Sandy Is Wondering

SANDY Koutax, the great hurler with the Los Angeles Dodgers, must be wondering what you must do to win a ball game.

Sandy has tried three times for win no. 20 but each time he has failed to gather it. The first time he went into lineups, pick-up shut-out ball was around when the extra inning games were over. Dodgers won but Sandy didn't figure in the decision. The next time he was still in the line-up it was a 12-inning game. The batter wasn't over until Roseboro singled home the winner in the 12th but again Koutax wasn't involved. Sunday afternoon against Milwaukee Braves he got out of the Braves for eight innings, gave up a run in the ninth and was lifted in favor of Bob Miller who got the decision when Dodgers squeaked out a 2-1 win.

The Dodgers surely aren't making Sandy's work easy. Here were three well-pitched games, yet Koutax couldn't pick a single decision. The Dodgers' fans were strangely silent the last three times Sandy has toed the mound. Los Angeles may yet need some hits in this pennant race. It is true they were fortunate in those games which Sandy started but their hitting has been horrible of late.

Hitting Will Come?

THE Dodgers are much better hitters than they are showing of late and it's natural for Dodgers' supporters to feel that their days of stalling about the ball in real earnest one of these nights. It has been fortunate for the Alouettes that they have traded for the San Francisco Giants, are playing a poor brand of ball late. If the Giants had been in their shoes, despite the Dodgers' great ability to lose of late, Los Angeles would stand at a nice five and one-half lengths when we wrote this column.

Will it get bigger or smaller or is there a chance that the Dodgers' lead will vanish completely?

THOSE who follow their baseball with a real seriousness can't forget the complete collapse of the Dodgers last September. They are hoping for the same kind of collapse in September 1965. The Dodgers are definitely going to enter the final month of the regular schedule as National League leaders. But everyone is wondering if they can finish the month on top. Of course, the final months of the Dodgers' season and Cardinals will have to do with deciding the winner in the league headed by Warren Giles, Giants and Cardinals. The Dodgers are not about to let anyone else win, but everyone is wondering if they can finish the month on top. ### Good Pitching

PODRES led a 2-1 ball game Saturday and Drysdale was beaten 2-1 Monday. Both Johnny and Don pitched good enough to win the game and they were good enough to get them much run support. However, if the pitchers continue this kind of fine hurling, the odds favor them emerging as the conquerors. You can't be anxious and doing things they shouldn't be doing. Tenion undoubtedly is hurting all three teams right now. They are not anxious and doing things they shouldn't be doing. With no such at stake, it's only natural that the going gets tougher. These ballplayers are human and they feel the effects of pressure the same as anyone else.

Right now, Dodgers are in a much cooler position than the other contenders. If they can hold any part of their present lead, they are in the New York Yankees' hands. The race has ended in that junior circuit, although the Bombers have had a few hits in the last few days. It's there and then only that a lead will count. Can Dodgers hold some of their present margin? That's the question fans are asking these days.

S'ide Raceway Hasine Raceway Finishes fourth

Summerville Raceway goes paces and picking a winner from them is tough business. This is a nine dash venture with one single getting things moving. The race is so close that all are doubles and even very dash seems like first class entertainment. Races five and nine will run with the double features. The double features are: Plymouth R. & C. vs. Jet Lynn Roy, Sky Prince, Simcoe's Abs. Real and Gold of Wally's Mob. That's a fine first of all o'clock shap.

BASEBALL TEAM Finishes fourth

VICTORIA CP—British Columbia's first team to win the interprovincial junior golf championship Tuesday by compiling an aggregate score of 629 strokes to defeat second-place Nova Scotia by 29 strokes at the 18-hole Grand Golf and Country Club. The B.C. team, one of the strongest junior teams in years, had a record of 13 wins and 10 losses in the Canadian championships which started last year. The B.C. team was led by Gordon Leslie of Saint John, N.B., who had a record of 629 strokes in the Canadian championships which started last year.
