ATTENTION FARMERS

This is used spreader month with us, and during the winter we have been fitting up our used spreaders. We now have a quantity of good used machines on which we have cut the prices to the "core" in order to have them out quickly.

It is also a good time to think about a front end loader. We have the famous New Idea line of loaders, carrying a full year guarantee.

Supper Meeting Is Held Recently

The annual father and son supper meeting highlighted the March get together of Saint Paul's Laymen's Association presided over by T.D. DeBlois. The meeting was held in the parish hall.

The president welcomed the 130 members and guests, which included Provincial Scout Commissioner for Camps, H. Blanchard Mahon, and District Commissioner William D. Ives. All boys of Saint Paul's Scout Troop and Wolf Cub Pack, in uniform, were among the "sons" present.

A sing-song conducted by John Evans with George Thompson at the piano was enjoyed by all. The president extended the thanks of the large group to the co-conveners of the Belvedere Guild, Mrs. Harry MacAusland and Mrs. M.J. MacMillan for the supper which had been served. A number of prizes were distributed to the boys on the basis of birthdays, and at the end of the meeting each boy received a bag of treats.

PRESENTATION Brief remarks were made by the rector, Rev. F. Louis Elias, after which Scout Daniel Tweel made a presentation on behalf of the Scouts to retiring Scoutmaster, William D. Ives. Mr. DeBlois also expressed the thanks of the men of the parish to Mr. Ives for the leadership he had given Saint Paul's Scouts over the past 10 years. The guest speaker of the evening, Henry Purdy, was introduced by Mr. DeBlois, who stated that Mr. Purdy came to Charlottetown in 1958 as Commercial Artist with CFCY-TV, where he spent five years, then took a year's Teacher Training course at Moncton, and joined the staff of the Provincial Vocational Institute in 1964 as Commercial Art instructor.
