Close Finishes Feature Dominion Day Races

Island Racing Season Auspiciously Launched At Summerside Track

Helen D., Paddy Aubrey, Guy Ann, And Soviet Winners. Over 2000 Attend Inaugural Meet.

An excellent horse race was witnessed at the Summerside Trotting Park yesterday in the Western capital and over 2,000 enthusiastic fans cheered madly as close finishes proved the order of the day. The race was one of the best seen in Summerside in recent years and the directors are now prepared to go ahead and make many needed improvements to the grounds.

Straight Heats

The first class to be called was the 2.18 mixed and the five starters got away on the sixth score. Helen D. proved the class of the event winning in straight heats. The trotting mare owned by Urban Gillis of Miscouche took the lead on the first turn in the first heat after Calumet B had made a slight jump. From then on the popular little horse was never headed and under the excellent management of Tyndall Semple took three heats. Calumet B came a long way to take second in the first heat passing Catherine C coming into the stretch. The Charlottetown trotter threatened again in the third heat but did not seem to have enough and the heat was the slowest of the three.

Paddy Aubrey owned and driven by Harry O'Brien of Alberton took the 2.23 mixed in straight heats without being pushed a great deal. Kitty McKane had the pole going away but broke under the wire while Bud Cope hopped off on the first turn letting Paddy Aubrey through to take the first heat handily. In the second head Bud Cope again challenged the Alberton entry but drove to a break going up the back stretch and they finished in line as in the first heat. The third heat proved a repetition of the other two with Willard Kelly giving O'Brien a hard drive to the wires through the stretch with Leta Kalmuck. This little mare showed plenty of class to place second in all three heats.

Spectacular Win

The best class of the day was the third event namely the 2.28 trot and pace. With Lloyd O'Brien in the sulkey Soviet brought the O'Brien stables their second victory of the day with a spectacular win over a field of eight starters. Going away in fifth position Soviet tucked in behind Helena Witt to the three quarter pole and came home from there with a perfectly timed brush through the stretch to win the first heat in 2.20 1-4. Ace Bailey and Helena Witt were good in this heat both challenging the winner for the whole mile. Ace Bailey made a break going up the back stretch in the second half which spoiled what otherwise would have been a rousing finish. The second heat of this event was won by Rosebud a Charlottetown entry after going a gruelling mile on the outside the whole route. Helena Witt proved the opposition failing slightly in the stretch to take second position with Ace Bailey a strong third. In the third heat which was the highlight of the day Soviet came the last quarter with an amazing burst of speed to nose out Rosebud, Tote and Helena Witt who were leading by five lengths at the three quarter pole. Soviet is owned by Andrew Perry of Summerside and looks a good bet in the slow class for the rest of the summer.

Fitting Climax

The final event of the day brought seven three year olds to the wire the superiority of which was displayed by Guy Ann, George Callbeck's sensational two year old of last season who won in straight heats. Miss Victoria and Hi Sox provided the competition in this class, the former pacing very fast in the first heat but making two disastrous breaks with the latter being right at Guy Ann's wheels in the final two heats. Capt. Read's colt, Guy Todd showed plenty of speed but lost ground on numerous breaks.

Refreshment and novelty booths did a rushing business during the entire afternoon as did also many of the games on the grounds. The newly organized but now famous Summerside band entertained with many fine selections during the intermissions throughout the entire performance. Starter and announcer E. F. Acorn paid special tribute to this worthy organization and to Senator Creelman MacArthur who so kindly provided the instruments for the band.

Kelly K.O's Farrer In First Round

Leo Kelly, highly regarded and hard punching local middleweight, Tuesday night scored a quick victory in the main event of the Action Club's boxing card at the Curling Rink when he kayoed Warren Farrer in the first round with a whistling right cross to the jaw after his opponent had climbed groggily to his feet after taking a count of four.

So quickly did the finish come that the spectators had hardly settled back in their seats when it was all over. Farrer, subbing for Vic Trenholm who had failed to make an appearance, was willing enough but proved no match for the clever Kelly. He came out ready to mix it but was met with a flurry of rights and lefts that dumped him to the canvas for a four count. Sensing the kill Kelly waded in as Farrer climbed to his feet and a wicked right cross to the jaw spelled finis to fight and card.

The semi-final event between Jack Johnson and Jack Nielsen was another quick ending affair. After a wild first round, about even, Johnson suddenly caught his opponent with a right to the chin and Neilsen went down for a count of nine. In distress Neilsen climbed back on his feet only to go down for another nine count. Again he showed his gameness by getting up at nine but before Johnson could get another wallop Referee Hec McQuarrie stopped the fight.

The second preliminary between Young Orford and Johnny Shaw was the best bout of the evening. Throughout four fast rounds the boys mixed it willingly and the draw decision proved popular. Orford started fast to win the two opening heats but Shaw's aggressiveness in the final two rounds earned him a well merited draw.

The first bout of the card lasted exactly one minute. Fred Hamilton displaying a southpaw stance was met with a flurry of rights and lefts thrown by his opponent "Kid" Johnson and so uneven was the battling that Hamilton's seconds threw in the towel, Johnson getting a technical K.O. victory for his minute's work.

Stewart's Win Easy Victory Over Rovers

Gaining momentum with every game the Stewart's Bakery softball express Tuesday night added another victory to their string when they steam-rollered Ev McNeill's youthful Rover crew into a 13 to 5 defeat. Combining Rover pitching for nineteen hits the Bakery boys took the lead in the first half of the first inning and were never headed. Their attack reached its height in the third frame as they pushed across six runs on three home run drives and a triple, after this the losers held them in check but the damage was done. Rovers never gave up trying and forced the winners to hustle every inch of the way but the best they could do was battle on even terms in the remaining six frames, each team scoring five times.

Montague Horse Races July 15

Northam horse races which were to have been held on July 15th have been called off. Jimmie Milligan was all set to hold them but on account of the backward season the work in connection with the big fox ranch has been held up and it is impossible in the short time remaining to stage a race meet in the way that has always been done there. Mr. Milligan's date has been promptly taken up by Geo. McIntyre of Montague who will hold races with the following three classes Wednesday afternoon July 15.

2.15 trot and pace.

2.24 trot and pace.

3 seconds allowed trotters in each.

2.15 straight trot.

$300.00 purses for each class.

Quite a number of owners from abroad will come here for that meeting and it should be a lively sporting event. A fuller announcement will follow shortly.

Perry & Von Cramm Blast Way Into Tennis Finals

(C. P. Cable)

WIMBLEDON, England, July 1—Fred Perry today blasted his way into the final round of the all-England tennis singles championship in his quest for his third straight title. He called up all his reserves to beat Don Budge of California in four sets 5-7, 6-4, 6-3, 6-4.

In the championship round, to be played on Friday, he will meet his opponent in the 1935 final match, the smooth-stroking Baron Gottfried Von Cramm of Germany, who today conquered H. W. "Bunny" Austin 8-6, 6-3, 2-6, 6-3.

In last year's final Perry beat Von Cramm 6-2, 6-4, 6-4, and bookmakers favored him to repeat this year at odds of 3 to 2.

A capacity crowd, estimated at 18,000, watched the two thrilling semi-finals which provided some of the best tennis ever seen at Wimbledon.

Perry had his countrymen on edge by losing four games straight to Budge in the first set after he apparently had it "in the bag" at 5-3. Budge ran out the set at 7-5

In the second set, however, Perry had all his shots working, collecting the first three games with the loss of only two points. He covered the court at lightning speed and pounced on Budge's short shots, stowed them away for winners.

Perry continued to attack vigorously in the third set, holding his own service and straining every nerve to break that of the American. He forced Budge to 9-7 in the fourth game on the latter's service. In the eighth game he broke through after a terrific onslaught at the net. After that it was routine to cannonball his way through the ninth game and take the set.

Budge broke Perry's service at the beginning of the fourth set, to lead 4-2, his backhand working famously, but the Briton returned the compliment and managed to square the match at four all. Perry broke through again in the ninth game to lead 5-4, and in the 10th and final game treated the crowd to a display of his best acrobatics, dashing to the net on every point and leaving Budge flat-footed with blazing volleys.

Perry and Budge were preceded on the centre court by Austin and Von Cramm, who gave a superb display of stylish tennis. A feature of the match was the length of the rallies, the first set lasting 45 minutes. Austin appeared to have it well in hand when he led 5-3, but Von Cramm stepped up the pace and pulled out at 8-6.

In the second set the Baron's superior speed and accuracy began to tell on Austin and he had little difficulty in winning. Austin took the third at 6-2, as the Baron appeared to rest, but the German put on a magnificent spurt in the fourth to take the set and match, Austin being clearly outclassed.

In fourth round mixed doubles matches Budge and Mrs. Sarah Palfrey Fabyan, United States, beat Austin and Kay Stammers, Great Britain, 7-9, 6-3, 6-1, while C. E. Malfroy, New Zealand, and Hilda Krahwinkel Sperling, Denmark, routed Jacques Brugnon and Jadwiga Jedrzejowska, Poland, 6-3, 6-3.

Perry and Dorothy Round, Great Britain, defeated Hans Timmer and Rollin Couquerque, Holland, 9-7, 4-6, 6-2.

In a quarter-final match of the men's doubles G. P. Hughes and C. R. D. Tuckey, Great Britain, beat C. E. Malfroy, New Zealand, and G. Stedman, New Zealand, 6-1, 6-1, 3-6, 6-0.

The semi-finals of the women's singles will be played tomorrow with Helen Jacobs, four times United States champion and runner-up last year to Mrs. Helen Wills Moody, meeting Jadwiga Jedrzejowska. Frau Sperling opposes Mme. Simone Mathieu of France in the other semi-finals match.

All Stars And Dodgers Play Draw Tilt 4-4

Charlottetown's up and doing Dodgers fought the All Stars, a picked team from Summerside, to a 4-4 draw here last night as darkness called activities to a halt in the eighth inning. The game was thrilling from start to finish and a fitting climax to an excellent day's sport in the western capital. Features of the game were snappy double plays engineered by Wilf Whalen unassisted for Charlottetown and Schurman and Durant for Summerside. A fine running catch made by Dave Larkin for the third out in the second and the hurling of Schurman and Robins.

The All Stars scored three times in the first inning on singles by Dodds and MacCabe coupled with four costly Dodger errors. The Dodgers came back to make the fourth their big inning when they pushed the tying markers across on two walks a booming triple by Bolger and a single by Larter.

In the last of the eighth Larkins hit a line drive to right for two bases with one out, advanced to third on Dodds' scratch single to short but died there as MacCallum handled pinch hitter Reg Phillips' hot grounder towards third.

Gathering Of The Clans Huge Success

The annual gathering of the Scottish clans of P. E. Island under the auspices of the Caledonian Club and the Gaelic Comunn Ceann Orbhell was held on the beautiful grounds of Mr. Samuel Hume, Uigg, yesterday, and was in every respect one of the most successful gatherings held by the Club. The grounds so excellently situated in one of the most thriving farm districts of the Province were typical for a Gathering, amidst beautiful fields of all kinds of farm products while the view extending for miles in every direction was very favourably commented on by the large crowd in attendance.

There was a large turnout of the Clansmen from both the city and surrounding districts among whom were Mr. D. B. McDonald, Bedeque, Mr. James McKay, Desable, Mr. Alexander McDonald, Nine Mile Creek, Mr. Peter Brodie, York, Mr. Roland Buchanan, Churchill, Mr. Wallace McNeill, Vernon River, Mr. J. J. McGillivray, Vernon, Mr. U. R. Gillis, Elden, Mr. John S. Martin, Kinross. The day's proceedings opened with an address of welcome by Mr. W. D. Ross, which was replied to by Mr. W. R. Shaw, President of the Club. Other brief addresses were delivered by Mr. Peter Brodie, Mr. Geo. McLean. A Gaelic song was excellently sung by J. S. Martin, accompanied by Mr. W. D. Ross, Mr. J. G. McFadyen and Mr. Alex Monroe.

An excellent programme of athletic sports and Scottish dancing was a notable feature of the day's festivities, and were carried out in a very pleasing manner by clansmen D. F. Bethune, J. W. Shaw, J. J. McGillivray, Wallace McNeill and Roland Buchanan.

Excellent music was rendered by the Club Pipers, Messrs. Reid and Manderson, Mr. E. McPherson, Wood Islands, Mr. G. A. Martin, Belmont, Mass., while the performance on the bag pipes by Master John McPherson, although only 14 years of age is well worthy of special mention. The catering on this occasion was specially well attended to by the ladies of the surrounding districts, and the delicious tables provided on this occasion were pronounced by the large assemblage to be the finest ever witnessed on an occasion of this kind. Prominent among the Scottish dancers were the Misses Dulcie and Marie Walker of this city, while the stepdancing by Miss Florence McInnis received well merited applause. There was a good representation of legislative members, including Hon. B. W. LePage, Hon. J. A. Campbell, and Hon. S. S. Hessian, K. C. The contests in the different events were very keen, there being as many as nine competitors in some events.

Following is the list of successful competitors:

Throwing Hammer: 1, Ernest Matheson, Belle View; 2, Arthur McMillan, Wood Islands; 3, Wilfred Matheson, Belle View. Distance: 114.7, 109.9, 111.5.
