SIR,—

I beg to report to you an act of great kindness, done by a British shipmaster, Mr. John Wood, Master of the British Schooner "Mary Helen," official number, 46,803, P. M., Prince Edward Island, employed in the Coasting Trade between this Port and Patagonia—he having picked up a boat's crew of the shipwrecked British Ship Alma (of Liverpool, official number 32,886), whom he found in an exhausted state, they having been in the boat for five days, on 25th April last, about 30 miles E. S. E. of Point Medano.

The Mary Helen was bound to Laguna de les Padres, and upon taking the above men on board, he proceeded to his destination, where his vessel was detained four weeks, and, during all this time, the shipwrecked men were maintained by the said Captain Wood, and subsequently brought to, and landed safely at, this Port, on the 1st instant, without making any charge whatever. He brought their boat also, and delivered it to this Consulate, &c., &c., &c.

I have, &c.,
