

CASH

$50 to $1000 - on your own signature

Get extra cash fast - for any good purpose - at Household Finance. Loans made without bankable security. Repayment plans to fit your income. Up to 24 months to repay. Phone, or stop in today for fast, friendly dependable service!

MONEY WHEN YOU NEED IT!

HOUSEHOLD FINANCE

Canada's largest and most recommended consumer finance organization

150 Great George St., suite 1, phone 2992
CHARLOTTETOWN, P.E.I.

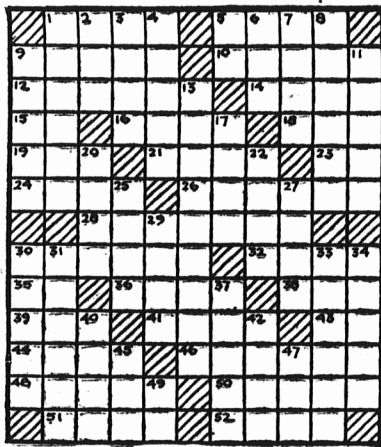

DAILY CROSSWORD

- ACROSS
- Small bay
 - Wing-like
 - An engraver's tool
 - Thick cords
 - Mountain nymphs
 - A size of type
 - From measure
 - A soft element
 - Varying weight (India)
 - Evening sun god (Egypt)
 - Fall
 - Sodium (sym.)
 - Beautiful bird
 - Scarcity
 - French protectorate (N. Africa)
 - Make secure
 - Host
 - Chinese measure
 - Cebine monkeys
 - At the present time
 - Crampus
 - Spigota
 - Music note
 - Complacent
 - One's sister's daughters
 - Counter-irritant
 - Mock
 - Musical note (anc. Gr.)
- DOWN
- A municipal warning bell
 - Coin (Swed.)
 - Bottle
 - Concluded
 - Land
 - Measure silk
 - Cut off the tops
 - Sacred bull (Egypt)
 - New
 - New recruits (U. S. Navy slang)
 - Girl's name
 - Native of Sardinia
 - Performs
 - Cushions
 - Bucket
 - Crazy (slang)
 - Shower
 - Tidy
 - A soft, em-broidery silk
 - Aircraft personnel
 - Instigate
 - Distort
 - Grudge (U. S. Navy colloq.)
 - Line of junction
 - Obtained
 - Russian engineer and composer
 - Northeast (abbr.)

Saturday's Answer

42. Line of junction
45. Obtained
47. Russian engineer and composer
49. Northeast (abbr.)

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE—Here's how to work it:
A X Y D L B A A X E
L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

A Cryptogram Quotation

FETHATON AHGEMCS, NKTHS MCS
NTCP PAHS MCS YHTKC IUGG-NKAC-
WÖHCG.

Saturday's Cryptoquote: HE THAT WOULD SING, BUT HATH NO SONG, MUST SPEAK THE RIGHT. DENOUNCE THE WRONG—MAC DONALD.

FREE

JEWELLERY BOX with RHINESTONE SET

FREE TICKET WITH EACH PURCHASE

GIFT SUGGESTIONS

Ladies' and Gents' Rings and Watches; Pearls; Rhinestone Sets; Earrings; Lockets; Bracelets; Expansion Bracelets; Silver; Pins; Compacts; Jewellery Boxes, etc.

CROCKETT'S JEWELLRY

105 KENT ST. PHONE 2026-J

ELECTRICAL GIFT SUGGESTIONS

General Electric Automatic and Steam Irons, Automatic and plain Toasters, Percolators and Silex Coffee Makers, Clocks, Hotplates, Heating Pads, Curling Irons, Table, Vanity, Pin-Up and Bed Lamps and Novelties.

We have a complete line of Noma Tree Lights and window decorations.

We will make up extension cords and attachments to your requirements; also FREE testing of tree lights.

BROWN ELECTRIC

117 Kent St. Phone 971

Open All Day Wednesday Till Christmas

Buying Scrap Cars and Trucks

Complete with body, motor and running gear at $10.00 per ton, our yard, Charlottetown.

Truckloads of mixed iron and steel at $20.00 per ton.

Maurice Block & Co.

158 Kent St. Phone 2208

False Face

By E. C. Buley

"Let the smoke answer the door," Flaherty instructed, indicating the goggle-eyed coloured girl. "She must say she never seen him before; and Rastus, the elevator boy, can stick around and give him the bum's march. See?"

"Well? He won't listen to Rastus," Lola suggested. "What comes next?"

"She shuts the door on him, and yells for a cop," Flaherty went on with a grin. "Rastus is having trouble when help comes to him. See? And it all looks pretty bad for this Britisher, if he tries to talk too much in the Court."

"What will he get?" Lola asked. "Six months at Ellis Island, and then deportation, if he's wise," Flaherty predicted. "If he does not listen to reason, he might get anything. Or nothing," he concluded ominously.

A long ring brought them to a silence, and the coloured maid went nervously to the apartment door.

"Not in," she said loudly, in answer to some question. "An' jus you go way, fella, before trouble hits you, Rastus!"

"There was the sound of a scuffle, and the banging of the door. The maid flew into the living-room, trembling.

"Tried to bust in, first thing," she explained. "Rastus took hole of him, an' I shut the door."

"Blow this whistle, out of the window," Flaherty directed.

The sound of a noisy scuffle outside on the landing was increasing, and judging from the ejaculations, the colored lifterman was getting the worst of it. A terrific banging on the door suggested that Rastus had been put completely out of action.

Then there was a sound of running feet, a renewal of the scuffling, and two or three dull punching noises which made Flaherty grin with approval.

"Bingo!" he remarked. "The boys had to club him; and that makes it nice for us. What'll he look like, when he comes before the night court? When he's been in the cooler an hour or two, I'll go and talk sense to him. It couldn't have been better, Lola."

"Of course, it had to be right at my apartment," Lola grumbled.

"Yes, it had to be," Flaherty agreed. "What of it?"

"That's what we are going to see," Lola retorted.

Peter Marchant, considerably battered, spent some three hours in the cells, trying once more to collect his scattered senses. To the rough questions hurled at him in the police office he had returned answers which contained as much of the truth as he was permitted to tell; not very much as it happened. And now, weak and dizzy from his battering, and the long confinement which had preceded it, he was trying once more to reconcile these nightmare events with the ordinary realities of life, as he had always known them.

Presently the cell was opened, and a red-faced, leery-eyed man in plain clothes entered.

"Listen, guy," he began, laying a big hand on Peter's knee. "I want you to come across clean, and tell me just who you are and what you have been doing."

"My name is Peter Marchant," Peter began. "And I . . ."

"Now listen," the other interrupted. "I know all about this English artist, Marchant. He pulled out of here on the 'Berlinia' ten days ago. You've been to the hotel where he was, trying to impersonate him; and you've been to the apartment of Miss Lola Le- phone, and half-murdered the nigger janitor. How come? You are an Englishman, judging by the way you talk. What are you doing in New York, without any papers or anything?"

"If I try to tell you," Peter said wearily, "you'll just tell me that I left this country on the 'Berlinia' nearly a fortnight ago. I ought to have gone on that boat; but here I am."

"Say," snarled the officer with sudden violence. "Are you trying to be funny with me? Because you look like earning yourself a few years in the cooler. Be sensible now and come across with your name, and your business."

"Why am I here?" Peter asked in turn. "What charge is laid against me?"

"Offence against the immigration laws," the other said promptly. "Nothing has been said yet about the violent behaviour and assault, or about attempted impersonations. If you take my advice, nothing need ever be said about those little matters in court."

To be continued

Miscouche and Vicinity

D. H. Gallant of Miscouche motored to Charlottetown on Friday, November 28, on business.

Helen Gallant of Wellington, was a visitor in Miscouche on Sunday, November 30, guest of her sister, Mrs. D. H. Gallant.

Pat MacMillan has recently returned to his home in Miscouche, after having spent some time in the Prince County Hospital receiving treatment.

Mrs. P. C. Martin of Miscouche recently spent some time in the Prince County Hospital receiving treatment.

Mrs. Hubert Gallant and children, who have been living in Miscouche for the past several months, have recently taken up residence in Summerside.

The Children of Mary held their annual meeting in one of the convent classrooms on Sunday evening, November 30. The following officers were elected: president, Sylvia Gaudet; secretary, Irene MacKinnon.

D. H. Gallant of Miscouche motored to Moncton, New Brunswick on Tuesday, December 2. He was accompanied by S. Wilbur Willis of Charlottetown.

The Miscouche Branch of the Home and School Association held their monthly meeting in one of the convent classrooms on Friday evening, November 28. Sister St. Emmanuel presided and they had, as guest speaker, Father Simpson of St. Dunstan's University.

York and Vicinity

Mrs. Frank Watts, York, is spending her holidays in Boston, the guest of friends and relatives.

Miss Frances Vessey is spending her holidays in Ottawa, the guest of her brother, Mr. Harold Vessey and Mrs. Vessey.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cooke, City, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leith Brown November 30th.

Mr. and Mrs. Edison Hardy and family spent Sunday, November 30th in the City, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Slackford.

Mrs. George Bearsto has returned to her home in Covehead.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Rodd and son Billy, were visitors to York, December 1st.

Mrs. Peter Proud was a visitor to the City on Monday, December 1st.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Newson and family were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Houllman, North River, on Sunday November 30th.

The York Institute meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Elmer Brown with a large attendance on December 2nd.

Her many friends are sorry to hear that Mrs. Herbert Vessey has entered the P. E. Island Hospital for treatment, and wish her a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Wesley Cooper was a visitor to the City on Monday, December 1st.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Newson were in the City on December 1st.

The many friends of Miss Rose Watts are sorry to hear she has entered the P. E. Island Hospital for treatment and wish her speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave MacDonald, Union Road, spent Sunday, November 30th, in York, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Crockett.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Auld and family spent Sunday, November 30th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ramsay.

The many friends of Mr. Will Watts are sorry to hear of his illness, and wish him a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Vessey, City, were visitors to York recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Craaswell spent Sunday, November 30th in York, the guests of Mrs. Harry Swan.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Matthew were visitors to the City, December 1st.

KING COLE TEA

10 DAYS of flavour peak

Gifts From HOLMAN'S Are Opened First!

8 GIVE Electrical gifts

Give Mother "Canada's Finest!"

A BEATY

WASHING MACHINE

THIS is the gift that will give her pleasant washday help through the years! There are a number of models from which to choose—all have the newest features that the engineering world has produced. For Christmas choose a Beauty—

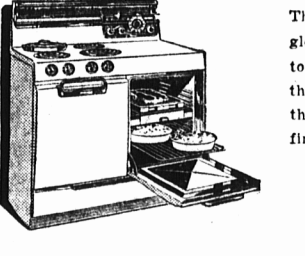

Electric Models
From 149.50

Gas Engine Models
From 219.50

The Perfect Home Gift!

FRIGIDAIRE

ELECTRIC RANGE

There are four beautiful, gleaming models from which to make your selection and the name "Frigidaire" means that you have chosen the finest and best!

239.75 up

Buy On The HOLMAN HOME PLAN

ONLY 10% DOWN

BALANCE MONTHLY

For The Man In Your Life

ELECTRIC RAZOR

The gift of easy, luxurious Shaving—what more could the "Man in your Life" ask? Choose a Sunbeam, a Remington or a Schick—they're priced

From 22.95

"Toastmaster" Automatic

ELECTRIC TOASTER

The genuine "Toastmaster" has places for two slices and there's heat control too, so whether you like your toast light or dark, you're sure of getting it that way!

39.75

General Electric Toasters in a number of styles and models, from 9.95

Give Her A

HOOVER And You

Give Her The Best!

Here is the finest Vacuum Cleaner available — "It beats as it sweeps!" Upright Models are from—

111.50

G. E. Featherweight

ELECTRIC IRONS

Give easy, pleasant ironing for Christmas! The "Featherweight" is in streamlined design and has easy-to-regulate heat control.

14.50

Cylinder Models, complete with attachments, from—

106.75

HOLMAN'S

S' SIDE and CH'TOWN

Sunbeam "Mixmaster"

ELECTRIC MIXER

Give joy on Christmas Morning and for many years to come with the gift of a "Mixmaster". These Electric Mixers have twin beaters, two mixing bowls and the juice extractor. There's an easy to regulate speed indicator too!

63.95