Liberal Leader Campaigns With Great Energy In B.C.

VICTORIA (CP) — Raymond Joseph Perrault is campaigning for the Sept. 12 British Columbia election with the sort of energy that might be expected of the youngest of the party leaders.

The 40-year-old Liberal chief chartered a plane for a five-day swing around the province promoting his party's "agenda for a new generation."

The air trip took him up through the northern constituencies, the Kootenays and fruit-growing Okanagan Valley. Then from his Vancouver headquarters he arranged a series of individual trips in the final days of the campaign.

The Vancouver-born University of British Columbia graduate mounted attacks on Social Credit Premier W. A. C. Bennett as a "one - man power czar" and described his government as "fat with arrogance" after 14 years in power.

An advertising executive before becoming party leader in 1959, Mr. Perrault was first elected to the legislature in 1960 when the Liberals put four members in the House on the strength of 20.9 per cent of the popular vote. The Liberals elected five members in 1963 with 20 per cent of the vote.

While Robert Strachan, New Democratic Party leader, has said the election is not wanted or needed, Mr. Perrault says he does not dispute the premier's right to "call an election any time the whim seizes him whether or not it violates parliamentary practice."

PROMISES FARM AID

The main issue, he said, is "who has the sounder program for the future of the province."

The Liberals had put together "an agenda for a new generation" including a comprehensive program for the total development of the province, both human and physical.

In a campaign speech in the farm riding of Delta, Mr. Perrault promised a better deal for the farm. A Liberal government, he said, would shift school tax levies from the family home and farm owner to general revenues, would establish parity of farm income with that of other industries by taking advantage of existing federal grants and massive expenditures in research to expand markets for farm produce.

In accepting the nomination in North Vancouver - Capilano, Mr. Perrault said the government had "grown rich, fat and sleek in its 14 long years in office." People whose problems had not been solved by Social Credit wanted a chance—people "automated out of jobs, people with retarded children and limited aid and underpaid civil servants."

An eloquent speaker with a hard-hitting delivery, Mr. Perrault studied political science and economics at UBC and worked in radio before turning to politics as a Liberal organizer. Married in 1963, he is the father of two young children.

Saint John Collapse Kills Two

SAINT JOHN — Two men were killed and two others seriously injured Thursday at the construction site of the new Shamrock Park School in Saint John.

Killed when a heavy steel beam fell on them were 50-year-old Cecil Vale of Pokiok Road in Saint John and 55-year-old Albert Joseph LeBlanc of Buctouche, Kent County.

Mr. Vale was an employee of Modern Construction Co. Ltd., and Mr. LeBlanc was an employee of Ocean Steel Company Ltd.

Admitted to Saint John General Hospital as a result of injuries were Lorenzo Breau of Neguac, N.B. and John Paul Noel of Allardvile, N.B.

Both were employees of Ocean Steel.

A hospital spokesman said that neither man was on the critically ill list. The full extent of their injuries have not been determined.

Liberals Appoint Youth Organizer

OTTAWA (CP) — Appointment of an "associate national youth organizer" was announced here by national Liberal party headquarters.

He is Patrick Sheppard, 23, a University of New Brunswick law student from Fredericton.

Mr. Sheppard will be based at party headquarters here and will share planning and co-ordinating of youth activities in the party with a French-speaking associate.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

AXYDLBAAXR
is LONGFELLOW

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

5 ♥	5 NT	Pass	6 ♦
Dble

Opening lead—king of hearts.

This hand occurred in a team match. South was French star Desrousseaux, playing with his favorite partner, Theron.

Two clubs was an artificial game-forcing bid and two diamonds was the negative response. East-West were using ace-showing responses and two diamonds denied an ace. It likewise denied possession of two kings, because East would have responded two notrump with two kings.

The double by South showed diamonds. The four notrump bid indicated club length as well as diamonds, and five no trump by North asked South to choose his better minor suit as trump.

West doubled six diamonds knowing that the opponents had two aces and that he could not make a slam. However, despite East-West's 25 high-card points, Desrousseaux proceeded to make six diamonds doubled.

West cashed the king of hearts and shifted to the king of spades, which South ruffed. After rumping a heart in dummy, declarer le- a diamond. East producing the king, taken by the ace.

Desrousseaux thereupon led the ace of clubs, catching the king, and thus made the slam. This dramatic play of the ace without attempting to finesse was well reasoned. East's two diamond response had denied two kings, and South therefore knew that West had the king of clubs. His only chance, consequently, was to find a singleton king.

Desrousseaux's East-West teammates at the second table also fared well on the hand. The bidding went:

West	North	East	South
2 ♣	Pass	2 ♦	Dble
2 ♥	Pass	3 ♥	4 ♣

North's silence throughout is hard to explain, since South had identified a strong diamond-club hand. West made four hearts after North led a diamond to the ace, followed by the ace of clubs and a trump return. Declarer ruffed two clubs, played the ace and a low spade, and North found himself in a hopeless position.
