

Vice-Regal Party at Fredericton.

HOW THEY SPENT MONDAY.

The weather was fine at 10.40 o'clock. Their Excellencies drove to the Normal School. They were introduced to the teachers, and inspected the building and 130 pupils. On taking their places on the platform, the pupils, led by Prof. Cadwallader on the organ, sang "God Save the Queen." This being ended the party took their seats. His Excellency in a brief speech, all standing, expressed his pleasure at having an opportunity of visiting the Normal School: referred to the benefits of such an institution and the system of free education. He said he had visited the Normal School in Ontario, with which this compared favorably. He wished the pupils success in their future field as teachers and expressed the hope that he would be permitted to make another visit to New Brunswick before his term of office expired, when he would have an opportunity to meet them.

The Marquis and Princess then descended from the platform to the space in front, where they were met by little Miss Crockett, daughter of the principal, who presented the Princess with a magnificent bouquet of flowers. After which the Princess and Marquis kindly shook the little lady's hand and the Marquis spoke a pleasant word. Mrs. Crockett, lady of the principal, was then presented to their Excellencies.

Principal Crockett next arose and proposed three cheers for their Excellencies, which were given with a will by the students and teachers, causing the walls of the large and beautiful Assembly Hall to ring again. The gentlemen waved their hands and the ladies fluttered their handkerchiefs. The compliment was most graciously acknowledged by their Excellencies, who then bowed and retired, the party taking the same order as that in which they entered.

Carriages were taken amidst the immense throng of people, who cheered to the echo. Queen street, as far as the eye could reach, was one mass of humanity, and the windows of the buildings from basement to attic were filled with cheery faces. The party passed down Queen street to Church, and up to the University, where they were received by President Jack, who was introduced to the Princess and Marquis, followed by Professors Bailey, Harrison and Rivet and the members of the Senate, the Chief Justice, Judge Fisher, Hon. Senator Work and Dr. Atherton. The Marquis regretted the absence of the students, whom he expressed a desire to have met. After the formal proceedings were gone through, the party took a stroll through the building, accompanied by Dr. Jack, visiting the library, reading-room, museum and classic lecture-room.

The books in the library presented by the Queen were of especial interest to the Princess and His Excellency, and Her Royal Highness manifested much interest and lingered some time over the geological specimens in the museum. Prof. Bailey was questioned closely by the party in reference to Albertite coal, polished red granite, etc. The Indian relics were admired greatly and their history inquired into. The genial manner of the Marquis and Princess charmed every one with whom they came in contact.

On the way up, the road was crowded with spectators. Several bouquets were presented to their Excellencies at Babbitts Corner, where the carriage stopped a short time. Opposite the residence of Marshall Ritchey, Esq., Misses Louisa Ritchey and Shampier, of Carleton, presented the Princess and Marquis with beautiful bouquets composed of flowers grown in Mr. Ritchey's garden. These pleasing incidents were greatly appreciated.

At noon the addresses of the City and Municipal Bodies of the County of York were presented at the Exhibition Palace. The building was decorated in a most pleasing and tasteful manner in the interior, and over the grand entrance was a slight arch composed of evergreen and bunting.

As the party entered and walked up the aisle, the band struck up, and 500 Sunday School children from the different Sunday Schools in the city, under the leadership of Prof. Cadwallader, sang the National Anthem. The party walked slowly up the aisle, headed by the two A. D. C.'s, Major DeWinton and Captain Harbord, the Marquis and Princess in the centre, and Mrs. DeWinton and the Provincial A. D. C., Lt. Col. Drury, brought up the rear. As they ascended the platform the singing ceased, and they disposed themselves thus: the Governor-General and Princess taking the two chairs in the centre, Major DeWinton to the right at the head of the sofa, and Capt. Harbord to the left in a similar position. Mrs. DeWinton stood to the right rear of the Marquis.

Three little girls dressed in white, Miss A. Mill, Miss H. Sterling and Miss M. Blair, then came on the platform, Miss Sterling bearing a handsome bouquet. The Mayor and City Clerk then came up and stood behind them. Mayor Gregory then read the address, to which the Governor-General made the following REPLY.

To the Mayor and City Council of the City of Fredericton.

MR. MAYOR AND GENTLEMEN:—

This is not the first time, as you remind me, that the Queen's children have visited your people and have received at their hands the proofs of an affection for our Sovereign, which animates all Her Majesty's subjects.

The Queen has now reigned for a longer period than has been vouchsafed to most of our monarchs over a prosperous and united nation whose strength has, during her life, been greatly increased by the development and consolidation of this her great Dominion. Her Majesty possesses here the love of a people more numerous than were the English nation when they achieved the glories which the trumpet of fame moved by Shakespeare's breath made a household word among all nations.

In Canada I am able to receive with pride testimonials of respect, reverence and love for her rule from men whose government represents a force, if population and material resources be taken into account, far greater than that possessed of old by England, even in those days which rang with the deeds of her heroes and have been called the glorious times of Elizabeth; and, while we must look upon this country as rapidly becoming one of the moving influences of the world, we cannot forget what an advantageous variety of position and power within the sphere of the Dominion is possessed by the various Provinces. In the Province of which this city is the capital, you have the great ocean highways so near you that your brave and hardy maritime population can furnish your mercantile marine with many of the best sailors in America. In the territory comprised within your limits you occupy a central position through which much of the land traffic of this part of the American Continent is likely to be conducted, and your climate gives to all those who cultivate your soil abundance of agricultural resources, in corn and pasture land.

It may not be inappropriate now, when you give us your kindly and hospitable welcome to the capital of your Province, to ask you to receive with our thanks the expression of our hope that the members selected as the representatives of the Province who assemble here may be granted wisdom by the Most High to further the welfare and promote the best interests of a true and loyal people. LORNE.

An Address was also presented by the Warden of the Municipality and suitably replied to. When the Governor General had finished, Sheriff Temple proposed three cheers for the Governor General, and three such rousing cheers were given as Fredericton has not heard for many a day; three were given for the Princess, and three more for the Queen.

This being concluded, their Excellencies drove through the town and visited the House of Assembly, where the Princess recognized the large picture of Queen Caroline. The Marquis prolonged his stay and inspected the library, while the Princess drove to the Cathedral and was shown that stately pile. The streets on the return to Government House were crowded with people, who lustily cheered the Princess. In the evening there was a dinner at Government House and a Drawing Room Reception.

The Vice-Regal Party at Pictou.

The Druid arrived at Pictou at about 8 o'clock this morning, and the Vice-Regal Party landed on the Public Wharf at about ten. They were received by a guard of honor drawn from the Pictou Battery of Garrison Artillery and all the dignitaries of the town. Opposite the Custom House a decorated stand had been erected, and there the address of the Municipality was presented and the reply given. The party then drove around the town; and, after seeing it pretty thoroughly, they crossed the harbor and took the train for Stellarton, and thence proceeded to view the mines. Pictou, New Glasgow and Stellarton were gaily decorated, and the enthusiasm of the reception was warm and generous. The party will sleep on board the Druid to-night; and, as early as possible to-morrow morning, proceed to Charlottetown.

LOUISE.

She came with mild and truthful eyes—
A fair and modest mien;
Enrobed in plain and simple guise,
Though daughter of a Queen.

She came 'mid cannon's royal boom,
And loud and loyal cheers
From stout hearts cradled in the gloom
Of exiles' loyal tears.

To rich and poor alike her smile
Seem'd kindly and sincere;
She mingled with their hours of toil,
And gave them words of cheer.

She went a tender comforter
To sick and dark and dumb,
And little orphans came to her—
She suffer'd them to come.

But simple worth and kindly ways
Love ever doth repay;
She left behind sweet memories
And bore all hearts away.

THE FRUIT MARKET.—The local fruit market was well supplied with American goods yesterday—ex "Worcester." American early apples were in abundance, and auctioned at from $4 to $5 per barrel; retail at stores at 1 and 2 cents. Bartlett pears scarce, auctioned at $4.50 and $5 per barrel; retail at 40 and 50 cents per dozen. Very few peaches arrived, and those that did were in poor order. They auctioned all the way from 50c. to $2.25 per basket, according to quality; the best of them retailing at 30c. per dozen. Grapes were very good, and quite plentiful; retail at 50c. per box. Water melons are plentiful, and sell at 35 and 40 cents each. Oranges and lemons are very scarce, and retail at 75 cents, and 50 cents to 60 cents per dozen respectively.—Hz. Herald.

A GOOD RECORD.—The barque M. J. Foley, Capt. J. W. Gavin, which arrived here yesterday in 28 days from Liverpool, has a good record. Her first voyage from Pictou to Cardenas was made in 13 days, thence to Philadelphia in 4 days and 10 hours—the quickest on record—from Philadelphia to Barbadoes in 13 days, from Barbadoes to Cuba in 8 days, Cuba to Philadelphia in 6 days, Philadelphia to Liverpool in 24 days and Liverpool to Halifax in 25 days, carrying cargoes on each voyage except that between Barbadoes and Cuba, a pretty good record for ten months and one the master need not be ashamed of.—Hz. Herald.

A New York association known as the "Capitoline," went on an excursion to Hastings, N. Y., on Sunday. On the way Samuel Conen was badly injured in a fight. While at the grove more fighting occurred. In running down hill, during the melee, John Dunn fell into an old well and was drowned. Fighting was done during nearly the whole of the return trip. No arrests were made.

The Serajevo fire destroyed 288 houses, 358 shops and 38 warehouses. The loss to private property is a million florins; no insurance. Owing to a scarcity of provisions, already high, have been increased. The fire was caused by accident.
