In Memoriam City and Central

In loving memory of Hector MacKay, DeSable, who passed away August 13th, 1951.

How joyful is the hope that lingers
When dear ones cross death's sea
That we, when all life's toils are ended
With them shall ever be.
Ever remembered by Wife and Family.

In fond and loving memory of my dear Mother, Mrs. Charles Young who departed this life
August 14, 1953.

Two loving hands are resting A heart I loved is still A mother I loved is waiting For me just over the hill.
It is the only good night, dear Mom
It is just what I used to say I will see you again in the morning
At the dawn of a beautiful day.

Sadly missed, and always remembered by her daughter Viola.

In fond and loving memory of our dear wife and mother, Mrs.
Charles Young, who departed this life August 14, 1953.

Once again we pay our tribute To the one we love so dear, Though we know you can't be with us,
We still wish that you were here.
We often think of you gone days
When we were all together
The family chain is broken now But memories live forever.
It's lonesome here without you Never will your memory fade Loving thoughts will always wander
To the grave where you are laid Our hearts still ache with sadness,
Our eyes shed many a tear, God alone knows how we miss you,
As this ends another year.

Sadly missed by husband and daughter Elizabeth.

In loving memory of my Mother, Mrs. Mary A. Compton, formerly of Murray River, who died August 14, 1953.

We watched you suffer day by day
It caused us bitter grief
To see you slowly pine away
And could not give relief.
The weary hours, the days of pain
The troubled nights are past
And in our aching hearts we know
You have found sweet rest at last.

Sadly missed by her daughter,
Ella and family.

In fond and loving memory of my Mother, Mrs. Charles A.
Young who departed this life
August 14, 1953.

We watched you suffer day by
day,
It caused us bitter grief
To see you slowly pine away
And could not give relief.
The weary hours, and days of
pain,
The troubled nights are past,
And in our aching hearts we
know
You have found sweet rest at
last.

membered by daughter Ruby and grandson Jackie.

In loving memory of David M.
Robinson, died August 14, 1954.

Safe in the arms of Jesus Safe on his gentle breast Sweetly they soul shall rest Inserted by his wife and family.

In loving memory of Mrs.
Reuben Good who passed away
August 14, 1952.

We think of you in silence
As we pass another year,
You will always be remembered By the ones who loved you dear.
Ever remembered by Jimmy and Shirley.

In loving memory of Arthur H.
Garnet who was killed in action in France, July 13, 1944.

Each flower and leaf may wither,
Each evening sun may set,
But the hearts that loved him dearest
Are the ones that won't forget.

Always remembered by Mother, sister and brothers.

In loving memory of our dear son Sheldon McMurdo, North Windsor, who was killed August 12th, 1953.

Two years since that sad day
No one knows the tears that are shed
And the aching hearts that are in the home.

In the grave just safely sleeping Close beside a country road Lies the one we loved so dearly Gone from us to his abode.

Thoughts For Our Time

By His Eminence Cardinal McGuigan
(Copyright)

MATERIAL PLEASURES ARE NEVER COMPLETE

For many people summer is the season of happiness. It is during this time that all nature rejoices in its flowers, in its green trees and fields, in its birds, in the balmy breezes and bright sun.

The strong urge within which prompts us to seek after excitement and joy is nothing other than the desire to achieve happiness, which is hidden deep in the heart of every person. In fact, the strongest and most deeprooted impulse in a human being is this drive toward happiness. It is behind all that we do.

There are many things in the world which can make us happy, especially in the summertime.
However, unless we are careful, the good things of this world are able to hurt us. A human being is not just a body, a piece of matter. There is within each of us an immortal, immortal soul.
If man is to be happy he must experience joy in his inmost being, that is, in the depth of his soul.

The splendor of the things about us reflects the beauty of the God Who made them. Nevertheless, they are only reflections.
External things can bring us a certain amount of pleasure and joy, but they never satisfy us. We always want more of new kinds of pleasures, or modifications of the old. The beautiful things of this world were made just that way, so that they cannot completely satisfy the heart of man.
What man ever existed who possessed so much happiness that he could say, "I have enough!"

ONE PERFECT JOY

The first principle of happiness is to realize the limitations of the good things about us. Nothing can satisfy us perfectly, nor should we expect it to. Only God can fill us with perfect joy. The attractive objects which play before our gaze are not things to enjoy for themselves alone. They are not man's end and happiness.
God has placed in man a spiritual

which were very petty, having caused us to grumble. The whims and fancies of other people have at times brought us sorrow, things such as our health, the weather, or failure in some endeavor may at times have drained the joy from our hearts.
For the most part, all these happenings are beyond our control. They happen in spite of our efforts, and yet they can render us unhappy.

If you experience within yourself the desire to be happy, you must realize that this is normal and good. However, do not expect to acquire too much happiness from the material things of this world. They are too finite and puny. If you seek after them excessively they will disappoint you. Be content with the small portion of pleasure they give.

Complete joy will never be the lot of anyone in this world. It is given only to those who see God face to face in heaven. However, even this can be felt to a small degree by people in this life.

Happiness is experienced in the very soul of man. It consists in the peace and contentment which comes when we love God above all things, and love a nd make use of temporal things for the sake of Him.

Why the world's leading organ is your greatest organ value

The HAMMOND ORGAN

Since its introduction, the Hammond Organ has been chosen by over 35,000 churches — no other comparable instrument can approach such a record.

This is something to consider when you select an organ for your church. In fact, you owe it to your church to hear a complete demonstration of the Hammond Organ, because only in that way will you learn the many exclusive advantages of this magnificent instrument... only in this way will you discover what 35,000 other churches have already proved to themselves.

Here are just a few advantages:

- No installation cost; no structural changes
- Hundreds of rich church organ tones
- Music of cathedral quality in even the smallest church
- No tuning expense — cannot go out of tune
- Easy for either professional or amateur to play
- Lowest priced complete church organ in the world
