CONTRASTS IN NAPLES.

Only a Step From Royal Magnificence to Crowds of Half Naked Workers.

One of the strangest contrasts in Naples is to walk from the royal palace, with its fine marble staircase, up the new Corso Re d'Italia and to climb into the steep streets around the Church of San Soverino e Sosis.

These streets are the dwelling places of the dyers, and one steps from regal magnificence into a crowd of seminaked people, who are busily dipping great hanks of cotton or wool into seething caldrons. As elsewhere, the work is carried on in the street, and little streams of water—red, yellow, brown and black—pour over the rough stones and gather in multicolored pools, while on low benches against the walls women are washing clothes, standing in the dirty, soapy water that splashes over from their tubs.

The passersby walk heedlessly through the dye and soapsuds, while the children find pleasant occupation in throwing mud of every variety of color at anybody who chances to be wearing light colored garments. It is a veritable feast of color from the merely spectacular point of view, but a visit to these streets leaves a bodily as well as a mental impression.

Very often in the depths of these sordid alleys one comes across a forgotten old palace, built when carriages were unknown, its great court of honor crowded with booths, its vast halls filled with a heterogeneous collection of men, women and children, fowls, goats, sheep and occasionally a donkey, all living together in the happiest proximity. The massive old walls are hidden beneath centuries of dirt; the wood-work has, for the most part, disappeared; and the rooms that once knew the revels of Angevin nobles now shelter the hap-hazard existence of lazzaroni.—Ludgate.

ALL HEADACHES from whatever cause cured in half an hour by HOFFMAN'S HEADACHE POWDERS. 10 cents and 25 cents at all druggists.

In a recent letter to a friend in Pendleton, Or, Frank Frazier said, "If Chehalis did not wear hobbles, I could get $20,000 for him." But he wears them.

FOR SALE—A double tenement house on Bishop Street, containing six rooms each, yard and stable; also a house on Richmond Street containing eight rooms and shop, good stable and yard, terms easy, apply at once to Patrick Connolly. 249 31 pd

The Professor's Wisdom.

The stern professor of the feminine preparatory school sat at his desk trying to unravel a knotty problem when a fluffy haired miss of 16 approached. "Please, sir," she began in a tremulous voice, "will you grant me permission to go out riding with my brother this afternoon?" Now, the old man had not forgotten the days of his youth, neither was he a fool, and looking over his spectacles he slowly said: "So you want to go riding with your brother, do you? By the way, is this brother of yours any relation to you?" —Chicago News.

Minard's Liniment Cures Dandruff.

Now it is said that the stallion Morey, supposed to be by Slander, is in reality Amber, 2.18 1/2, by Alysone.

Toronto Fireman Testify.

M. McCartney, Lombard Street Fire Hall, Toronto, dated March 4th, 1897, states:—"Am subject to very painful conditions of osteitis and other troubles resulting therefrom but I am glad to say that I have found a perfect remedy in Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. I trust this will be of benefit to others."

The trotter Lentulus, 2.15, by Pactolus, has a boil on his hind leg that has bothered him all summer.

DR. CHASE'S CATARRH CURE, BLOWER INCLUDED, 25c., acts magically and cures quickly. One application allays pain, clears the passage, reduces inflammation and gives comfort. Minard's Liniment relieves Neuralgia.

The California 3 year old, Dr Frasse 2.18 1/2, by Iran Alto, has gone lame and may not start again this year.

Doctors Testify.

There's strong testimony by eminent physicians of wonderful cures made by Dr. Chase's Family Remedies—particularly Dr. Chase's Ointment.

In commenting on Silvanway's performance at Quarter Oak park a horse-man said that the bay filly scored at least 17 quarters during the race.
