Two-Day Convention Opens At Souris High School

SOURIS — The teachers of Souris and surrounding districts met at the Souris High School yesterday morning for the first sessions of their two-day fall convention. In the absence of the President, Mrs. Melvin MacPhee occupied the chair and opened the meeting.
The following committees were appointed for the session: press, Mrs. Marjorie MacDonald, Miss Genevieve Campbell and Mrs. Ira Stewart; resolutions, Mrs. Mary MacDonald, Mrs. Inez Dixon and Mr. James E. MacDonald, nominations, Miss Bernadette MacDonald, Mrs. Gladys Fouchere and Mrs. Leah Kennedy; question box, Miss Helen MacIsaac and Mrs. Ira Sanderson.
Mr. Jeremiah Pineau, Montague High School, gave a very interesting demonstration on French pronunciation.
Following recess, Mr. Malcolm MacKenzie, Deputy Minister of Education, gave a talk on Departmental affairs, and remarked on the good attendance which, he said, was indicative of the enthusiasm of the teachers.
Concluding the morning session, Miss Patricia LeClair gave an account of the work accomplished in the Red Cross Short Course which she attended at Kingston, N.S.
AFTERNOON SESSION
The afternoon session opened with an interesting address by the Acting President, Mrs. MacPhee, who strongly upheld the teachers' prestige in a profession faced with many difficulties.
Mr. Daniel MacDonald was elected to the Board of Governors of the Souris Local Teachers' Association to replace Mr. Elmer O'Hanley.
The report of the P. E. I. T.F. was presented by Miss Bowness, who also congratulated the acting president on her splendid address. Miss Bowness brought to the attention of the teachers the low salaries paid on P. E. I. as compared with those paid in the other Atlantic Provinces, al-
