WHERE LOVE IS.

A maiden asked if I could tell
Where love is.
Ah, me, said I, that's hard to say,
Where love is.
Then on her way she went perplexing—
The question grave her soul was vexing.
Shine out, bright star, attend and guide her,
Where love is.

A youth then begged me just to say
Where love is.
Ah, no, said I, you'll find the way
Where love is.
Away he went, his heart rejoicing,
The song of birds his courage voicing—
I know kind fate will surely lead him
Where love is.

They met, this maid and maiden fair—
There love is.
And ask no more, nor doubt nor care
Where love is,
And now, with hands and hearts united,
Their vows to heaven have truly plight,
May kindly power protect and keep the.
Where love is.

SULPHUR AND MOLASSES.

When I was young they had a way
Of keeping all disease at bay,
And rend'ring changing of the spring
As innocent as anything.
Just as the soil was waking up
And out peeped slyly little grasses,
Why, mother'd give us all a dose
Of sulphur and molasses.

I see it now, that pewter spoon
That always got heaped up too soon.
Half sulphur, almost bright as gold,
And half molasses, black and old;
And then we children, one by one
Would open mouths with many passes,
And down our gullets swift would go
That sulphur and molasses.

They said it kept the chills away,
Prevented billious fever's sway,
Would make the liver hump and get
And kept the blood out of a fret;
Would make the stomach feel at ease,
Free from poison-laden grasses;
Was cooling, healing, soothing, all—
This sulphur and molasses.

Good gracious! It was hard to take,
And awful faces we did make,
But 'twa'n't no use to beg nor cry—
That was the law when spring came by;
To put the system in good trim,
Instead of pills and other masses,
Our mother gave us lib'rally
Of sulphur and molasses.

'TWAS CERTAINLY ORIGINAL!

An original plan for collecting money to aid a hospital was tried not long ago in Portsmouth, England. The mayoress of the borough divided the city into districts, and stationed her assistants at the street corners to take up a collection. Each lady wore the uniform of a trained nurse, with the usual cap, apron, chatelaine and red cross. Tents elaborately decorated with flowers were erected at the corners of the principal streets, and the women worked for the cause from 9 o'clock in the morning till the same hour in the evening. From this arduous effort a very handsome sum was realized for the deserving cause. Many women accustomed to charitable effort will say that it was not as hard thus to concentrate labor in one day as to get up a fair or other entertainment which means long-drawn-out nervous and bodily fatigue.

THE BRITISH NAVY

John A. Cockerell, the New York newspaper man, writing from Japan, says: "The gradual swelling of British naval power in these waters is significant. Every week a new British man-of-war turns up quietly. A few days ago the monster battleship Gibraltar, 7,700 tons, dropped her anchor in this harbor, and the Undaunted, another heavy ironclad, is expected up from Kobe in a few days. It is fair to assume that stretching from Hong Kong to Hakodate the British have to-day a naval armament afloat greater than the effective total of Japan. And we hear of vessels still coming. Is the display of 1878 in the Sea of Marmora, before San Stefano, to be repeated out here? It has something of that appearance, though the prevision of John Bull when there is trouble in the air is proverbial."

Within the memory of middle-aged people Consumption and other lung troubles were much more prevalent and fatal than they are to-day. The existing improvement in the public health in this respect is, in considerable measure, due to a more widespread appreciation of sanitary laws; but Puttner's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, with the Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda, and Pancreatine, may justly claim to have largely aided in the good work. Many persons who some years ago were in a most critical state of health, are to-day sound and well, as a consequence of a faithful use of this valuable remedy. For sale by all Druggists at 50 cents a bottle.

At the Indiana State Oratorical Association the first prize was won by Miss Nellie E. Wood, of Earlham, much to the disgust of six young men competitors, who had their first lesson that, as talkers, men were not in the race with women.

MUNCHAUSEN OUTDONE.

While storming the first line of forts at Port Arthur, a soldier belonging to the Twenty-fourth Regiment raised his rifle to fire at an unusually conspicuous Chinaman Just as he was about to fire a bullet from the enemy's side came whizzing on, and, marvellous to relate, entered the barrel of his own gun as smoothly and and neatly as if the muzzles had been placed mouth to mouth. Of course there was an explosion and the soldier's piece was shattered to the stock, but without his receiving any injuries whatever. A fractional variation to the right or left would have caused the hostile bullet to enter his head or face, so that his escape was nothing short of miraculous. He preserved the stock of the now useless weapon, and afterwards exhibited it to his Colonel, who permitted him to keep it as a memento of his narrow escape. It is probably the first instance of the kind on record since Baron Munchausen's day. —Exchange.

Gentlemen,—Abut three or four weeks ago I had an attack of Itching Piles. I tried two or three different remedies recommended by druggists as "the best and only cure," etc., etc., but got no relief. With some slight misgivings I bought a box of your pile cure, which I am pleased to say gave me almost instant relief and permanent cure. I consider your Ointment a Godsend.

It's All Nonsense

For people to say there is no cure for consumption. Sufferers from that dread disease and kindred ailments are being saved every day by Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil. Do not die without giving it a fair trial. If it will cure others it will cure you. The secret of its success lies in the fact that it creates new blood in the system, thus enabling sufferers from lung troubles to overcome the destructive forces at work to waste the tissues of the body. Miller's Emulsion is the great nerve strengthener and blood-maker, and cures coughs, colds, bronchitis, scrofula and all lung agections. In big bottles 50c and $1, at all drug stores.

The price paid for the famous Rembrandt, sold by Lord Ashburnham to the Berlin Gallery, is said to be $1,000,000. The British National Gallery was already so rich in works of that artist that it declined the picture when first offered for sale.

If too rapid eating causes dyspepsia, and it in its turn produces nervous exhaustion, debility, weakness, anaemia, etc., the first step in effecting a cure is to eat slowly. The second and most important is to take a course of Hawker's nerve and stomach tonic, which aids the process of digestion, invigorates the stomach, renews the vitality of the blood, relieves brain fatigue, and makes weak nerves strong. ....

Dr. Sarah Hackett Stevenson, of Chicago, would put men in skirts. In an interview advocating women's skirts reaching only to the ankles, declaring that sweeping skirts spread disease, notably the bacilli of tuberculous, from expectorations in the cars and streets, she said: "By the way, there is not a single graceful line in masculine attire. For my part, I believe men would look better if they wore skirts. In fact, men did wear skirts in the long ago. When men wear short skirts on the stage how much more graceful they appear. I think a change in men's attire is to be commended, and nothing would be more graceful for evening wear than knee breeches."

A DIPHTHERIA SCARE.

There is no doubt but that diphtheria at this season in its worst form is prevalent in many cities and small towns. At the same time, that fact is no reason for frightening people out of their wits, with every new case of sore throat. Hundreds of persons are said to have had diphtheria who only had a severe sore throat. The form of sore which often passes for diphtheretic is what old people call quinsy. "Putrid sore throat," known long before diphtheria An old hospital nurse in Boston, says: "It ain't the clear cold of winter that lays people up with colds, catarrh and sore throats, and lays the children low with diphtheria; its the soft, pleasant, alternating with the wet, slushy days." This is very true, because then the air is laden with poisonous vapors. The first symptoms of true diphtheria there is fever, some stupor, and difficulty in breathing. Very sharp pains are often felt in the neck glands, just below the ear. The tongue is coated, the throat and tonsils inflamed, little white spots, which increase and turn to a dirty yellow or brown color. Very many reliable people claim to have cured severe cases of diphtheria with Johnson's Anodyne Liniment. Be that as it may, it is worth trying, because we know from experience it will cure a common sore throat in one night, and thousands of people claim that no remedy known will relieve colds, catarrh bronchitis, croup, etc., as promptly. If it cure them, why not diphtheria? I. S. Johnson & Co., Boston, Mass., will send their new illustrated book, entitled "Treatment for Diseases," free to any person for the asking.

THEORY EXPLODED.

The Belief that Brights Disease is Incurable No Longer Holds Good.

Somerset, Man., March 18—The old time theory of medical men that Bright's disease was incurable has been exploded to the satisfaction of all the people in this part of Canada. Arthur Coley, a well-known farmer, living near here, was attacked by the disease in the autumn of 1893. He was prostrated by it during the whole of the following winter. He and his friends were convinced that he would not live through the past summer. But to-day he is alive and hearty and working like a nailer to make up for the time he lost while sick. The happy change is due to Dodd's Kidney Pills, the only sure for any kidney disease.

The suit of Anna Dickinson to recover $125,000 damages for false imprisonment in the State Insane Asylum at Danville, Pa., was called in the United States Court at Scranton one day last week. Miss Dickinson charges that her committal and detention in the asylum were the result of a conspiracy. She was kept there five weeks against her will in the spring of 1889. The seven defendants are wealthy men. The case will be stubbornly contested.

Priestley's Dress Fabrics

In the long run it is the quality of the material that will determine the success of a lady's costume. Every lady who has at all studied the matter knows this. Priestley's Black Dress Goods are the best that the market affords. That is conceded on all hands. The ladies of Great Britain cordially acknowledge it. The American ladies prefer Priestley's dress fabrics to French. Our Canadian ladies are now asking for them. They wear better than other goods; but their great charm consists in a peculiar richness and softness of appearance, and a flexibility which enables them to drape in the costume with that suggestion of flow and rhythm which it is the dream of all tasteful women to realise.

See that the goods you buy are stamped "every five yards with "Priestley's name." No others are of their manufacture.
