—DOES FOX-RANCHING PAY? —At present prices for pelts a great many ranchers will reply in the negative. Too many ranchers have inferior breeding stock coupled with indifferent ranch sanitation and wrong feeding methods. On the other hand we can point you out ranchers with good stock feeding Purina Chows the right way who are still making money. These ranchers when prices of furs start going up are going to make a lot of money. You can do likewise by improving your breeding stock and feeding Purina fox feeds. L-541-7-28-31.

—BRIDE-TO-BE SHOWERED— On Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Helen McNeil, Summerside, several young ladies of the town gathered to attend a shower given in honour of Miss Margaret McMahon, Summerside. The many lovely gifts were opened by Mrs. Earl MacDonald while Miss Ethel Saint read the accompanying verses. After an enjoyable sing-song at the house, the guests left by car for Fernwood where the rest of the evening was spent in a delightful clam-bake. After the singing of "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows", and the bouncing of the bride and groom, the party broke up.—S.

The Cape Traverse Young People's Union met Tuesday evening, July 18th at the home of Mrs. J. H. Lord with the president in charge. Evelyn Bell conducted the devotional period, opening with the hymn "In Christ There is No East or West". Harold Bell read for the Scripture lesson the 23rd Psalm. Rev. Ralph Barker led in prayer and the hymn "Jesus Shall Reign" was sung. Ten members responded to roll call and several visitors were present. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. It was decided to hold an ice cream social on the church grounds next Tuesday evening, and the following were appointed a committe to take charge: Harold Bell, David Murphy, Eleanor Bell, and Evelyn Bell. Mary Quigley was appointed to take charge of the devotional period next meeting, and Thelma Quigley and Harold Bell were put on the program committee; the lunch committee to consist of Mrs. Helen Bell, Mildred Muttart and Mary Muttart. Eleanor Bell gave her report of the Young People's Conference at Sackville, after which Mr. Barker spoke briefly on Leadership Training. Mrs. Kenneth Muttart put on a contest and Mr. Barker played several piano selections. Lunch was served by the appointed committee, and the meeting closed with the Benediction—The Lord Bless Thee and Keep Thee.

The ice cream social put on by the Cape Traverse Young People's Union on the church grounds Tuesday night was a real success. The evening was warm, the surroundings were pleasant, and the ice cream served was delicious. A large number were in attendance, and the proceeds realized by the Union were gratifying.—D.

WAR HEROINE GIVEN APPOINTMENT

A heroine of the Great War, the Baroness de Serclaes, has been appointed an Auxiliary Officer in the London Volunteer Ambulance Service, a branch of A.R.P. work, which many women are now joining.

For four years the Baroness, English wife of a Belgian peer, lived in front-line trenches, where with Miss Mairi Chisholm she ran an advanced dressing station and an ambulance unit. The two were known as the "Women of Pervyse"

The Military Medal, the highest field decoration which women can receive, was presented to the Baroness for conspicious bravery in saving life under fire.

She has also been appointed station-master for the south-western section of the L.V.A.S., and has been largely instrumental in the social organization of women volunteers. In several sections of the service associations have been formed, thus giving volunteers a definite status as members.

Regular meetings are held with the object of providing practical first aid and instruction in stretcher work and mechanical repairs, as well as opportunities for discussion and social intercourse.

Believed to be more than 22,000,000 years old, a tooth of an unknow sea animal was found in Ragusa, Sicily, by Richard Hunter, who displayed it recently while visiting Johannesburg, South Africa.

MacDonald of the Montague Branch, accomplished for the Legion recognition throughout Canada that it is a service organization in the truest sense of the word. I will quote one paragraph from the principles and policies of its Constitution: 'The Legion shall stand for loyalty to the reigning Sovereign, Canada and the British Empire, for maintenance of the foundation principles of the British Constitution, for the development of a national and united spirit, and for ordered government in Canada, and while striving for peace, good will and friendship among all nations, will advocate the maintenance in and by Canada of adequate and efficient forces, on land, sea and in the air, for the defence of our country and for the discharge of those obligations which rest upon us by virtue of our partnership in the British Empire". Possibly the most beneficial result of the Dominion Convention for those who served in the War, and are now in need, was the amendment to the War Veterans' Allowance Act, which has been so helpful in taking care of those veterans who because of their disabilities are not employable.

Dominion President's Tour

"We were honored last September by a visit from our Dominion President, Colonel Foster, and our General Secretary, Major Bowler, and the attendance of veterans at the meeting in Charlottetown was evidence of the keen interest which is being taken by ex-service men in our activities. Leaving this province Colonel Foster proceeded to the convention of the Nova Scotia Command. At this time we were in the midst of what is now known as the "September Crisis," and Colonel Foster offered the services of our organization to our country in any way that they might be of assistance in the difficulties that confronted Canada, the United Kingdom and the Empire. The approval of this expression of faith and loyalty from Legion organizations in all parts of Canada placed upon us a position of leadership in fostering a greater appreciation from all our citizens of our democratic system of government.

"The general observance of Remembrance Day and the recognition it receives, places it as a day altogether apart from any other statutory holiday, and is something of which we members of the Legion are justly proud because of our part in bringing about the observance of this day. We are grateful to our citizens for the success of our Poppy Campaign in this province and throughout the Dominion, the sale of which is increasing each year.

"The enrollment in the National Veterans' survey throughout Canada was most gratifying to all ex-service men, as well as the veterans of all organizations sponsoring the survey, although the response in this province was not as satisfactory as we would have wished for, I regret to say.

"The enthusiastic welcome accorded Their Majesties, our King and Queen, on their visit to our Dominion will long be remembered by Canadians. I fully realize it would not be possible for me to express the importance of its significance, but what we appreciate most is the special recognition accorded ex-service men on so many occasions by Their Majesties, and their gestures of friendliness to so many of our Comrades will long be remembered by all so honored.

"In closing I would like to express my appreciation to my associates in the Provincial Command for their very fine co-operation with me during my term of office, and feel sure that this spirit will at all times prevail, and with it the success of the Canadian Legion in this Province will be assured."

RESOLUTIONS

The King

Be It Resolved, that this Convention of the Prince Edward Island Command of the Canadian Legion, B.E.S.L. assembled at Summerside desires to again place on record its loyalty and devotion to His Majesty King George VI, our Patron-in-Chief, and to the members of His Family, and to express the hope that His Majesty will be long spared to strive with our Statesmen for the further development, Prosperity and unity of the great Empire over which he has been called to reign.

Further Resolved, that we desire also to place on record our appreciation of the recent Royal Tour of Canada, and rejoice in the belief that it not only has paved the way for a greater unity within the Dominion, but has already brought about a greater degree of understanding between the people of this Dominion and those of the Mother Country and the rest of the Empire.

The Governor-General

That this Convention desires to place on record its appreciation of the interest of His Excellency, Lord Tweedsmuir, Governor-General of Canada, and Grand Patron of the Canadian Legion, in the problems of returned men, and expresses the hope that he and Lady Tweedsmuir will soon find it possible to visit this Province.

The Lieutenant-Governor

That this Convention desires to assure His Honour, Lieutenant-Governor DeBlois, of its continued respect and loyalty to him, as representing His Majesty the King, as well as to assure him of our personal regard and esteem.

Civil Service

That this Convention desires to extend its greetings to the Honourable the leaders of the Government and the Opposition, as well as to the members of the Legislature, and wishes to place on record its thanks for any preferences shown to returned men.

The Dominion President

That this Convention desires to extend its congratulations to Brigadier Foster, D.S.O., V.D., Dominion President, on his well merited promotion, and wishes to place on record its appreciation of his splendid efforts on behalf of returned men and the upbuilding of our organization—and organization which all should understand, stands for loyalty to the reigning Sovereign, Constitutional and Ordered Government, Unity and Development of the Empire and Peace and Goodwill amongst all nations, as well as to look after the interests of all returned men and the widows of those who fell during the Great War.

Ladies Auxiliary

That this Convention desires once again to place on record its appreciation of the splendid work done by the Ladies' Auxiliaries of this Organization, and again urge all Branches which have not an Auxiliary to take steps for the formation of one.

The Legionary

That this Convention wishes to urge upon every Branch in the jurisdiction the advisability and necessity of becoming one hundred per cent subscribers to the splendid publication of our Organization, "The Legionary", as only through the reading of its columns can a member of the Legion learn of the many endeavours and achievements of their organization on behalf of returned men and their dependents.

Peace and Armament

That this Convention deplores the unsettled and distrustful situation still existing in the world, and the resultant bloodshed and suffering, and is still of the opinion that until not only nations but individuals learn to put into effect our Lord's command to love God and their neighbours, can any permanent improvement be brought about.

Further Resolved, that as Peace and goodwill amongst all nations is not only the aim of the British Empire Service League, but also of all affiliated or associated ex-soldier organizations, it should ever be the object of our members not only to pray for those in authority, but to bend every effort towards the better understanding of all men.

And Further Resolved, that until all nations respect and trust one another, it is our considered and unaltered opinion, that the section of the Legion Principles which call for adequate Canadian defence by sea, land and in the air must not only be supported but urged upon the authorities as strongly as possible, so that Canada may be prepared to play its part in the defence of our liberties and the Empire, for which our comrades laid down their lives, and which have been handed down and entrusted to the present generation to pass on to those who follow.

Temperance

Whereas, the Council of the Provincial Command of this Organization previous to the last two Provincial Elections appealed to leaders of both political parties to use their efforts to prevent the Liquor question being made a plank in their political platforms, and this request was complied with.

Therefore Resolved, that since this important matter has been lifted out of party politics, this Convention of the Prnice Edward Island Command of the Canadian Legion B.E.S.L. assembled at Summerside, does with all sincerity appeal to leaders and public alike to consider the question only from the point of view as to what is sensible, and in the best interests of the people, and of the promotion of respect for all law, and appreciation of British freedom; and therefore urges the Government to take early steps to repeal the present Liquor Law, and replace it with a Law founded on what may be found to be the best Government Control Law regulating the sale of liquor in the other Provinces of Canada, or on the Liquor Laws of the Mother Country.

Further Resolved, that we believe education alone, backed by sane and reasonable laws will cause our people to become more law abiding and temperate in the use of liquor.

Employment of Labour

Whereas, the Charlottetown Branch of the Canadian Legion, B.E.S.L., some months ago adopted a resolution urging the Provincial Government to assure that preference be given to unemployed returned men in all projects requiring labour, as is done by the Departments of the Federal Government.

Therefore Resolved, that since we approve of said resolution, which was endorsed by our Provincial Executive, this Convention of the Prince Edward Island Command of The Canadian Legion, B.E.S.L., assembled at Summerside urges that the members of our Provincial Government take early steps to assure that such preference be given to returned men in all contracts employing labour and in all projects carried out under the supervision of the Provincial Public Works Department

Further Resolved, that this Convention urges upon the Provincial Government the necessity for immediate action in the matter, so as to assure those we wish to help receiving early employment on the projects undertaken this season.

That this convention extends thanks to Comrade Bruce Wonnacott, secretary of the local committee of the Veterans Association Commission, for services rendered unemployed returned men.

That Body of Yours

By James W. Burton, M.D.

COLITIS DOES NOT KILL PATIENTS

For years the patient with colitis —slight inflammation and irritability of the large bowel—was considered to have diarrhoea due to certain foods he was eating. Accordingly, 'soft" foods were prescribed together with an enema of oil or water daily or every other day.

Recently it has been learned that these patients are of the nervous and emotional type and, in addition to soft foods, they have been advised to try to acquire calmness of spirit by facing their problems bravely and analyzing and working out the problems instead of being worried, or afraid of it.

In some ways it is unfortunate that the name colitis and its cause —emotional disturbances — have been so freely discussed as the symptoms in some patients are not severe and yet they are afraid that they will waste away and die because of the persistent diarrhoea.

Some very good advice for physicians, patients, and others is given by Walter C. Alvarez, Mayo Clinic, in Ohio State Medical Journal. Dr. Alvarez has done research work on the intestine for many years and has been able to show that while some healthy individuals have two and even three bowel movements daily, there are others who have bowel movements daily, there are others who have bowel movements just two or three times a week and appear to be just as healthy. In regard to colitis or sensitive colon, Dr. Alvarez says:

"The more I see of persons with a sensitive coloncolitis—the less I want to treat the bowel and the more I want to treat the patient. Do not tell the patient she has colitis unless the bowel is ulcerated and inflamed. We should tell these patients with sensitive colons that they will probably always have it, that it will never injure them nor kill them and it is up to them to learn to live with it and avoid the things that make it more irritable"

Dr. Alvarez suggests a "quieting" medicine before a dinner party to prevent the bloating and desire to go to stool.

I believe that once the patient realizes that colitis will not injure or kill her, she will lose her fear of it and losing the fear of colitis should go a long way in curing the ailment because more calmness of spirit will have been obtained.

QUICK-CHANGE BELTS TRANSFORM DRESS

Belts have become more and more elaborate. All sorts of strange and unlikely materials go to the making of them.

A plain black dress can be given whatever character you please by changing the belt.

Do you wish the general effect to be "plain but good"? Then wear a narrow white satin belt embroidered in black silk with your Christian name, and a single string of pearls round your neck.

Do you wear something a little bizarre and unusual? Then wear a wide belt in thick oatmeal linen, faced with black felt, and trimmed with flat scarlet beads and little golden bells.

If you have a discardeed natural coral necklace, sew the coral round a white suede belt, scatter gold beads in between and wear a gold and coral necklace to complete the effect.

A narrow black crepe de chine belt embroidered in gold thread and edged with gold fringe gives a very sumptuous look to your black frock, and a heavy gold necklace will add the final touch of chic.

Use Minard's for bites.

STORMING THE FORT

This is a splendid game for warming you up after your swim in the pool or sea.

Dig a high sand castle, or make a tower with a stick covered with coats, inside a large circle and the attackers outside of it.

The attackers now try to hit the tower with a large, soft beach ball.

By quick inter-passing the game gets fast and exciting—and the players very warm! Defenders try to stop the ball from hitting the castle.

When the castle has been struck three times, teams change over and a new attack is set up. The team to hold the fort for the longer time wins the contest.

Lemon Syrup

Lemon syrup is made by adding two-thirds of a cup of lemon juice to one cup of sugar syrup. Strain this into a bottle and keep it in the refrigerator. Use one part of this syrup to six parts of ice water, and the result will be a delicious drink.

punish you for contempt, but if you repeat this I will find a way to deal with you". And the previous judgment was restored.

This attitude I believe has been taken by every magistrate in appeal courts, (not always so vigorously expressed), including our present Magistrate, when acting individually as appeal judge. I can refer to cases under J.A. MacDonald, K. J. Martin, and our present incumbent. I cannot instance Magistrate Haszard, but believe he too was emphatic in this view of the law. Even in his incumbency I remember a prompt redress when an assessment was made because of business jealousy. Thus so far as appeal judges are concerned there was uniformity of opinion.

I would suggest that the auditors investigate further back to the roots and origin of those changes in the rate books before broadcasting assumptions which have no foundation, in efforts to implicate some selected subjects for irregularity and wrong doing.

Please do not misjudge me, at this stage, as assuming that the auditors acted (as they stated) beyond the very limited facts and material at their disposal.
