By STERLING SLAPPEY
NEWMARKET, England (AP)—London Cry won the 116th Cambridgeshire handicap Wednesday carrying 131 pounds, the heaviest impost for a winner in the history of the race.

The four-year-old colt finished half a length before Falls of Shin in the 1 1/2-mile race to give his trainer, Sir Gordon Richards, a rare double in one of England's biggest betting events.

Richards rode Junior to victory in the 1953 Cambridgeshire. Two years later he retired as the world's leading jockey with winners of 4,870 races. Johnny Longden now has broken the record with more than 5,000 victories.

AGGRESSOR THIRD
Aggressor, the 4-to-1 favorite, finished third, two lengths back of Falls of Shin, who started at 25 to 1.

London Cry was 22 to 1, and this victory saved British bookmakers from possible disaster. The Cambridgeshire and the Cesarewitch, won by the favored Morecombe Oct. 15, are hooked up in the autumn double.

It was estimated that a victory by Aggressor, or Babur, second choice at 7 to 1, would have cost the bookmakers about $5,000,000. Morecombe was the Cesarewitch favorite, and was coupled with Aggressor and Babur in heavy autumn double wagering.

FINAL SWEEPSTAKES
The final Irish hospital sweepstakes of the season also was based on the result of the Cambridgeshire.

Thirty-three horses started and London Cry didn't move his nose in front until the last three-sixteenths of a mile in the race run over the famed "L" shaped Rowley course.

Michael Sobell of England owns London Cry, who might rate a laurel invitation to the $100,000 international. Last fall, Stephonotis won the Cambridgeshire and then finished third in the laurel.

London Cry's time was 1:53 4/5, and he netted a purse of $8,506, just a bit less than Sobell paid for the colt at the 1957 Newmarket December sales.

"I don't want to disagree with Al," said Kerwin Wednesday at his father's office. He said Tuesday that if he returns to the ring it won't be under Lang.

"But I haven't had a good rest for a long time. I had to think of my wife and two young daughters. The doctors know I've got anaemia (a blood condition)."

Where does he (Lang) get this stuff about my mental condition?" Kerwin in 37 fights had 30 wins, a draw and six losses.

Kerwin Plans Good Holiday

OTTAWA (CP)—Ottawa boxer Gale Kerwin reiterated Wednesday he will take a "real good" six-month holiday from the ring and snorted at suggestions by manager Al Lang that he's a mixed-up kid.

The 23-year-old Kerwin, who fought out of Valley Stream, N.Y., is back in Ottawa helping his father sell real estate. After winning the Canadian welterweight crown in September he lost decisively to Frankie Ryff Oct. 3 at Washington in his last bout.

Lang, told Tuesday at Rochester, N.Y., about Kerwin's decision, blamed Percy Kerwin, the boxer's father, and his uncle for interference.

"They mix him up . . . a kid can't fight with a lot on his mind," said Lang. He said the anaemia that Kerwin blames for a string of losses is "baloney."

"I don't want to disagree with Al," said Kerwin Wednesday at his father's office. He said Tuesday that if he returns to the ring it won't be under Lang.

"But I haven't had a good rest for a long time. I had to think of my wife and two young daughters. The doctors know I've got anaemia (a blood condition)."

Sam Gregory Off To Nfld.

Sammy Gregory, Parkdale who performed last season with Indianapolis in International league, left last evening for Grand Falls Newfoundland where he will perform this winter.

Sammy will be playing coach for the Grand Falls seniors but he will also devote much time to that town's minor hockey program. Sammy has played for North Sydney Junior Franklins and Dalhousie Rangers before seeing service with Indianapolis.

This past summer he was one of the standouts on Barry's Lions softball team. For the great part of the season he performed as first base but took over the catching duties when Forbie Kennedy reported to the Wings' training camp.

Sammy stated before leaving that his club intended affiliating with the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association and entering the senior playdowns. Up to this time, Newfoundland teams have had no affiliation with the Canadian hockey body.

Flyers Sign Rev. Costello

TIMMINS (CP)—Timmins Flyers of the Porcupine Mines Hockey League Wednesday announced the signing of Rev. Les Costello, 31-year-old priest and former National Hockey League forward with Toronto Maple Leafs.

Father Costello was with Leafs when they won the Stanley Cup in 1947.

Robin Roberts Voted Comeback Player Of Year

NEW YORK (AP)—Robin Roberts of Philadelphia Phillies, a 22-year loser who battled back to regain his position as one of baseball's leading pitchers Wednesday was voted the National League comeback player of the year for 1958.

Roberts was named on 59 of 98 ballots by members of the Baseball Writers' Association of America in the annual Associated Press poll. Bob Friend of Pittsburgh finished second with 21 votes followed by Bobby Thomson of Chicago, who collected 13.

Roberts, 32-year-old right-hander, won 17 games and lost 14 the past season. His earned run average was 3.27. In 1957, he had a 10-22 record with an ERA of 4.07.

Three of Roberts' 1958 setbacks were by 1-0 scores. He also lost one by 2-1.

Als In Playoff Says Trawick

HAMILTON (CP)—A former Montreal Alouette lineman predicts the Alouettes will make the Big Four Football Union playoffs by defeating Toronto Argonauts at Montreal Nov. 8.

Herb Trawick, who ended a 12-year career in the Big Four last season, told a Hamilton Quarterback Club luncheon Wednesday he feels Argos will win in Toronto Saturday against Als.

"But the Als will win in Montreal, where they are always tough," he added.

Trawick now coaches the Alouette farm team, Montreal Lakeshore Alouette Flyers, which won the Big Four Amateur League title this season.

Coach Jim Trimble of the Hamilton Tiger-Cats said he is going to continue experimenting with new players in the Ticats' final two games against Ottawa Rough Riders.

PRINCE HEADS LIST

LONDON (Reuters)—The title of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales heads the roll of the House of Lords published Wednesday. The nine-year-old prince headed the previous list as Duke of Cornwall. Second and third in the list respectively are his great uncles, the Duke of Gloucester and the Duke of Windsor. The Duke of Edinburgh is 31st.

'Up front is where I need protection' Says Dick Shatto.

The versatile Argonaut backfielder was talking about winter protection for his car. "Prestone" Brand is the only anti-freeze that gives me complete protection up front in the cooling system of my car. Sure it protects against frost, foaming and clogging—but that's not all—not by a long shot," said the Big Four star. "Prestone" Anti-Freeze with magnetic film stops rust and corrosion, too.

Dick has been well drilled in the signals to call when he asks for anti-freeze. Only with "Prestone" Brand Anti-Freeze does he get magnetic film which coats every rubber and metal surface in a car's cooling system. That's why he insists on "Prestone" Anti-Freeze. You do the same—and make sure that's what you get by looking for the distinctive Green Tag which will be attached to your radiator.

SAINT DUNSTAN'S junior varsity and Prince of Wales are keeping the football activity going until Senior Saints play their next home game against St. Thomas on Saturday November 8.

Junior Saints and Welshmen are presently engaged in a best-of-three series for the provincial intermediate title, with the Red and White gang ahead one game to none. That victory came in a rainstorm Tuesday afternoon with Father Ledwell's lads coming from behind to grab the first encounter from the City scholars. They beat the Welshmen earlier this month 13-0, but it was only an exhibition affair and didn't go into the record books.

ONE MORE WIN and Junior Saints will have the intermediate crown. On their showing so far this season, they should wrap it up the next time out. But college teams have the habit of doing the unexpected and Welshmen may just do that. Coach "Mac" MacDonald or his charges are not conceding any title until Saint Dunstan's wins that second game and the P.W.C. lads are going to do their damndest to see to it that the series is not over with another game. Welshmen got their first touchdown since entering the 'new' game. That was a big thing for the city boys and it has convinced them that they have the offensive necessary to chalk up majors. Ralph Russell, who got the T.D., is certain to have his name inscribed in the pages of Prince of Wales athletic history. Ralph is the first Prince of Wales student to score a touchdown for his school. That should rate a place in the history of the old college.

ON THE SAINT DUNSTAN'S side, Ray Hache has become the take-charge guy. In the exhibition tilt, he scored two touchdowns and Tuesday he picked up another pair. Ray is better known to Island sport fans for his hockey ability, having played defence for Saint Dunstan's teams. He is quite the baseball player and saw service in the H and D league with Truro Bearcats.

The Welshmen must put a stop to Hache's scoring feats if they want to prolong this series for the provincial intermediate football crown.

WHEN WE WROTE this column, we didn't know the outcome of the Canadians-Leafs game played Wednesday night in Toronto. So our comments on Les Canadiens have to do with their three games prior to that Toronto appointment.

Jacques Plante is having his troubles keeping the rubber out of the net and that seems logical since his assistant goal keeper, Doug Harvey, is sidelined.

In the three games with Boston Bruins, Detroit Red Wings and Chicago Black Hawks, that little piece of rubber got by Mr. Plante on thirteen occasions. That's quite a few times when you realize he is guarding the twines for the Stanley Cup champions.

WE ARE NOT endeavouring to belittle Plante. In fact, when Boston beat Montreal 5-2 last Saturday night, we thought that Plante was a much overworked gentleman. What we are pointing out, as did our Sports Views friend in the Evening Patriot, that the Canadiens are just another hockey team without that stand-out rearguard Doug Harvey. Doug does just about everything right. There's not a coach in the National Hockey League that will find fault with that statement. Very often you just take his performances as a matter of course, but you never realize how great the guy is until he's out of there for a few games.

Harvey is due back Saturday night when the Canadiens' supporters will give him a great welcome but the fellow who'll really yell at the sight of Doug is Jacques Plante.

Boy, how he misses his buddy.

WHAT AN AWFUL DAY for a football game! That was the comment before and after that P.W.C.-S.D.U. battle Tuesday. We admit it was anything but pleasant, but unpleasant days never halt football action.

Old timers can tell you some really good stories about weather conditions when some rugby games were played. We can recall a few instances ourselves that were anything but 'sunny and warm'.

In the W.L.F.U. playoff last year, Winnipeg and Edmonton ran into snow-storms so severe that the radio commentator could not tell you where the play was taking place. We recall Saint Francis Xavier and Saint Dunstan's playing at the old Abegweit grounds and the game halted while the referee, the late "Toby" Macmillan searched for his whistle that was lost in the snow. Another day at the same site, Fred Kelly, now coaching Acadia Axemen, went over for a try on the west end of the field. Fred had to disturb five ducks, who were swimming in about two feet of water, in order to ground the ball.

Baseball games are postponed for wet grounds, cold weather and the like. But football battles go on regardless of the weather conditions. It's not only a rugged game for the players but a mighty rugged one for the onlookers.

However, players and fans alike love it. So, let it rain or snow, the game will go on just the same.

IT SEEMS A PITY that good performers in any branch of sport hang on long enough to become pathetic figures in the sight of sport fans. Perhaps it's the old story that they need the money, although a great many of them should have a bit of a nest egg upon which to rely.

Recently the former heavyweight champion of the world, Ezzard Charles, was recommended for suspension by the deputy state boxing commissioner in Texas. Charles was knocked out in the sixth round of his fight with the Texas light heavyweight champion, Donnie Fleeman. The crowd boomed when the former champ went down.

The suspension is recommended because "first he withheld information from the doctor, which is detrimental to boxing; and secondly his performance hurt the game in Texas."

Ezzard had suffered a sprained ankle a few days before the fight but told his manager he was able to keep his appointment. We would suggest when they are going after Charles that they take a few minutes out to look into Texas wrestling. That has the worst smell of anything we know.
