COMPLETES TASK OF TYPING BIBLE

DETROIT (CP)—Mrs. Harriet McDonald, 74, typed "Amen" and finished a seven - year treatment for arthritis — copying out the whole Bible.

In 1956 the Detroit woman decided she needed two things—exercise for her fingers, and a review of the Bible. So she started tapping on a typewriter she had bought in 1925.

This week she came to the end of the book of Revelations.

Mrs. McDonald said she would have been able to finish the job in two years, but there were interruptions. In the middle of the book of Kings her husband died and she "didn't feel like working for a year."

Another pause came in Job when the typewriter broke down and she could not afford to have it repaired.

For paper she used the backs of wallpaper samples.

She said she isn't saving her work. "It has served its purpose".

She has burned part of it. She gave some to her milkman and some to little girls in her neighborhood.

Surcharges Test Case To Be Heard

OTTAWA (CP)—A test case has been launched in the Exchequer Court of Canada challenging the validity of the special import surcharges imposed by the federal government as part of its emergency austerity program last June.

At stake, if the surcharges should be ruled invalid, are all the government's collections of special import levies totaling perhaps $100,000,000.

A petition of right has been filed in court by the Ottawa legal firm of Gowling, MacTavish, Osborn and Henderson, on behalf of a chain of ladies' wear shops, Reitman's Limited, seeking recovery of the surcharges it has paid.

A spokesman for the law firm said Wednesday that 20 to 30 other clients have asked that similar legal action be taken on their behalf and that petitions of right for most of them would be filed by the end of this week.

Legal counsel for the government has 30 days to file its defence in court, and the first of the cases is not expected to come to trial before next fall at the earliest.

SINCE REMOVED

The import surcharges, ranging from five to 15 per cent, were levied last June 24 by the former Conservative government as part of its program to halt a run on the Canadian dollar that was threatening the foreign exchange reserves. The surcharges were removed in stages, and the last of them were lifted March 31.

No precise figure is available of the total amount collected under the surcharges. But they are responsible for most of the increase in customs duty collections which, in the first 11 months of the last fiscal year to the end of February, were some $111,000,000 higher than a year earlier.

The Reitman's Limited case is expected to be a test case. Should it succeed, it is probable that claims for repayment would be filed by most of the importers who paid surcharges.

A spokesman for the Ottawa law firm handling the case said that a total approaching $500,000 is involved in the 20 to 30 cases it is handling.

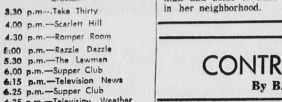
INCREASE TRADE

Bulgaria has increased trade with Japan from $49,000 in 2958 to about $2,500,000 in 1962.

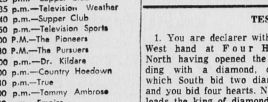
CONTRACT BRIDGE
By B. JAY BECKER

TEST YOUR PLAY

1. You are declarer with the West hand at Four Hearts, North having opened the bidding with a diamond, over which South bid two diamonds and you bid four hearts. North leads the king of diamonds and continues with the ace. How would you play the hand?



2. You are declarer with the West hand at Five Diamonds. North leads the nine of clubs. How would you play the hand?



1. The chances are decidedly against making the contract, but there is a way of playing the hand to the best advantage. What you would like to do is take two spade finesses and also lead a club towards the king, hoping South has the ace.

2. One way to play the hand to win the club, draw as many rounds of trumps as necessary, and then take a heart finesse. If North has the king, you can then return to your hand for another heart finesse, and in that way make the contract with an overtrick.

However, this is not the best method of play. It takes everything on the location of the king of hearts, and thus provides only a 50 percent chance of making the contract.

A better approach is to win the club, draw trumps, cash two more high clubs, and then lead a spade. If it turns out that South has the A-K of spades, he will be able to cash them but will then be forced to return a heart or else yield a ruff and discard.

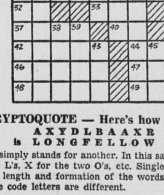
Yesterday's Answer



DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.
