Il est très mauvais pour les chevaux de les mouiller chaque jour à l'eau froide, ou même de les humecter souvent. Il faut, au contraire, envelopper soigneusement la chevelure dans un bonnet de toile cirée, quand on se met au bain.

Si vous voulez, Mesdames, garder longtemps vos lèvres roses, ne vous asseyez pas trop souvent près du feu et sortez au grand air, librement. Ne les mordez pas, même lorsque votre mari s'oublie à dire que la voisine a le pied mignon ou la taille bien faite: ne passez pas dessus une langue de chatte gourmande, quand vous humez l'arôme d'un mets délicat et n'y appliquez jamais de substances irritantes telles que eau de Cologne ou vinaigre de toilette quelconque.

Toute friction est d'ailleurs très mauvaise pour les lèvres.

Pour réparer les chaussures de caoutchouc trouées pour une cause quelconque, prendre de la gomme de Para, la faire fondre et l'appliquer fondue sur la partie endommagée en quantité juste du besoin. Il va sans dire que la forme doit entièrement remplir la chaussure à réparer. Il faut aussi avoir le soin de bien placer entre la forme et le trou un morceau de bon centil pour isoler complètement la gomme de la forme.

On trouve la gomme de Para chez tous les droguistes.

Il est dans la vie certains jours qui nous paraissent éternels, soit qu'ils ne présentent qu'une succession d'angoisses physiques ou morales, soit qu'ils nous séparent d'un but longtemps désiré et qui pourrait nous échapper encore.

Rien ne prépare deux âmes à l'amitié comme la ressemblance des destinées, surtout quand ces destinées sont malheureuses.

La vie n'appartient pas tout à l'amour. Les habitudes, les circonstances, les souvenirs créent autour de nous, je ne sais quel enlacement que la passion même ne peut détruire. Brié pour un moment il se reformerait et lierre viendrait à bout du chêne.

Donahoe's Magazine

APRIL, 1899.

Donahoe's Magazine for April being the Easter number, contains many features, richly illustrated, relative to the paschal time. The special Easter feature "The Eternal Easter" by Rev. Thomas I. Gasson, S. J., is a beautiful essay on the joys of Heaven and the rewards of the just.

There is the freshness of spring in Herbert M. Sylvester's nature sketch "A Mess O' Greens," and the illustrations help to bring the country very near to nature lovers.

A question of broad interest "Has America a National Literature?" is aptly discussed by Brother Pascal, O. F. M., professor of English Literature in St. Bonaventure's College.

The Rev. Mortimer E. Twomey writes of the work accomplished by His Holiness, Leo XIII, and dwells upon the scholarly attainments of the pontiff. "A Miracle in Stone," by Marie Donegan Walsh, is a finished piece of work painting presenting the cathedral of Orvieto and the works of art it contains. Exterior and interior views and details of the frescoes illustrate the paper.

Rev. D. A. Merrick concludes his interesting study of the career of Owen Roe O'Neill, and Rev. J. J. Kennedy furnishes some notes on Parish School work.

"The Signor Brutti's Guest," by Mary F. Nixon, is a pleasing Easter story of the good St. Anthony succoring the sick and needy.

Some familiar scenes from the subject of a paper by Mary B. O'Sullivan, who writes of incidents happening "On Common Ground."

People in Print contains a number of interesting portraits and biographical sketches.

The other departments are well supplied with instructive and entertaining matter, and the illustrations throughout the number are very beautiful.

A MOTHER'S VALUABLE ASSISTANT

Home Occupations for Little Children By KATHERINE BEEBE.

WHAT Miss Beebe's "First School Year" is to the primary teacher this little volume is intended to be to mothers. Miss Beebe believes that the ceaseless activity of children calls for employment, and "Home Occupations" is full of ways and means for mothers. Enthusiastically endorsed by the press and leading kindergarten.

FROM THE NEW YORK WORLD. "Home Occupations will be welcomed by weary mothers, for it is very clever and full of hints and suggestions they can carry out."

FROM THE PHILADELPHIA PRESS. "Home Occupations should be read by all mothers, and all other people who have the care and training of infant minds."

"One of the remarkable features of the book is the extent to which home materials and home-made contrivances are brought into play. Cedar blocks, sand, clay, boxes, scissors, paste, paper, pencils, beads, garden tools, flowers, fruits, black boards, and nearly everything called into requisition by Miss Beebe's methods, are within easy reach of most of those into whose hands her book will fall."

FROM THE BOOKSELLER. "Home Occupations for Little Children, by Katherine Beebe, a well-known kindergarten, of Evanston, Ill., will be welcomed by many mothers, who will find it full of valuable suggestions to aid in rearing their little ones. Many cross and disagreeable children would be speedily restored to good nature if their mother or nurse knew enough to guide the immature mind to some pleasant occupation without too great interference with its own freedom."

FROM THE KINDERGARTEN MAGAZINE. "Any mother with the problem of restless little people to lead into the paths of happiness and usefulness, can find much assistance in Miss Beebe's little book, and would do well to avail herself of its thoughtful suggestions."

EVERY HOME MUST HAVE A DICTIONARY. The Make-up of this edition is superior, the clear white paper, and strong, heavy, durable binding, being in marked contrast to the dirty, brittle wood-pulp paper and flimsy binding of the cheaper editions heretofore published.

THIS IS NOT THE CHEAP BOOK but a beautifully printed edition on fine paper, with thousands of valuable additions of great value to all students of modern science. The study of this famous American work is a liberal education in itself. It is the grand educator of the masses, now offered to our readers in a sumptuous style in keeping with its great value to the people. We could not offer the cheap flimsy editions.

BUT THE GREAT BOOK CHEAP is what our offer means, and you will marvel at the general excellence of this edition if you will grasp the opportunity to secure a copy.

Our readers will wonder how we can make as low an offer as the following, so we will let the cat out of the bag. The fact is the publishers are overstocked, owing to the general depression of the past year, and we have secured a limited supply at about the cost of printing and binding and can therefore make
