It was announced the P.E.I. Presbytery will meet in Summerside on July 2nd. Shower Held At Bradalbane

On Thursday evening, May 14, a pre-nuptial shower was held in Bradalbane Hall, in honor of Miss Jean Cousins. When the bride-to-be was seated in a prettily-decorated chair, Mrs. Lorne Cousins, expressed the purpose and sentiments of the assembly in a very appropriate poem.

Little Misses Donna Cobb and Marion MacDonald then appeared from "behind the scenes" bearing a heavily-laden basket of gifts which Mrs. Eilon Somers, Mrs. Lorne Cobb, Mrs. James Snowie, Mrs. Millage MacLeod, Mrs. Arthur MacLean and Miss Margaret Kennedy assisted in opening, arranging, or reading the accompanying good wishes.

After Jean had graciously thanked her friends, and all had sung "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow," a social hour was enjoyed during which refreshments were served.

Jean who has been employed as an assistant in the Bible Chapel, Charlottetown, had an opportunity to chat with her Bradalbane friends, all of whom wish her long life and much happiness.
