

In Search of the Green

Happy Fall Fest! Happy Halloween! Eat, drink and be merry because final exams are just around the corner, only 39 days until they begin. But, here is your consolation, only 48 days until the holiday begins.

I would like to remind students that it isn't too late to appeal student loans. If you would like any help with this or any other financial aid matter, please feel free to drop by the office located on the first floor of Main Building in the Department of Student Services, or by calling 566-0647.

UPCOMING BURSARY DEADLINES

UNDERGRADUATE P.E.I. Union of Public Sector Employees Bursaries

These $500 bursaries are awarded to:

- (1) Union members, or
- (2) dependents of union members or retired members who are enrolled as full-time students during the next semester (winter-spring 1987). Financial need, academic ability and involvement in U.P.S.E. activities are all considerations.

Applications are available from Student Services.

Deadline: Friday Nov. 21.

Pillsbury Undergraduate Scholarships Program

Four awards equally valued at $1,250 will be awarded to students in the following programs: two awards for Business/Commerce, one award for Food Science, one award for Agricultural Science. Applicants must have completed two full years of study. Evaluations will be based upon students academic ability, as well as participation in extra-curricular activities.

Applications available from Student Services.

Deadline: November 30.

Harvey Moore Wildlife Scholarship

A scholarship is awarded in the area of project, research work, or study of wildlife conservation. Applicants must be, or have been, studying biology or wildlife conservation on P.E.I. and be willing to work on a project in the related area.

Applications available in Student Services.

Deadline: January 31.

Education Society

With the first semester well under way, the education society continues its active role on campus. The society concluded its elections early in September and the executive is composed of Florence McCarey — President, Gordie Cox — Vice-President, Susan Laviolette — Student Council Rep. and Mike Trainor — first year B.Ed. rep.

Earlier in the year, the society held its annual outdoor Education Weekend at Camp Riverdale. A good deal was learned about the outdoors and the wild life that was observed Friday night will be long remembered (although some might wish it wasn't)

The society has also done a good deal of charitable work. Money was contributed to Rick Hanson's Man In Motion Tour for spinal cord research. A donation of food was also made to the Upper Room.

The second half of the semester looks to be just as fun as the first. The society has two major events planned. The first is a draw for four free tickets to the Confederation Centre Old Fashioned Christmas. Tickets are $2.00 each and can be obtained from any society member.

The biggest event in the works is the annual Education Society Lip Sync Pub scheduled for November 20 at the Barn. Anyone who attended the Lip Sync Pubs last year knows they were the social highlights of the year and there is no reason to believe they won't be better this year.

Society members have been gathering prizes for this since September, so there are plenty of goodies to be won. Anyone interested in entering can do so by getting in touch with any society member.

Leadership Conference to be Held

This year for the first time in a long time, U.P.E.I. Christian Student Community (C.S.C.) will be hosting a conference on leadership. The conference will begin on the evening of the 7th of November and end on the afternoon of 9th of November. It will be taking place on campus at the Chaplaincy Center.

The conference promises to be enjoyable. Friday evening begins with registration starting at 8 p.m. A wine and cheese party will follow the opening remarks.

Activities on Saturday will commence at 9:30 a.m. and will consist of such talks on leadership as "What is leadership?" and "How to communicate effectively as a leader". Each talk will be followed by small group discussions. The day will end at 3 p.m. in the afternoon, but the evening promises to be fun. A banquet for all those who attended the conference will be held at 7 p.m.

Sunday, the members of the conference will come together to reflect on that was discussed on Saturday. And to say good-bye to new friends that were made.

If you are interested in attending, you can pick up an application for the conference at the Chaplaincy Center. The conference is open to only 15 students from U.P.E.I., so get your application in as soon as possible.
