—OPEN TEA at Summerside Golf Club today (Wednesday). Each member may bring a guest.

—DEER TRACKS SIGHTED— What is believed to be the first sighting of deer tracks in the Alberton area were reported by Mr. Russell Hardy whose farm is about two miles from Alberton. Mr. Hardy found two sets of tracks in his potato field and is certain they are deer tracks as he has had some experience deer hunting on the mainland. As a doe and fawn were observed at West Cape on Friday it is quite likely they are the same pair although no one has actually reported seeing them in this vicinity.—F.

—A break at Sheen and MacIntinnis Shoe Store on Water Street Summerside Monday night or early Tuesday morning netted the thieves about $35 in cash although they failed in strenuous attempts to open the cash register. Entry was gained by means of a small window which opened on the alley way at the side of the building. It is about ten feet from ground level.

They forced the cash register through this small opening and it was later found abandoned under a warehouse behind the store. The register was badly damaged in the attempt. There was about $25 in it and apparently the intruders fooled themselves in an attempt to open it. The cash register key was on the counter and evidently they thought it would be necessary to insert the key and turn it in order to open it while all they had to do was press a button and pull the crank. When they put in the key they locked it and then their best efforts were unavailing. The money that was taken was found in a desk drawer in the office.

As far as can be learned no shoes are missing although the stock in the vicinity of the window was disarrayed. In getting in

New Medical Centre Is Opened In Summerside

—Today, as announced elsewhere in this issue, a new medical center is being opened in the former Strong Building, on the corner of Water and Central Streets, Summerside. In this center five medical doctors and a dentist will operate a combined practice. The staff members with their specialties are as follows: Dr. J. C. Simpson, surgeon; Dr. A. R. Grant, surgery; Dr. Henry Moyses, medicine; Dr. J. K. Beer, surgery; Dr. J. B. Downing, medicine; and Dr. Vincent Grant, dentistry.

Dr. Simpson, Moyses and both Drs. Grant have been carrying on practices in Summerside for a number of years. Drs. Beer and Downing have just returned from Montreal where they have been engaged in post graduate work.

Entrance to the new medical center is from Central Street and on coming up the stairs one arrives immediately in a spacious waiting room. There is a receptionist there who will give any necessary information and make appointments.

Each doctor has an office and an examination room. In addition there is a laboratory, treatment room and storage room. The center occupies the whole top floor of the building and there is sufficient space for one more set of offices if at a later date another doctor should join the staff.—S

Teacher Tells Of Work In Canadian Far North

Teaching is only a small part of a teacher's work in the North-West Territories of Canada, according to Mr. Joseph Cody, one-time Summerside School teacher, who has returned with Mrs. Cody, the former Miss Katherine Delavan, from the far north to spend a vacation with friends and relatives on Prince Edward Island.

Mr. Cody says you are the Indian agent in your particular area. You work for the Department of Northern Health and Welfare. You minister to the sick, take the census and look after family allowance problems. Travelling by dog team in temperatures as low as 70 degrees below zero is in the line of duty.

The actual teaching of Indian children is confined to about four months in the year. The Indians go into the bush in the trapping season, stay perhaps two months trapping marten, then come out for six weeks, going back to trap beaver. In between the trapping seasons is the only opportunity to teach the Indian children as they go into the bush with their parents in the working season.

Mr. Cody described his experiences on a visit to an Eskimo igloo, and had high words of praise for Eskimo hospitality. The Eskimo go to great extremes to make the visitor feel at home, looking after his dogs, giving him the best meal an igloo can provide and doing other acts of kindness.

With a severe room apartment on the second floor for the teacher, Mr. Cody first taught at Rola and Dawson Creek in British Columbia then Port Norman and Fort Good Hope in the North-West Territories, the latter being within the Arctic Circle. He is not returning to the far north, however.

When he goes back, he plans to start a business in Northern B. C. near where he first started to teach school in the West.

THE DAMNED DON'T CRY, WARNER BROS. DRAMA. DUE

—Bringing back the same star-team which scored so heavily in "Flamingo Road," Warner Bros. presents a new screen drama entitled "The Damned Don't Cry," starring Joan Crawford and David Brian. It arrives at the Capitol Theatre today.

The story of Lorna Hansen Forbes, a beautiful woman clever in all save love who rises from middle-class surroundings to become one of the most sought-after glamor women in the country, "The Damned Don't Cry" has for a background the gay but desperate life of big-time gamblers, racket operators and gangsters who live in a demi-world of respectability in the lush resort capitals of the country.

How she becomes the confidante of a gambling syndicate chief comprises the first half of the story. David Brian, in the lead male role, repeats the success he scored as Miss Crawford's leading man in "Flamingo Road," his first screen role. Soon he sends her to check on the activities of a henchman whom he suspects of double-dealing. This role is played by Steve Cochran and it is here she finds real love at last.

The complications which arise out of such a situation combine to make "The Damned Don't Cry" one of the leading action dramas of the year, and how much is taken from real life records is something only the author, Gertrude Walker, and the scenarists Harold Medford and Jerome Weidman, know.

Vincent Sherman directed. Others in the strong cast include Kent Smith, Hugh Sanders and Selena Royle.
