Women's Waists.

JAMES PATON & CO.

A woman may have a beautiful face, a winning smile, a majestic figure and most engaging manners, and still lack the one feature necessary to make her bewitching, which is a distinctive quality of coquettishness that can only blossom underneath the smashed crown and drooping brim of a South African hat. Our Warrior Hat in all colors only $1.00 worth $1.50. One table of hats at 50c.

JAMES PATON & CO.

The same rigid scrutiny of fabrics, the same smart tailoring for boy's clothing as for men's. Styles that have the boyish grace with the manly finish. Beautiful suits for the little fellows; strong, sturdy suits for the older boys—the practical and the novel—a splendid lot of warm Reefers from 75c to $3.50. Also 385 Ulsters going to-day at $3.75.

JAMES PATON & CO.

Never mind what the thermometer says, it's time to buy heavier clothing for that boy. If you want him dressed in clothes that are absolutely right in style, tailored in first-class manner, and rightly-priced you should see what we have to offer. We are willing to have the stock judged by these few garments but we don't want the garments judged by these inadequate descriptions. Come and see them. $1500.00 worth to choose from.

THE DAILY EXAMINER

OCTOBER 22, 1900

"I appeal to you as Canadians," said Mr. Samuel Barker, in his address to the Hamilton convention, "that you should never allow Tarte to say that he has been endorsed in the city of Hamilton by the return of two supporters of the Government of which he is the dominant factor. (Cries of 'We won't!') In voting for the Liberal-Conservative candidates remember that you are voting, not for men, but for principles. If you return two supporters of the Tarte crowd, Tarte will claim that it is an endorsement of his disloyal acts. For four years he has had his hand at the throats of loyal Canadians, and it is time he was put down. Consider what disloyal Tarte would do in a time of trouble, if he had the power, and take no chances, but turn him out, with his party, placing in power that true and tried party which is above all things truly British—the Liberal-Conservative party." (Cheers.)

REV. T. F. WEST, B. A.

INTELLIGENCE OF THE unexpected death of the Rev. T. F. West, B. A., at the Massachusetts General Hospital, was received by the Rev. James Simpson on Saturday afternoon. This news will be received with deep regret in Charlottetown and in the country where ever the gifted and exemplary young man is known.

Mr. West had been unwell for several years, the cause being catarrh of the stomach. Recently his health seemed to be somewhat improved. But on the advice of his physician went to seek a more congenial climate. On Friday night, while a guest at the house of the Rev. Edward Osborne, in Boston, he became suddenly and acutely ill of peritonitis. It was deemed necessary to remove him to the hospital where he died at about four o'clock on Saturday.

The deceased clergyman was the son of a respected citizen, Martin West, Esq. He was educated at Prince of Wales College and at the University of Dalhousie in Halifax, and he took a post graduate course at Andover College.

After his return to P. E. Island he was appointed a professor in Prince of Wales College. Subsequently he became Principal of the High School at Belfast. In the meantime, he entered upon the study of Theology. In June 1895, he was ordained a deacon of the Church of England, and on the Christmas following he entered the priesthood. Since then he has been engaged in the prosecution of his sacred duties. On Tuesday last he assisted in a marriage ceremony at Somerville, near Boston.

The deceased leaves a widow and three small children to mourn the greatest of all earthly losses, besides his father and mother and other members of their family,—all of whom have the sincere sympathy of the community.

It is expected that the remains of the revered gentleman will arrive in Charlottetown tonight.

WEAKNESS OF THE GOVERNMENT

THE Government is weak in this struggle on account of what it has lost. It has lost since 1896 such newspaper supporters as the Huntingdon Gleaner—one of the best written papers in the province of Quebec—the Eastern Ontario Review, the Winnipeg Tribune, the Edmonton Bulletin, and many other organs of public opinion throughout Canada.

Then it has lost since 1896 such supporters as Mr. H. H. Cook, ex-M. P., of Toronto, Mr. Richardson, ex-M. P., of Winnipeg, Mr. Oliver, ex-M. P. for Alberta, Mr. McInnes, ex-M. P. of Vancouver,—and in every Province active, influential workers for the Liberal cause such, for instance, as the Mayor of Westmount (Montreal), Thomas Robinson, of Ontario, Mr. John Chapman, of Nova Scotia, Mr. J. T. Bulmer, of Nova Scotia, and hundreds of others.

These Liberals who helped the Laurier-Tarte party in 1896, and who are now opposing it with might and main, are but the representatives of thousands of electors throughout the length and breadth of Canada.

The effect upon public opinion is, of course, very great. For instance, Mr. W. J. Butler, a prominent Liberal of East Northumberland, Ontario, writes that he is dismayed by the failure of the leaders to answer Mr. Cook's statements. "I feel very sorry to take this step," he says, "but I see no other way—only to turn the men out of office who have lost the confidence of all right-thinking Reformers."

Mr. R. C. Hawkins, merchant, of Selsey Bay, in the constituency of Brockville, has left the Reform Association and joined the Conservative Association. He says he is disgusted at the violations of principle. Mr. William Thompson, warden of the County of Labelle, Quebec in which Bourassa is running as the Government candidate, declared at a public meeting a few days ago, that he had supported Bourassa in 1896, but he was compelled to put principle before politics. Although a Liberal he could not stand its nominee, and would give his support and influence to Mr. Poulin, the loyal Conservative candidate.

A correspondent of the Mail and Empire in North Grey, Ontario, writes that in each of three of the polling divisions the chairman of the Liberal-Conservative Committee is an old Liberal who never before cast a Liberal-Conservative vote!

So far as we can learn they are not in any degree met by dissidents from among the supporters of Sir Charles Tupper. There is, consequently, no foundation whatever for the boasts that the Liberals are going to win a greater number of seats in 1900 than they did in 1896. Hope, expectation, surmise, nothing more tangible, is at the bottom of the bragadozia that is so prevalent among the declining followers of Tarte and Laurier, Sifton and Blair.

This great loss of supporters and workers suffered by the party that is led by Mr. Tarte and Sir Wilfred, Mr. Sifton and their colleagues, is due to the essential weakness of their case. The expectations raised by them in 1896 have not been met.

"And be these juggling fiends no more believed, That utter truth in a double sense, That keep the word of promise to our ear, But break it to our hope."

This is a sentiment of a vast majority of the people of Canada, whose hopes with reference to the government of the country have been blasted by the men who raised them. The hope of reduced expenditures, taxation and debt, the hope of prohibition resulting from the plebiscite, the hope of reciprocity of trade with the United States, the hope of higher prices for home products and lower prices for imported goods needed for consumption—all these were kindled and blown into a flame by the men who won the victory of 1896, and all these, and more, have been falsified, strangled, abandoned, although it was on the strength of them that the victory was won.

AN EXAMPLE

FOR OUR FARMERS

A leading Liberal farmer of Manitoba, one who at the last election was an out-and-out supporter of the Liberal candidate in his district, has written a long letter to the Winnipeg telegram, in which he denounces the members of the government for violating their pledges and in which he says: "Treat the machine heeler as you would the troubling mustard weel. Their sole object is to deliver our votes to their bosses and get their reward. Watch the briber as you would a pick-pocket; the money he is using is stolen from the people by his bosses; run him to earth and put him behind the bars. A highway robber is a philanthropist compared to him. The only way we can constitutionally punish a government is by voting them out. Then our first duty is to vote out the present government for betraying us, and keep on smashing all succeeding governments until we get fair play, when we will get relief."

This is a good advice for the farmers of Prince Edward Island. After all a farmer knows how to speak to farmers.

ON THE WRONG TRACK.

THESE are the words of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, uttered in Parliament:

"I hold out to my fellow-countrymen the idea of independence."

"If we are true to our record we will exhibit to the world the unique unprecedented example of a nation achieving its independence by slow degrees and as naturally as the severing of the ripe fruit from the parent tree."

"Is there a Canadian anywhere who would not hail with joy the day when we would be deprived of the services of British Diplomacy?"

"What has British diplomacy been to us?"

"Sir, British diplomacy so far as Canada is concerned has been a record of failure and of surrender and of sacrifice."

This utterance of the Leader of the Government will not, ought not for a moment to find favor in the minds of Canadians, who recognize that if Canada has now a distinct and prominent position in the world, the fact is due largely to the protecting arm of the Motherland—Great Britain. Nor will it find favor with any true and loyal Canadian who desires to see Canada develop into a distinct nationality in corporate union with the British Empire. Sir Wilfrid is on the wrong track. "Independence" would place us at the mercy of the United States,—and we know what that means.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

—The impartial puts a number of questions to B. D. McLellan which the gentleman nor his masters, will not answer. The new Liberals are not in this business just now. A bad past history is not agreeable matter to recall.

—Mr. John Charitor, Ex-M. P., also has trimmed his sails to the Opposition breeze. His address to the electors of North Norfolk, published in another column—is decidedly against the Government and in favor of Sir Charles Tupper's Preferential Trade policy.

HUMORS, boils, pimples, eruptions are due to impure blood, and by purifying the blood with Hood's Sarsaparilla they are CURED.

TOMORROW NIGHT.—At eight o'clock the usual meeting of the Tupper Club will be held. Every elector should be on hand early and secure a seat. There will be a fine meeting. Popular speakers, and a good evening's entertainment. All are invited.

CHANGE SPOKEN OF.—There is talk of buying up the Church of England acres of Nova Scotia, forming a new one to take in Eastern Nova Scotia, Cape Breton and Prince Edward Island.
