

Thrilling Races Go At Covehead

The best race card yet held at the Covehead Raceway was the verdict of some 1200 fans last night as Nickerby Enterprises presented a nine-race card including a special challenge race.

Duck Woolridge, piloting his hot 42 Ford number 0 was a double race winner, emerging victorious in both the second and fifth races. Brad Brown finished second in the second race, at the controls of his howling Hudson and Roger Keiser in his number 26 Ford placed third. Mill Drummond was second in the fifth race and Dave Johnson emerged third in his 53 Meteor.

In the challenge race, George Thorne, one of the challengers, brought his 52 Dodge six, home to victory in one of the closest races of the night. He fought down to the wire with George Neal's, flathead Ford, who came in second. Just inches behind, third place went to the other challenger Alan MacRae and his hot Pontiac six.

The rough and tumble free for all for a $100 purse saw a field of 12 quickly cut down as close action wiped out several in the early laps. Ken Newbury blasted home in first place, in his 56 Ford with the Pink Panther, a 56 Dodge edging out Ray Birt in his 55 Chev for second place. Birt placed third.

Dave Constable, at the controls of his big 57 Dodge finished first in race three, an ever-head eight class event, with Crash Newbury placing second and Ralph Brown, who has won five of six starts this year in the overhead class came home in the lead in the sixth race, Newbury again placed second and the hot number nine of Dave Constable nipped home in a close third spot.

Al MacRae called the shots in the first race, with Ray Birt coming in a close second and George Thorne roaring in third in his Dodge.

Phil MacInnis, driving the number 47 Chev that Birt piloted in the first race, came in for top money in the fourth race for victory in the fourth race, with Al MacRae finishing second.

In the consolation race Fred Smith at the helm of his 57 Dodge came in first with Austin McQuaid in the Pink Panther coming in second in a squeaker and Elwood Paynter pushing the first two hard in third place.

Spectacular spills dominated all but a couple of the races and more of the same is forecast for next week with some 20 cars slated to be on the pits. Races next week will be held on Tuesday night instead of the usual Wednesday date and a special event may also be slated for the evening.

Huge Daily Double Payoff Is Summerside Highlight

The long shot in this event was Victory March, owned by L. Smith of Borden and driven by Billy Compton, who captured the first dash of the night.

The 15-year-old brown gelding paid $42.10 to win and $40.20 to place in this dash. There were no snow tickets bought. The daily double pay was the biggest on this young racing season.

Victory March was also one of three double winners on the while he did the twice-around program. His first win was 2:15 the oval in 1973 in his second appearance.

Meadow Day, a Stanley Mayhew owned 6-year-old Bay Mare, won both trips of an invitational event, the fifth and eighth dashes of the evening. Her times were 2:12-1 and 2:10 flat.

Marichal Drops 3rd Match Chicago Defeats Atlanta

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Orlando Cepeda's towering home run powered Nelson Briles and St. Louis to a 2-1 victory over the National League-leading San Francisco Giants Wednesday.

Cepeda's solo blast in the sixth inning against his former teammates carried close to 500 feet down the left field line. It was his ninth of the season and gave the Cardinals a 2-0 lead against Juan Marichal, who lost his third game against 13 victories.

Willie McCovey closed the gap in the seventh inning with his 15th homer.

The first St. Louis run came in the first when Lou Brock lined a triple over Willie Mays' head in center and scored on Phil Gagliano's sacrifice fly.

Briles needed help from Joe Hoerner in the eighth when the Giants put two men on with one out. Hoerner got pinch hitter Orzelle Vergil to hit into a double play.

NEW YORK (AP) — Richie Allen and Cookie Rojas led the Phillies to a 5-2 victory over New York Mets Wednesday despite fifth inning homers by Cleon Jones and Jerry Grote.

Allen's double drove in Rojas who opened the game with a double off loser Rod Gardner. A combination of Dick Groat's single, a walk, and singles by Alle and Jackie Brandt produced two more Phil runs in the fifth.

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Roberto Clemente ripped a ninth inning single to center, scoring Marty Alou with the winning run as Pittsburgh Pirates nipped Houston 6-5 Wednesday night.

Alou beat out a bouncer opening the ninth. After Gene Alley sacrificed him to second, Clemente's hit brought him home.

Jimmy Wynn had walloped a two run homer with two out in the ninth inning, tying it for Houston.

BOSTON (AP) — Mickey Vernon cracked two homers, driving in four runs, and Bobby Richardson lined five hits, including a homer, in leading New York Yankees to a 6-5 victory over Boston Red Sox Wednesday night.

Mantle, who hit two homers in the Yankees' 5-3 loss to Boston Tuesday night, connected for his 10th and 11th of the season on his first two trips to the plate.

He singled in his third time at bat, falling one short of a record of homers in four consecutive trips to the plate.

Mantle, who has belted 484 career homers despite all leg ailments, lined a pitch into the screen in left center after single.
