Good Friday Service Held At Alberton

A spirit of dignified solemnity prevailed throughout the three-hour Good Friday service held in Alberton United Church yesterday afternoon. Sponsored by Alberton Men's Association, the service was arranged by their committee, Dr. C. H. Phillips, Messrs. Earle Atkinson, Russel Boyman and Philip Saunders, in consultation with their minister, Rev. A. R. Willis, and members of the church session.

The service was divided into seven sections, the meditation of each being based on one of Christ's seven words from the cross. Leading the sections were Rev. A. R. Willis of Alberton United Church, Rev. George Killen of Alberton Presbyterian Church, Rev. J. R. McMahon of St. Peter's Anglican Church, Rev. A. M. Staples of Greenmount Church of Christ, Rev. C. O. Howlett of Knutsford Baptist Church, Rev. J. M. Sheen of Elmsdale United Church and Rev. R. R. Wagner of O'Leary United Church. The closing prayer and benediction were by Rev. W. H. Forsythe of Springfield West United Church.

During the first four sections music was led by Alberton Men's Choir and during the last three sections by O'Leary Men's Choir. Organists were Miss Anne Leard and Mrs. James McWilliams. In addition to hymns suitable to the day the following selections were rendered: "Amen" by Mrs. John H. Wells; a quartette, "Broken Hearted" by Mrs. F. J. Carpenter, Mrs. Garnet Campbell, Mrs. Lloyd Wilkie and Mrs. C. W. Hayes; "Calvary" by Misses Faye, Betty and Velma Rayner; a quartette "On Calvary's Brow" by Miss Edith Currie, Mrs. Archibald Barbour, Messrs. Arthur Rennie, Jr. and Cyril Leard; and "Brotherhood" by O'Leary Men's Choir.

A large number of worshippers remained throughout the entire service and many others attended one or more sections. By means of an offering plate in the vestibule of the church, opportunity was given those who wished to make a gift to the Protestant Orphanage, and generous donations were received.
