HAPPENINGS

Victoria MacLean Hunter, known to many Charlottetown residents, has recently written a book for children entitled "Tall Coaches".

Miss Hunter, now a teacher in the mother lode gold country of California, is the grand niece of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Pound, and Mrs. Gavin Harding, Charlottetown.

The book is intended for children in grades four to six, and is the story of western American stagecoach days from 1840 to the year gold was discovered in California, in 1848.

MARY HAWORTH

Dear Mary Haworth: I have a serious problem and am so confused. I am a girl 19 and met this boy over a year ago. We became engaged when I finished school, but shortly he got into trouble with the law and was sent away quickly.

Dear F.F.: The boy's family should have the good sense and right to respect your own decision. In this grave matter, without cringing reference to their emotional bias.
