Lacy Literature.

A bachelor editor, sensitive in relation to his rights, objects to taking a wife for fear that if she should have a baby his cotemporaries, who habitually copy without credit, would refuse to give him credit for the baby.

A PARTING INJUNCTION—a decree in the Divorce Court.

A MAN most open to conviction—the prisoner at the bar.

Why cannot a fat porker put his his head into an empty flour barrel? Because it is impossible to put a hogshead into a barrel.

Most Mormon women are outrageously homely. Of course they are: none but a homely women would take such desperate chances for a husband.

The question why printers do not succeed as well as brewers was thus answered:—

"Because printers work for the head and brewers for the stomach, and where twenty men have stomachs but one has brains."

What is Majesty robbed of its externals?—A jest

"Bob, how is your sweetheart getting along?"

"Pretty well; she says I needn't call any more."

Why is a clergyman's horse like a Sovereign?—It is guided by a minister.

Why is the Sun like people of fashion? Because both turn night into day.

"That is a fine strain," said one gentleman to another alluding to the tones of a singer at a concert the other evening.

"Yes," said a countryman who sat near, "but if he strains much more he'll bust."

A fellow, whose countenance was homely enough to scare the "old one" was giving some extra flourishes in a public house, when he was observed by a Yankee who asked him,

"Didn't you fall into a brook when you was quite young?"

"What do you mean you impertinent little scoundrel?"

"Why, I didn't mean nothin', only you have got such an all-fired crooked mouth, I thought as how you fall'd into a brook when you was a boy, and your mother hung you up by the mouth to dry."

A Kentucky editor visited a fortune-teller recently. He makes the following report of the revelation concerning his past and future:—

Thou hast served three years in a penitentiary for a horse thou didst not steal. Thou wilt be Governor of the State, and afterwards decline a seat in the Senate of the United States. A wealthy young lady, with blue hair, auburn eyes, and very beautiful, is now about to graduate from the House of Correction, whom thou wilt marry as soon as thy present wife diest, which will be fourth full of the next moon. Thou wilt become possessed of this lady's wealth, and elope with the wife of a coal-boat engineer. Thou wilt go to New Orleans and start a keno bank, which will bring the in great riches. After an absence of fourteen years, thou wilt return to thy repining wife, lay thy princely fortune at her feet, be forgiven, and, after raising a family of nineteen children, die happy at the age of ninety-nine."

BOUND TO SEE IT THROUGH—Two unsophisticated country girls came to Boston last week, on a visit to their city aunt; and, while there, were taken to the Continental to see "The Black Crook."

When the nymphs of the ballet appeared on the stage, some with very brief skirts and gossamea clothing, and others in the peculiar undress uniform, for witch the play is remarkable, the girls gazed in astonished and embarrassed silence awhile, when one whispered to her sister—

"O, Jennie!"

"Well, Mary?"

"It ain't nice. I dont like it."

"Hush, Mary—don't."

"But I want to go. I shouldn't have thought hunt would have brought us here.'

"Do keep still, Mary; folks will laugh at you."

"I don't care, it ain't nice."

"Well," said Jennie, in a determined manner, her own face a vivid scarlet; "this is the first time that I have ever been in a theatre, and I bet it will be the last; so I shall stay it out, if they should dance every rag off their backs."

A spirited young lady who was about to marry a man whose purse was longer than his head, said she preferred his dollars to his sense.

A Frenchman said of Shakespeare, "ven you find anyzing you no understand, it is always something fine."

"Job Printing!" exclaimed an old woman the other day, as she peeped over her spectacles at the advertising page of a country paper. "Poor Job! they've kept him printing, week after week, ever since I first learnt to read; and if he wasn't the most patient man that ever was, he never could have stood it so long, I know."

A Quaker Lady, after listening to the extravagant yarns of a tradesman, as long as her patience would allow, said to him: "Friend A., what a pity it is that it is a sin to lie when it is so necessary to thy business."

A Southern gentleman riding a very ordinary looking horse, asked a negro whom he met, how far it was to a neighboring town whither he was going. The negro, looking at the animal under the rider with a grin of contempt, replied, "Wid' dat ar hoss, massa, it's jest fo'teen miles. Wi' a good chunck ob a hoss, seben miles; but if you jist had Massa Jimmy's hoss, gosh! you're dere know."

EDWIN. "You see, dearest, a fellow can't exist without his heart, and, as you happen to have mine, of course I can't exist without you."

New Truimphs of Rogers' Medicines.

Run your eye over them and tell your afflicted neighbour about it.

MAITLAND, August 17, 1865.

MESSRS. ROGERS & Co.:—

Gentlemen—Your medicines have cured my wife of a Cancer of the Breast. It had exisied about nine months before she began with your medicines, grew rapidly, accompanied by darting pains. No doubt it would soon have gone beyond cure; but by a few months application of your medicine, she has got entirely well. Your preparations are invaluable, and without hesitation I recommend them to the afflicted.

Yours truly,

ALEXANDER GILLIS.

WESTMORLAND, N. B., August 28, 1865.

MESSRS ROGERS & Co.:—

Gentlemen—I with much pleasure add my feeble testimony to the great healing powers of your wonderful Medicines. One of my children was sorely afflicted as follows: there first appeared blotches over her body like ringworms; they spread all over her body, limbs, head and all. She continued in this way for three months. She was really a pitiful sight. The smell from the sores was very offensive. The sores at the end of three months all disappeared, and she became very sick, and so low that no person who saw her thought she would live many hours, and the general opinion was that there was no use to try to do anything for her. we heard of your medicines and got some, and applied it. The sores again came out as before; but she soon got well, and is now smart and cheerful. Mrs. L. and I can say of a truth, this is a wonderful medicine.

Yours truly,

ALFRED LAWRISON.

AMHERST Oct. 1st, 1865.

Messrs Rogers & Co.:—

Gentlemen—I have been for some time perfectly satisfied as to the extraordinary virtue of your medicine, but until recently have not had any occasion for the use of them. About three months ago, a member of my family was taken down with the acute rheumatism. I immediately applied the use of your medicine. The result is a complete cure is affected. I am 63 years of age, and have been a great deal in sickness during my life; have seen many cases of acute rheumatism, some of which have resulted in lameness for life, but have never seen so speedy and a hopeful recovery.

With the most anxious desire that the above medicines may have a world-wide circulation,

I am yours respectfully,

AMOS PACE.

MRS. WINSLOW,

An experienced Nurse and Female Physician, presents to the attention of mothers, her

SOOTHING SYRUP,

FOR CHILDREN TEETHING.

which greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing all inflamation—will allay all pain and spasmodic action, and is

SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS

Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and

Relief and Health to your Infants.

We have put up and sold this article for over thirty years, and can say, in confidence and truth of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—never has it failed in a single instance, to effect a cure, when timely used. Never did we know an instance oi dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of highest commendation of its magical effects and medical virtues. We speak in this manner "what we do know," after thirty years' experience, and pledge our reputation for the fulfilment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation is the prescriptions of one of the most experienced and skilful nurses in New England, and has been used with never failing success in thousands of cases. It not only relieves the child from pain but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve GRIPING IN THE BOWELS, AND WIND COLIC, and overcome convulsions, which, if not speedily remedied, end in death. We believe it the best and surest remedy in the world, in all cases of Dysentry and Diarrhœa in Children, whether it arises from teething, or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints—do not let your prejudices, nor the prejudices of others, stand between your suffering child and the relief that will be sure—yes, absolutely sure—to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None Genuine unless the fac-smile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper.

Sold by Druggists throughout the world. Priucipal office, No. 48 Dey Street, N. Y. Price, only 35 Cents per Bottle.

J. B. FITCH'S GOLDEN OINTMENT is used for all complaints, that skin, flesh, bones and muscles are afflicted with; with wonderful success. Try it.
