CHERRY VALLEY SOCIAL.

The concert and social under the auspices of Cherry Valley Lodge, I. O. G. T. was held as previously announced in THE EXAMINER, in Cherry Valley Hall, on the 24th ult. The building was comfortable and the usual good order which is characteristic of our meetings prevailed.

Following is the programme: Chorus—The King of the North, Choir. Recitation—The Dandy Fifth, Mr. F. B. McRae. Solo (encore)—The Laird of Cockpen, Mr. Fred Richards. Dialogue—Uncle Rappy's Ruse, Scene I; Misses Charlotte McLeod, Eva Mutch, Annie Tweedy, Katie Mutch, and Mr. R. Mutch; Dialogue Uncle Rappy's Ruse, Scene II; Messes Katie Mutch, Annie Tweedy, Eva Mutch and Mr. R. E. Mutch; Recitation The Deacon's Courtship, Miss Winnie McLeod; Solo A Home By The Sea, Mr. J. C. Irving; Dialogue—Too much mother-in-law, Messrs. H. M. Young, George Match, A. D. McInnis, R. E. Mutch and H. M. Tweedy. Recitation—The Inventor's Wife, Miss Ada Campbell. Recitation—The ride of Jennie McNeill, Mr. A. J. Irving. Chorus—Auld Lang Syne Choir.

FARMERS' MEETING AT MIDDLETON

On Friday, January 27th, a meeting of the Bedeque Branch of the Farmer's and Dairyman's Association was held in the Middleton Hall. There were two meetings afternoon and evening. The president, Mr. James Carruthers, presided. The topic of the afternoon session was "Which is the more profitable—beef raising or dairying?" An interesting discussion took place and was participated in, among others, by Mr. Rogers and Mr. Stuart Burns, of Freetown, and Messrs Moore and Lea of Craupaud. At the public meeting in the evening which was largely attended, and very enjoyable Mr. John M. Clark Maple Grove Farm, read an able paper on "Exhibitions—are they necessary?" A recitation by Mr. L. U. Fowler's little son which was very well rendered, another by Mr. Edwin Edwards, North Wiltshire, songs by Miss L. Craig, Mr. Bradshaw and others, made this very pleasant evening pass all too quickly. Miss Wright presided at the organ.

MORELL DAIRYING COMPANY

A Good Year's Business—Some Timely Suggestions.

Sir,—The Morell Dairying Company has just completed its work for 1892. The total milk received was 495,357 lbs., and the total cheese manufactured was 48,224 lbs. Lbs. of milk to one lb. cheese, 10.70; average price realized 7.99; no. of patrons, 78; net value to patrons, 52c per 100 lbs. Richard Heenebury, Esq., supplied the largest quantity of milk. The old board of directors was re-appointed and a dividend was declared to stockholders payable March 15, 1893. The prospects for next season are the brightest on record. People are beginning to see that dairy butter must henceforth be sold at a figure below the cost of production. The manufactured article of superior and uniform quality will only suit the future market. Consumers want the very best quality and are willing to pay for it. It is our prime duty to look to quality. A large number of our best patrons are in favor of putting in a butter plant so as to be in a position to make the most possible out of the milk. We think this will be done in the near future. As the factory is entirely free of debt the risk would not be very great.

Are gaining favor rapidly. Business men and travellers carry them in vest pockets, ladies carry them in purses, housekeepers keep them in medicine chests, friends recommend them to friends.

Our opinion is that the several dairying companies should take steps to have a thoroughly competent inspector for the Island, under control of a cheese board which should be formed. The inspector should be free from government control.

Is it not possible to improve the quality of our output? In fact is it not possible that the quality of the Island product may not deteriorate in quality as things are at present. If so, this means in future a great loss to the Province. We now have our market. It is our next duty to suit and hold it. That we do not suit it is perfectly evidenced by the fact that our cheese does not bring the price of our customers. We must not overlook this, and take time by the forelock, diagnose the disease and apply the remedy. In almost all articles of commerce, to-day, the best pays a profit. Superior grades give little or none. Let us aim at the very best. We have the climate and grass of which there are none superior. The fault then must be ours. Let us look to it. There is a business for our children's children, and must not be trifled with. We want more care in handling milk by our patrons. More care in feeding the cows. Milk cans left on stands all day in the heat of summer fall of whey must be stopped short, even at the risk of losing a good patron. Patrons must be instructed how to handle the milk and the directors must insist on these instructions being carried out; also more attention to fitting up the curing rooms of our factories. It seems that the curing, in many instances, is the chief cause of complaint. There are many details which tend to the production of the ideal article, which should be explained at meetings in our public halls.

We do not wish to be understood as fault-finding. Our only desire to see such steps taken as will tend to keep up to the highest point possible the quality of the output of our Provincial dairies. To this end we know of no better way than the forming of a Provincial Cheese Board composed of the best material from each company to deal with this matter. Our interests are mutual.

POWNAI NOTES.

There is a feeling of sadness when an old resident is laid away, but not much less so when an old neighbour sells his property and takes his departure for new scenes and spheres of labour, leaving the old home with its many associations, old and young friends, the scenes of youth and manhood, to give the few remaining years of life amongst strangers. But such is life. These thoughts come to our mind as we learn that Mr. Isaiah Enman has sold his farm to Mr. J. Herman Jones, and intends shortly to remove to St. Catharines, where he has purchased a farm from Mr. McDonald. Mr. Enman, who is now in his 80th year, was a caulker by trade, and his services were eagerly sought after, as his work was always well and faithfully done. The old gentleman is well versed in Bible history, being able to quote passage after passage correctly. He has a very retentive memory, and can describe scenes and events of his early youth, giving dates with minute exactness. He will be greatly missed by the whole community.

Mr. Patrick Henneey, Blacksmith—who is married to a niece of Mr. Enman is also going to St. Catharines. He leaves a vacancy that will not be easily filled. His name as a horse shoer has gone far and wide, the halt, and the lame being greatly relieved, or cured by his skillful shoeing, and we can honestly recommend Mr. Henneey, to any needing his services in the East.

News Items from Craupaud

Mr. John Irving, of Cape Traverse, while visiting some friends at Tryon, last evening, and when getting his horse in readiness to start for home slipped and fell on the ice breaking his leg. It was necessary to drive to Summerside to procure a doctor as the near at hand. Medical men were all away from home. We understand that Mr. Irving is doing nicely to day.

Mr. Robert McVitee, of Westmorland, got badly hurt in the woods a few days ago. While in the act of felling a tree it lodged. Mr. McVitee in trying to dislodge it, fell on a stump sustaining injuries to his back. Dr. Robertson is in attendance, and we hear that Mr. McVitee is much better.

Mr. John McVitee, postmaster of Westmorland cut his hand very badly to-day sawing wood.

Wesley Myers, Esq., of Victoria, is preparing his lime kilns for burning. The idea is to have the lime ready for the farmers to haul before the ice breaks up as the bridge left in fall for Klondike.

EMYVALE NOTES.

Farquharson and Co., having failed to fill up the hollows as they promised, the people were glad when the elements came to the rescue and levelled them up with unbooded snow, this giving them an opportunity to do their hauling and shipping.

La Grippe has been very prevalent in this neighborhood for the past few weeks but we are glad to announce that most of its victims are recovering.

We are leasur'd to report that Mr. and Mrs. John Sturdy, who were ill with pneumonia, have recovered and are able to attend to their work again.

Many of our young men are taking advantages of the good roads and before the dusky shadows of evening fall may be seen going in the direction of Green Bay. Some on returning give vent to Shakespeare's oft experienced lines; "yon grey clouds that fret the sky, are messengers of day." Whilst others of mercantile pursuits, figure on how many revolutions the Mill Wheel makes in the course of a day.

The concert and basket social in the Emvvalle Hall last week, in aid of the new church, was a financial success. There a large attendance from the outside districts,—including many of Charlottetown's prominent business men and fairest belles. Miss Carrie McDonald of Kelley's Cross played the accompaniments, in her usual graceful style. The concert opened with "Manhattan Beach" played by Miss McDonald and assisted on the violin by Mr. Anthony McDonald and Charles Dougherty; it was exceedingly well rendered. The songs of Miss Moore, Mrs. Case and Mr. Berrigan won the well merited applause that to lowed; whilst the recitations of Mr. P. Traisor and Mr. T. A. McLean, judging by the comments of the audience, could hardly be better appreciated.

The sale of baskets came next. The auctioneers, Mr. Horne and Mr. Bradley, were in their happiest mood. The bidding was interesting and spirited at times and cupid affinites made empty purses. During an interval in the sale of baskets, Mr. A. Rogers sang a comic song in his usual humorous way, and was heartily encored. It is regretted that owing to the lateness of the hour, the second part of the programme could not be gone through, which promises to be the best, as in that part a recitation, "One of the Heroes" by one of Charlottetown's most talented young ladies, was eagerly looked forward to but being long after 12 o'clock and rain pouring down the people dispersed to their respective homes, leaving Mr. D. G. McDonald, to whom all credit is due, well pleased with the success of his concert and basket social. The snug sum of $140 was realized.

PINETTE PENCILLINGS.

Your correspondent had the pleasure of receiving a copy of the book entitled, "Prince Edward Island Illustrated" This book is published by THE EXAMINER Publishing Company, and is a credit to our Island home. It should be in every home in P. E. Island and, as a memento, sent to friends abroad. It shows some very fine photographs of Governor Howland, Sir Louis Davies, ex-Premier Peters, and ex-Mayor Dawson, besides the City Councillors and the most public places in Charlottetown. It also gives a most graphic history of the Island, and last but not least it shows striking photographs of St. John's Church and cemetery, Belfast. This book contains 100 pages, and deserves a place on the parlor table.

Captain Malcolm McLeod, of Pinette, has purchased the commodious dwelling house of Mr. Alexander Stewart, (Ponds). It is Mr. McLeod's intention to remove the house to his old site at the bridge. Mr. McPherson, of Orwell, has the contract of hauling.

It is amusing to read in the Guardian of a recent date, of the effusions of some member of the genus homo, who, unfortunately, attempts to be witty. He shows in his notes, which by the way are merely a rehash of the principal items of village gossip, an elegant disregard for one of the important rules of English grammar. It would not be difficult to locate the brilliant genius who penned those ebullitions of a vacuous cranium.

We are in need of a money and postal note order office here. It seems too bad that this has been neglected. We trust that the matter will be taken in hand at once.

Pinette and vicinity were on Monday last saddened when it was learned that Mrs. McRae (Ponds) had joined the great majority. She was in her 85th year. The deceased was universally esteemed by all classes and. Creeds her death will be deeply regretted. Your correspondent extends sympathy in their bereavement.

The curiosity of the young people, especially those interested in matrimony, is aroused to find out who is the prettiest girl in Pinette.

Mr. A. D. Gillis is doing a rushing business in the Riverside grocery. A. D. is courteous to all, and the public appreciate his manner of doing business. He has done a large trade in smelts this winter and has filled large orders for firms abroad.

Mrs. Finlay McDonald, Mrs. Donald McDonald, and Mrs. John Gillis are now in their 85th year still hale and hearty. Messrs MacKinnon, Cantello and McWho have been smelt fishing are meeting with a large demand.

Our school is progressing favorably under efficient management of Mr. James McPherson who has proven himself to be a capable and painstaking teacher. He is preparing some of his pupils for the entrance examination.

Mr. Daniel MacPherson, of Orwell, has been appointed caretaker of the Range Lights at Port Selkirk.

GILLIS.

Lost, Strayed or Stolen.

Sir,—Any information regarding the whereabouts of the officer who takes the claims of the Murray Harbor South fishermen for their fishing bounty will be thankfully received by 27 fishermen at Murray Harbor South. The last heard of him he was at or near Carigan Bridge.
