Green Maple Leaf Centers Proposed Canadian Flag

By WILLIAM STEWART
Canadian Press Staff Writer MONTREAL (CP) - The result of 12 years' leisure-time work, simple eye-catching design for a national flag has been produced by Andre Barbeau, 25-year-old Montrealer.
Barbeau's design displays a forest green maple leaf on a white field with vertical red, white and blue stripes at each side.
Barbeau chose the maple leaf as the central emblem because it was officially adopted in 1860 by the Province of Canada preparing for a visit by the Prince of Wales, later Edward VII.
His design is the outcome of hundreds of sketches done in an estimated 5,000 hours of study. He wished to talk flag to try to arrive at a popular conception of what it should be.
"I tried to see what people who are sincere about a national flag want it to look like and to bring all these ideas together into one design," he says.
In his dozen years' study, Barbeau, assistant manager of the publishing company works on heraldry and has accumulated bundles of documents about the flags of many countries, about discussion of a Canadian flag and views expressed by different Canadians.
This is the symbolism of the design.
The green leaf is the emblem of national unity and its white field represents peace.
Red vertical stripes at each side of the white field represent the British contribution to Canadian life while the adjoining white stripes represent the French contribution.
Blue stripes at each end of the flag represent all other racial groups in Canada as well as the country's maritime east and west boundaries which inspired the motto: A Mari Usque ad Mare (from sea to sea).

Canadian Exporters Object To Hampering Practices

By FORBES RHUDE
Canadian Press Business Editor
SEIGNIOY CLUB, Que. (CP) - Canadian exporters, welcome guests in other countries when they go selling raw or semi-processed materials, but given a cold shoulder when they offer manufactured goods, wish the welcome could be broadened a bit.
That, in brief, seemed to be the theme of the three-day convention of the Canadian Exporters' Association which ended Wednesday.
At this convention, as in most other Canadian business gatherings of recent years, there was the smiling face reflecting general prosperity, and the sad face reflecting individual difficulties.

FACE RESTRICTIONS
Exporters of manufactured goods rarely complain of tariffs—Canada also has tariffs. But they do complain about various forms of restrictions which other countries add to their tariffs; and they complain very loudly about United States customs procedures which, they say, are adapted as the occasion calls, to shut out their goods.
Wednesday the association took the rather extraordinary step of deciding to present the Canadian case direct to the president of the United States and each member of Congress.
They will tell the American administrative and legislative arms that Canada, with 16,000,000 people, buys more from the United States than the United States, with 165, 000,000 people, buys from Canada.
Ivan E. Lenard, of Toronto, retiring president, said:
"Surely American industry does not have to fear foreign competition to such an extent."
PREDICTS RECORD LEVEL
The association statement indicated that, in the association's opinion, Canada would have to reconsider her position as a supplier of raw materials to the United States, and as a buyer of American goods, if the present situation were not ameliorated.
Despite the various problems, however, Canadians can look forward to another prosperous year in 1956. In Mr. Lenard's words:
"If we can take advantage of our opportunities, it should be conceivable that Canadian exports will reach a record high."

ber paying dues. One visitor was present. Minutes of annual and regular meeting was read approved and signed. Auditors gave their report also secretary.
The following officers were elected for coming year: President—Mrs. William Newsome; Vice-Pres-
—Mrs. George Matheson; Secretary—Mrs. James Macintosh; Auditors—Mrs. George Matheson and Mrs. William Newsome; Directors—Mrs. James Cousins, Mrs. William Matheson and Mrs. Emma Mc-Kenna; Red Cross Convener—Mrs. William MacDonald.

TRADE DEAL
MOSCOW (Reuters)—Israel will buy Soviet crude and fuel oil in exchange for citrus fruit next year, the Israeli embassy said here Thursday.

In loving memory of our dear husband and father, Joseph J. Mac-Cormack who passed away Nov. 8, 1954.
The voice is mute and stilled the heart,
That loved us well and true Ah bitter was the trial part From one so good as you.
You are not forgotten Daddy dear Nor will you ever be As long as life and memory last
We will remember thee.
We miss you now, our hearts are sore
As time goes by we miss you more,
Your loving smile, your gentle face,
No one can fill your vacant place.
Lovingly remembered by his wife and children.
In memory of Stanley B. Orr, who passed away November the 8th, 1955.
We have not lost the one we love
We did not say goodbye,
For we'll be meeting once again Beyond some sunless sky.
So we try to smile despite our tears
And raise a grateful heart
To God who plans a home for us, Where loved one never part.
Ever remembered by Father and Mother.

New Members Inducted By Jr. Board of Trade

The regular monthly meeting of the Charlottetown Junior Board of Trade was held at the banquet room of the "Rendezvous" restaurant, on Thursday, Nov. 3, at 6:15 p.m.
President Henry MacWilliam was in the chair. Following dinner, induction of new members was held, this was performed by membership chairman Bob Younker, assisted by Jack Morris. Following are the new members: Walter Wheeler, Edwin MacRae, Allison Mutch, Earl Beaton, Douglas Murray, Ken Caldwell. President Henry greeted the new members and expressed the hope that they would enjoy Junior Board work.
The minutes of the last regular meeting were read and approved.
A letter was read from secretary Hal Bernard submitting his resignation due to pressure of business.
This was accepted with regret. The president called for nominations for the position of secretary and George Scantlebury was unanimously elected to the position.
Jack Morris gave an interesting and detailed report on the fall con-

MAKING LOANS
is part of our everyday business

Lending money for many different purposes is a major function of the Royal Bank, so it is only natural to come to us when you wish to borrow. A loan from the "Royal" usually costs less... sometimes substantially less... than one from other types of lending institutions.

The maximum rate of interest on Personal Loans, for instance, is 6% on the unpaid balance. You do not have to be a depositor to borrow from the Royal Bank. We often make loans to people who have had no previous dealings with us.

Table shows how little it costs to arrange a Personal Loan from the Royal Bank:

WHEN YOU BORROW	FOR	YOU RECEIVE IN CASH	THE LOAN COSTS YOU	EACH MONTH YOU REPAY
$25	6 Months	$ 24.50	$ .50*	$ 4.17
	12 Months	24.21	.79	2.09
$50	6 Months	$ 49.14	$ .86	$ 8.34
	12 Months	48.42	1.58	4.17
	18 Months	47.73	2.27	2.78
$100	6 Months	$ 98.28	$ 1.72	$16.67
	12 Months	96.85	3.15	8.34
	18 Months	95.46	4.54	5.56
	24 Months	94.11	5.89	4.17
$200	6 Months	$196.56	$ 3.44	$33.34
	12 Months	193.70	6.30	16.67
	18 Months	190.93	9.07	11.12
	24 Months	188.23	11.77	8.34

*Monthly payments calculated to nearest cent.

Other types of loans, of particular interest to individuals, are available through the Royal Bank at very reasonable rates:

N.H.A. Mortgage Loans to finance new home construction.
Home Improvement Loans to repair, alter or extend existing homes.
Ask for explanatory booklets at any branch.
