Belfast And Vicinity

Mrs. Angus Brown and little son Gordon, of Dartmouth, N. S., have arrived in Belle River to spend the summer with Mrs. Brown's parents, Capt. F. N. and Mrs. MacDougall.

Capt. Harry Campbell and Mrs. Campbell, accompanied by the latter's sister Mrs. John D. MacDonaid, motored North river on Sunday where they attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Hector Murchison that afternoon.

Mr. Charles MacKenzie, Charlottetown, was a recent visitor to Belfast the guest of his aunts, the Misses Martin of Newtown.

Dr. Angus MacLeod who has been renewing acquaintances in Belfast after an absence of 26 years, is leaving on return to the West this week.

Miss Margaret MacDougall, teacher York School, accompanied by her friend Miss Verna Vessey, were visitors to Belle River on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm M. MacLeod of High Bank were visitors to Belfast on Sunday, the guests of their son, Mr. Bruce MacLeod and Mrs. MacLeod.

Union Commercial College

List of Graduates, Certificate Winners, Prize Winners, Etc.

The Union Commercial College closed for the holidays on Friday morning at 10 o'clock.

Before presenting Diplomas, Certificates and prizes, Prin. Moran reviewed briefly the work of the term. The attendance was exceptionally large and excellent work was done in all departments. He thanked the students for their hearty co-operation and for the splendid order maintained. With-out order and system, poor results are obtained. The results in the Spelling Department are a credit to the students.

At the conclusion of the Principal's remarks, an address was read accompanied by gifts to both teachers. In reply Prin. Moran thanked the students on behalf of Miss Stewart and himself. It was a great consolation to know that the teachers' efforts were appreciated by the large student body.

In conclusion it was announced that College would re-open the first week in September.

MRS. JOHN NOLAN

A well known figure in the community of New Haven passed away on Saturday, May 27th, when John Nolan, an aged resident, died after a few days illness, suffering from a severe stroke of paralysis.

The deceased was a man of quiet and kindly disposition, who lived all his life on his father's homestead in company with his brother James, and other members of the family. He was an honest, hard-working man and excelled especially as a skillful asseman, and many a winter fire was made bright by his labors. His funeral took place from his home in New Haven on Monday, 29th, to St. Anne's Church, Lot 60, where a High Mass of Requiem was celebrated by the Pastor, Rev. Leo Herrell, thence to the cemetery adjoining where interment was made. Rev. Father Herrell officiating. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Septimus Colvill, Kenneth Docherty, Neil McKinnon, Simon Cavanaugh, Gus Tierney and Frank McElroy.

May his soul rest in peace.

ALEXANDRA W. I.
