Mr. Charles A. Clark of Dartmouth, N.S., spent the long weekend the guest of his mother, Mrs. Esther Clark, Cambridge Street, Summerside.

Mr. J. J. Clark of Saint John, Travelling Passenger Agent, Canadian Pacific Railway Company is visiting the city on routine business.

Closing Meeting Trinity W. A.
The closing meeting of Trinity United Church Women's Association was held last evening in the social hall with a good representation from all groups. The president, Mrs. A. W. Downe, presided. The devotional period was led by Mrs. Cyrus Pickard and Mrs. Victor Williams of the Princess Ann Group. The resignation of the secretary, Mrs. Herbert Roper, was accepted.

WARM TRIBUTE
Mr. Kyle paid a warm tribute to the highest quality of a n.d it would be difficult to single out any particular number. However, young Patricia Lightizer stole the spotlight with two delightful solos. This young lady possesses a very sweet voice, which combined with pleasing stage manners, ranks her as one of the outstanding artists in this city. Always favorites with a Charlottetown audience are Elmer and Kay Gallant. Their performance last night was individual rather than in their usual duet role. Kay's solo numbers were most pleasing and Elmer's clarinet solos were very well received.

WARM TRIBUTE
A bit of hill-billy style was injected into the program by Pius Blackett and his stringed quartette. These boys included several vocal numbers in their repertoire and brought rounds of applause. An original number by the C.N.R. bowling team told the story in song regarding the recent bowling tournament in which the team lost out to Moncton by six points. The closing number was by the C.N.R. Octette and featured some close harmony in which the tenor section predominated. Accompanist for the evening was Mr. Austin "Ding" Connolly.

WARM TRIBUTE
The death occurred at the Charlottetown Hospital on Saturday, March 19 of Mrs. Theophilus Blanchard at the age of 62 years. Although not enjoying good health for some time, it was thought that medical skill would restore her health but God willed otherwise and the above date called her home to suffer no more.

WARM TRIBUTE
Her death came as a shock to her family and friends. In her passing the community has lost a valued friend and neighbour, as she was ever ready to lend a helping hand in time of need. In addition to serving as faithful organist of St. Augustine's Church for well over twenty years, she was always interested in parochial activities and gave fully of her time and energy for such purposes. However, it is in the home that her loss will be most felt as a devoted wife and mother, she leaves to mourn the following sons and daughters: Allan, Edward, Charlotetown; Raymond and Bernard at home; Cyril, Brantford, Ont.; and Cornelius of Toronto, Ont.; Reginald; Lorraine, Charlottetown; Mrs. Roland Menard, Brantford, P.Q.; Anita, Montreal and Margaret at home. One son, Richard predeceased her twenty years ago. In addition three brothers and two sisters survive.

WARM TRIBUTE
Her funeral was held on Monday, March 21, at St. Augustine's Church, A Solemn Requiem High Mass was celebrated by the pastor, Rev. J. C. Pitre assisted by Rev. Earl Dalton as deacon and Rev. Eric Robin as subdeacon. Her pall bearers were her six sons: Allan, Edward, Cyril, Cornelius, Raymond and Reginald. Interment was in the church cemetery.

WARM TRIBUTE
The death occurred at the Charlottetown Hospital on Saturday, March 19 of Mrs. Theophilus Blanchard at the age of 62 years. Although not enjoying good health for some time, it was thought that medical skill would restore her health but God willed otherwise and the above date called her home to suffer no more.

WARM TRIBUTE
Her death came as a shock to her family and friends. In her passing the community has lost a valued friend and neighbour, as she was ever ready to lend a helping hand in time of need. In addition to serving as faithful organist of St. Augustine's Church for well over twenty years, she was always interested in parochial activities and gave fully of her time and energy for such purposes. However, it is in the home that her loss will be most felt as a devoted wife and mother, she leaves to mourn the following sons and daughters: Allan, Edward, Charlotetown; Raymond and Bernard at home; Cyril, Brantford, Ont.; and Cornelius of Toronto, Ont.; Reginald; Lorraine, Charlottetown; Mrs. Roland Menard, Brantford, P.Q.; Anita, Montreal and Margaret at home. One son, Richard predeceased her twenty years ago. In addition three brothers and two sisters survive.

WARM TRIBUTE
Her funeral was held on Monday, March 21, at St. Augustine's Church, A Solemn Requiem High Mass was celebrated by the pastor, Rev. J. C. Pitre assisted by Rev. Earl Dalton as deacon and Rev. Eric Robin as subdeacon. Her pall bearers were her six sons: Allan, Edward, Cyril, Cornelius, Raymond and Reginald. Interment was in the church cemetery.
