

Mothers Talk About Traffic

MONTREAL (CP)—A delegation of Mulberry Street mothers is to meet today with an official of the city's traffic department to talk over problems arising from heavy traffic which has been rerouted down their formerly peaceful street.

Mrs. J. P. Reiner, spokesman for the group, said last week the meeting was arranged following an interview she had with Mayor Sarto Fournier.

She said about five mothers are expected to meet with Jacques Barriere, assistant traffic director.

Tuesday a number of mothers and neighborhood children blocked all traffic entering Mulberry Street from Namur Street for about two hours. The move was to dramatize their desire to close off the street from through traffic. The neighborhood mothers set up a similar blockade April 24.

"We weren't anxious to go on with the demonstration, but it seemed the only way to get any action," Mrs. Reiner said.
