MARCH 27, 1894.

"CREEPING UP" AGAIN.

In the month of February last, the debt of the Provincial Government at the Merchants Bank of P. E. Island increased from about $75,000 to $83,209.00.

A BIG DIFFERENCE.

A TREATY, lately negotiated between the Government of the Celestial Empire and the Almighty Republic, imposes upon Americans in China the same conditions as to registration and photographing as the Great Law does upon the Chinese in the United States.

WHENCE THE MONEY WILL COME.

The Premier's Plan of Taxation is in such an exceedingly nebulous state that it does not yet require criticism. But we must protest against the pretence which has been set up that it will not involve the taxation of the products of industry and thrift.

EASTER MEETINGS.

The annual meeting of the congregation of St. Peter's Church took place last night and was largely attended.

The Church Women's Society followed the financial affairs of the church to be in a satisfactory condition, the floating debt having been reduced to $222.80.

This is the twenty-fifth year since the opening of the Church for Divine Service in 1869, and it was decided to mark the Silver Jubilee in a practical way.

The retiring Churchwardens Messrs. Hogg, Paton and Messervy, were re-elected, as also the Treasurer, Mr. Watson.

Mr. W. C. Cotton and Mr. W. C. Harris were elected lay delegates to the Diocesan Synod which meets next June in Halifax.

Mr. F. W. L. Moore was appointed auditor in place of Mr. T. J. Harris, retiring.

A vote of thanks to the churchwardens, treasurer, collectors, and ladies who have devoted their time to the service of the church was carried unanimously.

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH.

The annual meeting of the congregation of St. Paul's Church, which held in St. Paul's schoolroom last evening.

The Rev. W. Hamlyn, occupied the chair, and opened the meeting with an address appropriate to the occasion.

There was a good attendance. Mr. A. B. Warburton spoke very feelingly regarding the life work of the late Dr. Fitzgerald, and moved the following resolution:

Resolved, That the members of St. Paul's congregation desire to express their deep sympathy with the relatives of the late Rev. Dr. Fitzgerald in their recent bereavement.

The resolution was seconded by Mr. Charles Palmer, and passed by a unanimous vote.

The printed accounts for the past year were distributed. The contributions by the congregation during the year amounted to $4,042.77, which included $326.18 as follows:

Mr. A. B. Warburton, $100; Mr. J. H. Haszard, $50; Mr. W. C. Harris, $50; Mr. W. Hamlyn, $50; Mr. R. Fitzgerald, $50; Mr. C. Palmer, $50; Mr. A. B. Warburton, $50.

A resolution was unanimously passed affirming the desirability of procuring the building of the new church provided the remainder of the funds required can be raised.

A committee to canvass subscriptions to the new church fund was then appointed as follows: F. L. Haszard, W. C. Harris, R. Fitzgerald, W. Hamlyn, C. Palmer, A. B. Warburton.

Plans for the proposed new church, made by W. C. Harris and C. B. Chappell, were submitted. It was deemed advisable, however, to raise the funds before agreeing upon any plan.

The meeting adjourned.

PERSONAL. Rev. C. W. Dutcher, of Souris, is in the city, receiving medical treatment for an affection of the throat.

Dr. Nettleship, the eye specialist, is confident that the simplest operation will restore Mr. Gladstone's sight, so that he soon will be able to read without the slightest difficulty.

Mr. Leturgey is on the coast in connection with some business relating to property at Golden to which he is heir—Vancouver World, March 15.

Dr. E. P. Moore, formerly of this city, has, in a few months, won his name into the appreciative hearts of the community of Summerside, and we congratulate him on his appointment to so honorable a position as President of the Y. M. C. A., as well as on the professional status he has attained in the practice of medicine.

The arrivals at the Hotel Davies yesterday were: J. G. Stens, Souris; William Knight, Amherst; Chas. Nicol, Montreal; C. Clarke, Montserrat; W. A. Ching, Kensington; Mr. J. H. Haszard, Souris; J. H. Haszard, Springfield. The arrivals this forenoon included R. W. Ambrose, St. John; J. A. Calder, Halifax; Geo. R. Montgomery, Alberton; D. Gordon, Georgetown.

A special to the Sun from London says: "It is learned from an authoritative quarter that the Queen and the Prince of Wales had given their consent to the marriage of Lord Rosbery with Princess Maud of Wales and the official announcement will be expected any day. This was the business which caused Rosbery's urgent summons to the Queen's presence on the Saturday before the announcement of Gladstone's retirement and the mysterious hobnobbing of the ministers on the Sunday following.

How the Radicals will relish the leadership of the Prince of Wales' son-in-law, who presumably will be peculiarly susceptible to court influences, remains to be seen.

Vessels arriving at New York from Europe report passing large quantities of ice in the North Atlantic. The walrus and whales up in the Arctic must have had an early spring too.

In the state of Iowa, which has had prohibition for many years, a bill for local option, with high license, has passed the house of representatives. The bill provides a tax of $600 on each saloon, the same to be levied as an assessment on the land where the shop is situated. It is not certain whether the bill will pass the state senate.

Montreal Gazette: "There is talk of Mr. Fielding, the Liberal Premier of Nova Scotia, resigning his position and entering Federal politics. Having increased the provincial debt of Nova Scotia by 2,000 per cent. in twelve years he would naturally be a powerful addition to the economy advocates of the Dominion Opposition.

In Portland, Maine, last week, there were, according to the Transcript, forty-seven arrests, of which thirty-three were for drunkenness, an average of about five "drunks" a day in a prohibition town!

LOUIS KOSUTH.

The life of Louis Kosuth, whose death was announced a few days ago, was full of interest. From his youth, he was an opponent of despotic government.

In 1832 he entered the Presburg Parliament as the representative of one of the great magnates, who were at that time allowed to appear in the chamber by proxy.

The press then was under strict censorship, but Kosuth started a manuscript journal to report the debates in the Diet, and for it obtained a wide circulation.

For refusing to stop its circulation Kosuth was condemned to four years' imprisonment. Released in 1840, he entered the national cause with redoubled energy, becoming in 1841 editor of the newly-founded Pesth Journal.

In 1844 he founded a great national league, nominally to promote industry and commerce, but in reality to form a centre of opposition to the Viennese Government.

He was returned to Parliament in 1847. His ability and his surprising eloquence made him leader of the Assembly and leader of the reforming party. He induced the Government to form a Hungarian Ministry, in which he was Minister of Finance.

His first act was to carry through the series of liberal reforms which were inaugurated. Equality of civil rights and liability to taxation for all classes were decreed, and the nobles renounced their privileges.

The land system was transformed, and the franchises widely extended; Kosuth meanwhile had effected useful reforms in the financial system. But these labors were interrupted by the insurrection of the Croats and Serbs, secretly supported by the Vienna Government.

In a great speech in Parliament on July 15, 1849, upon the Magyars to defend themselves, and demanded on the part of the Government credit for 42,000,000 florins and 200,000 men.

The Austrian Government revoked the grant of responsible ministry to Hungary and refused to recognize the new laws. Kosuth was then made President of the Committee of National Safety.

In October 1849 broke out in Vienna. Kosuth determined to support the insurgents, ordering a march on Vienna, but the Magyars were beaten and obliged to fall back behind the Danube.

On the abdication of Ferdinand the Hungarians refused to recognize Francis Joseph, and Kosuth conveyed the crown of St. Stephen to Hungary and refused to recognize the new laws. Kosuth was then made President of the Committee of National Safety.

GENERAL TELEGRAPHIC NEWS. Rome, March 23.—The Pope's encyclical letter addressed to the bishops of Poland, Russia, Austria and Prussia was published today.

His Holiness says in brief that the mission of the Pope is not to touch anything against the power of princes or the utility of nations, but to provide for the prosperity of all. The encyclical proceeds to exhort the bishops to avoid any hostility to the civil authority and to insist on the duty of the Pope to observe the observance of the Russo-Polish agreement.

Addressing the Roman Catholics of Austria and Poland the Pope enjoins them to be grateful for the religious zeal of the emperor, and concludes with urging the Poles in Prussia to trust to the equity of their emperor and to observe the laws.

Bona-Pesth, March 23.—The popular feeling against the death of Louis Kosuth has begun to manifest itself. To-night rioting took place on account of the hanging down of the black mourning flag from the opera house. An immense crowd gathered when the news spread, and stones, etc., were thrown at the military and the police. At this the cavalry and the police charged the crowd with drawn swords. The mob resisted, and though driven back, stubbornly resisted every inch of their ground. Again and again the crowd was driven back until it began to give way a little, but keeping up a continual fire of stones as they retreated. Many of the crowd were knocked down and trampled upon by the horses of the cavalrymen and seriously injured. It is known that forty persons were hurt during the rioting. Thirty-six men who appeared to be the leaders in the movement were arrested.
