agitators had been abandoned by the Government, is untrue; the prisoners are out on bail, but have to appear at Dublin for trial.

THERE is said to be a rapidly growing feeling in Russia that war must be engaged in with some one or other, as a panacea for internal disturbances at present affecting the peace of that country.

A REPORT from the vicinity of Edmonton, Manitoba, says that one farmer there raised this last season, 7,000 bushels of wheat, and that another raised 4,000, for all of which a ready local market was found.

FIGHTING still continues near Cabul, and the situation has become very serious for the British forces. Preparations are being made for combined and decisive action against the expected general attack of the enemy.

GERMANY and Austria are to have a uniform tariff and a customs union. They will thus become virtually one great nation whose influence will be irresistibly powerful on the Danube and Baltic. But as an offset to this customs union of the Germans, who are to be treated also to a Latin union which will comprehend France, Spain, Italy, Belgium, and possibly Switzerland. Great Britain will be left out in the cold, of course. Well, let her form a customs union with her own colonies? These changes are very probably in the not far distant future.—New Times and Reporter.

JUST before the last Ontario elections a placard was issued in the city of Toronto in the interest of Mr. Mowat, promising that, if elected, he would send a million of money in the city in the erection of new Parliament buildings. The issue of this placard was denounced as a bribe, and the Globe made great efforts to prove that Mr. Mowat was in no way responsible for it. Whether he was or not, there appears to be no doubt of the fact stated in it. The Government have now resolved to erect these legislative buildings, and have selected the site of the Queen's Park upon which to erect them. A million of dollars is the estimate which, judging by the usual experiences in such cases, especially under the present Ontario Government, means that two millions will be expended before they are finished.

Good News from England.

The wood circulars, just received, and from which we make extracts to-day, disclose a further gratifying advance in the price of deals. But still later news by cable has led to a sale of deals here at $9 a thousand, previous sales having barely averaged $8, while some have been sold at the ruinous price of $4.50. Those who were able to hold and yard their deals, and can now ship them, between the advance in lumber and the decline in freights, will make a nice thing of it. Our London correspondents, in a letter which we cannot publish to-day, also send us good news, more especially as regards freights. They say:

The great advance which we noted in Eastern home freights, last month, has not only been maintained, but a further noticeable rise has taken place. Eighty shillings to Dundee and eighty-five shillings to London has been paid in Calcutta for ready vessels; 70s. has been paid for teak, 50s. sugar and 60s. hemp from Manila; 50s. Madras coast to London.

This is an enormous advance on the freights of last year; in some cases nearly double.—St. John Telegraph.

The Island's New Senator.

OTTAWA, Dec. 16.—J. S. Carvell, of Charlottetown, P. E. I., has been appointed to the Senate in the place of Senator Haviland, who was made Governor, some time ago.

Death of an Old Politician.

Ontario advices announce the death, after a lingering illness, of Mr. Daniel Galbraith, M. P., for North Lanark. He was born in Glasgow in 1813, and came to this country when eight years of age. He represented North Lanark in the Ontario Assembly, from 1867 to 1872, and in the House of Commons from 1872 until his death. At the last General Election he was elected over his Liberal Conservative opponent by 43 majority. The deceased gentleman was one of the most highly esteemed members of the House of Commons, and his death will be universally regretted by both political parties.

Great Liberal-Conservative Banquet in Honor of Sir S. L. Tilley.

ST. JOHN, N. B., Dec. 17.—The Conservative banquet at the Royal this evening in honor of Sir S. L. Tilley, was a grand affair, and continued until an early hour this morning. About one hundred gentlemen sat down to tables loaded with all the delicacies of the season. Among those present were Atty. General Fraser, Hons. Robert Robinson, Robt. Young, George E. King, Judge Watters, Judge Palmer, General Warner, John Boyd, Esq., Dr. Tuck, James Harris, Esq., etc. In response to toasts, speeches were made by the United States Consul, General Warner, John Boyd, Dr. Tuck, C. N. Skinner, and others. Sir Leonard's speech was received with loud cheering, and was a masterly effort. It was composed of a justification of the National Policy Tariff, and of his own political career. Sir Leonard leaves for Ottawa to-morrow morning. Addresses will be presented to him at Sussex and Moncton.

Daring Robbery at Berwick, N. S.

A FARMER ROBBED OF $1,000, THE HARD EARNINGS OF 20 YEARS.

On Thursday the 11th inst., Mr. William Foster, a respectable farmer, who resides about two miles from Berwick, and who had been engaged during the evening in his cellar, his wife and father being in the sitting room, when about returning, discovered that a trunk containing his hard earned savings of over twenty years—$950, in bank bills and gold—a watch and some clothing, in all over $1,000, had mysteriously disappeared. A search around the premises revealed the fact that the robbers came in a wagon, drove up the lane a short distance from the house, and left the team, proceeding to the house and seeing everything favorable for their plans to succeed, procured a ladder from the barn, by which means they reached the bedroom, forcing up the window and carrying off the trunk, which they evidently thought it better to open at a more convenient season, as delays might prove dangerous. The trunk has since been found, broken open, and minus cash and watch. The clothing was left; probably it did not fit. The robbery, for daring and skillfulness in its execution, is only equalled by the Bank of Nova Scotia robbery, as it must have been done quite early in the evening, while Mr. F. was in the cellar and the others in the sitting room. Amongst the bills taken was an old £5, Nova Scotia currency, Bank of Nova Scotia, which had been in Mr. Foster's possession for over 20 years, which was the nest egg of the pile. No clue to the robbers so far.—Hc. Herald.

The Reform of Turkey.

The London Telegraph states that Baker Pasha has started on his mission and will speedily arrive at Aleppo. To what extent his recommendations will be carried out remains to be seen. Yet it would be idle to ignore the fact that alongside his progress through the Provinces runs the parallel fact of Turkey's increasing and apparently helpless poverty. The appointment of an Asiatic gendarmerie, the reform of administration, and the constitution of proper judicial tribunals, together with the many other changes which have been pressed upon the Porte, all require money for their realization, and against that indubitable proposition is ranged the utter emptiness of the Ottoman treasury. What steps should be taken to place the Porte in a better position is not so clear as that something must be speedily done to avoid a collapse. In the opinion of those who know the country, there is still within its confines an abundance of wealth, if it were only properly collected or husbanded. Yet it is not by the assistance of Greek bankers in Galata and their temporary loans at high rates of interest upon fresh mortgages that the Turkish Government can be righted. Some sweeping measure, which should place such ports as Smyrna, Trebizond, and Salonica, to say nothing of Constantinople, with its yearly record of five million tons of shipping, in the hands of European administrators is needed, and this should be energetically proposed to the Sultan's advisers. The experiment which has been tried in Egypt, if not adopted in its entirety by Turkey, might with certain modifications be carried out for a time at least, and money would thus be provided for the pressing needs of the Government. Without some such plan reforms may be proposed, and inspectors may travel through Asia without any result. With it, and some such changes in the Ottoman Ministry as shall put an end to the intrigues which are daily reported from Stambul, an era of prosperity might yet dawn upon Turkey.
