Hamilton Ticats Defeat British Columbia Lions

HAMILTON (CP) — Bobby Kuntz, who gave up retirement plans a week before the season opened, went on a three-touchdown splurge Saturday night as Hamilton Tiger - Cats took a rousing 38-21 victory over British Columbia Lions in a Canadian Football League interlocking game.

But the triumph, before a howling mob of 26,652 at Civic Stadium, was engineered on the masterful quarterbacking of Bernie Faloney who played probably his best game of the year. And it was nelped along by two disastrous British Columbia fumbles.

The miscues set up two Tiger-Cat touchdowns in the opening 22 minutes that helped send Ticats into a 20-0 lead. Even with this the Lions were very much alive.

They spurted for two touchdowns in a little more than two minutes in the second quarter to cut Tiger-Cats' lead to 20-14. They yielded another touchdown to Hamilton in the dying seconds of the session, and came back with one of their own early in the third to draw within striking distance. But the Ticats drew away steadily adding another converted touchdown in the third and a field goal and a single in the fourth.

DIVES FOR TOUCHDOWNS

Kuntz, who bore the brunt of the Hamilton ground offensive with newcomer Jim Pace, a late cut from New York Giants of the National League, dived over for his touchdowns from inside the three-yard line. Pace cracked over from the two-yard line for a six-pointer and fleet Garney Henley took a 20-yard pass from Faloney late in the second quarter that put Ticats ahead 27-14.

Dave Viti kicked four converts and a 20-yard placement and Joe Zuger scored the game's final point with about five minutes remaining in the game.

Quarterback Joe Kapp, who played with the little finger of his throwing hand bandaged as result of an injury suffered in the Montreal-B.C. game last Monday night, pitched three touchdown strikes, two to speedy Willie Fleming.

He connected with Fleming for a 106-yard pass - and - run play, the most spectacular offensive manoeuvre of the night, early in the second quarter and then hit with a short pass in the third for a 38-yard pass-and-run play. His other touchdown pass went to Jerry Janes after Lions had moved 81 yards in six plays, also in the second.

Peter Kempf kicked the three converts.

RUSHING STALLED

The Lions, held to a mere 84 yards rushing against Hamilton's 236, suffered injuries to two key players. Halfback Tom Larscheid left the game in the second with an injured right leg and end Paul Seale also went out with a leg injury.

Tiger-Cats, with Faloney superbly mixing his calls that kept the Lions' defensive team off-balance, went into a 7-0 first-quarter lead after Neal Beaumont fumbled a Hamilton kick, recovered by Ticats' Gene Cepetelli.

Their second, at the 15-second mark of the second quarter, was set up when Henley took a B.C. punt and went on a 55-yard gallop to the three after squirting past a flock of would-be Lions' tacklers.

Seven minutes later, Fleming fumbled at the B.C. 42 and Hamilton's Angelo Mosca pounced on the loose Ball. Ticats went from there for the touchdown.

Kuntz and Pace carried the ball a total of 34 times for 160 yards. Pace, who had practised only twice with Ticats before the game, gained 100 yards on 18 carries and Kuntz, a native of Kitchener, Ont., 60 yards on 16 carries.

The Lions couldn't work up on ground offensive against bristling Tiger-Cat tackling and Kapp was forced to go to the air. He completed 11 of 23 attempts for 288 yards against 12 of 23 for 207 yards by Faloney.

Hamilton's margin on the scoreboard was shown by the first - downs statistics. Ticats moved the yardsticks 28 times, the Lions 14.

Calgary Stamps Demolish Basement-Dwelling Argos

By JACK SULLIVAN
Canadian Press Sports Editor

TORONTO (CP) — Calgary Stampeders, with Jim Dillard crashing over for four touchdowns in a temper-saturated game, demolished Toronto Argonauts 50-0 in Canadian Football League action here Sunday.

Five players were banished during the proceedings which saw the 31,214 fans boo the Argos lustily for most of the game.

The Stampeders, under quarterback Eagle Day put on an awesome display of power on the ground and in the air. Their defensive unit crumbled a woeful Toronto offence that was able to pick up only 166 yards—83 in the air and 83 along the ground.

The victory put the Stampeders just one point behind the league-leading British Columbia Lions who were defeated 38-21 by the Tiger-Cats at Hamilton Saturday night.

The Argos, who showed signs of coming to life a week ago when they broke a five-losing streak in a 15-7 triumph here over the Ticats, occupy the Eastern Conference cellar with four points on two victories and six losses. Hamilton leads with eight points, two up on Montreal and Ottawa.

Altogether, the Stamps scored seven touchdowns. Besides Dillard's four, Bobby Taylor got two and Coleman one. Larry Robinson kicked six converts and Tom Furlong two singles—a 52-yarder in the second quarter and a 69-yarder in the third.

Don Luzzi of the Stampeders and Butch Laroue were chased to the sidelines by referee Seymour Wilson after an elbowing performance in the third quarter, and the fireworks erupted on a large scale with two minutes remaining in the game. The benches emptied and players threw punches and blocks when Toronto's Ron Brewer went after the Stamps Lovell Coleman with his fists.

Brewer, Contrad Hitchler and Ed Buchanan of Stampeders were tossed out of the game. All five face automatic $50 fines.

Argonauts moved into Calgary territory for the first time on the third play of the final quarter Sunday.

Later they made it to the Calgary three but couldn't score when the Stampeders smothered passes by Don Fuell, who took over at quarterback late in the game from starter Sandy Stephens.

Indications of a rout came early when Larry Hickman made the first of his three fumbles at the Toronto 30 and Jim Furlong recovered for the westerners. The Stamps immediately proceeded to control the game.

The final reckoning showed they gained 31 first downs against only 10 by Toronto, a total of 498 yards—216 rushing and 282 passing—and day and his successor, Jerry Keeling, connected on 22 of 33 pass attempts. Stephens, Fuell and Dick Shatto, who threw one pass, were able to make only nine completions in 28 attempts.

ARE DEFEATIST

SASKATOON (CP)—Drug addicts can voluntarily get away from their addiction for short periods of time, says Dr. W. Halliday, associate director of the Narcotic Addiction Foundation of British Columbia. But people in general, he says, have a defeatist attitude toward narcotics and tend to feel the lot of the addict is hopeless

Regina Riders Shade Eskimos

By RON MacDONALD

REGINA (CP) Halfback Ray Purdin and quarterback Ron Lancaster ran, passed and gambled for key' yardage to spark a sensational 109-yard last-ditch touchdown drive that gave Saskatchewan Roughriders an 8-7 Western Football Conference victory Saturday night over Edmonton Eskimos.

More than 15,000 fans here rose to their feet time and again during the downfield march by Saskatchewan.

Canadian halfback Dale West caught the touchdown pass from Lancaster that capped the drive and veteran tackle Reggie Whitehouse kicked the convert that provided the winning margin.

Frank Tripucka, former Roughrider quarterback star and head coach who returned to the club earlier in the day from the American Football League, split the signal-calling duties with Lancaster. He moved the Roughriders, but never far enough to get a touchdown.

All Edmonton's points came on kicks by guard Bill Mitchell, leaving Saskatchewan's defensive unit with a five - game streak in which they have not allowed the opposition a touchdown.

Eskimos moved ahead 4-0 in the opening quarter on a single and field goal by Mitchell The second quarter was scoreless and Saskatchewan got the only point in the third on a single by Martin Fabi.

SCORES ON FIRST PLAY

Mitchell shot Edmonton ahead 7-1 on the first play of the final quarter and Roughriders completed their touchdown march with one minute and 35 seconds left to play.

Sasatchewan's touchdown drive started after halfback Gene Wlasiuk ran a punt by Mike Lashuk out from his end zone to the Roughriders' one.

Purdin picked up nine yards on two carries and Lancaster kept the march going on a third down gamble in which he ran for four yards.

Purdin and fullback George Reed gave Saskatchewan another first down at the Saskatchewan 24 then Lancaster hit Purdin twice and halfback-quarterback Bob Ptacek with passes that moved the ball to the Edmonton 33.

A second-down pass to end Jack Gotta left Riders short of a first down but Lancaster again gambled and just made the necessary yard by inches.

Lancaster and Reed carried the ball to the Edmonton seven and two plays later the young quarterback, pursued by would-be Eskimo tacklers, hit West in the end zone for the six-pointer. Whitehouse added the convert.

Saskatchewan for the first time this season demonstrated a balanced offence. They gained 144 yards on 12 completed passed in 25 attempts and added another 122 yards rushing. The Riders had 19 first downs. Eskimos gained 11 first downs on 151 yards rushing and only four yards passing as Amedee clicked on one of nine pass attempts.

Goalie Has Arm Injury

PETERBOROUGH, Ont. (CP) Kjell Svensson, Swedish goaltender trying out with Toronto Maple Leafs of the National Hockey League, may be out for as much as two weeks as the result of an elbow injury suffered Friday.

Svensson's right arm was partially paralyzed when he attempted to stop a shot by Detroit Red Wings' Larry Jeffrey in an exhibition game. Detroit won 6-1. Svensson had taken over from regular goalie Johnny Bower with Detroit ahead 3-0.

Leafs medical officer Dr. Charles MacDougall said Svensson may be sidelined three days unless the nerve was badly bruised, in which case he could be out for as much as two weeks.

The Leafs begin their western tour with a game in Saskatoon Tuesday.

Another Swede, left winger Carl Oeberg, will make the western trip.

Leafs Beat Quebec Aces

QUEBEC (CP) — Toronto Maple Leafs of the National Hockey League easily skated to a 7-4 victory over Quebec Aces of the American Hockey League in an exhibition game Sunday.

The 9,180 fans who turned out for the first game of the season cheered Toronto coach Punch Imlach, who coached the Aces in the old Quebec Professional League.

Eddie Litzenbuerger, Eddie Shack, Frank Mahovlich, George Armstrong, Dave Keon, Bobby Pulford and Kent Douglas shared the Toronto goals, mostly scored on rebound shots.

Leafs led 3-2 after the first period and 6-2 after the second.

Wayne Freitag, Skippy Burchell, Bill Dineen and Cleland Mortson scored for Quebec. Mortson was acquired this year in a trade with Hershey Bears of the AHL.

Braves' Fans Have Offer

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The people of Milwaukee were told bluntly Saturday they could keep the Braves' baseball franchise by paying what it cost the owners — originally $5,500,000.

"If there's so much civic feeling in Milwaukee, they can have the team for what it cost the present ownership," a spokesman for the club said. He declined to be identified.

He listed the amount: $5,500,000.

This was offered as one of the solutions of the problem of whether the Braves should be kept in Milwaukee or permitted to shift to Atlanta, Ga.

The Associated Press learned that the Braves will be moved to Atlanta by the present owners unless government officials in Milwaukee can guarantee a new radio and television contract in excess of $1,000,000.

Lester Brann, executive secretary of the Association of Commerce, said he is still hopeful the Braves will remain.

Atlanta reportedly is luring the Braves with a radio and television network deal, covering 32 states, which would provide the club with a revenue of $1,500,000 annually for the first five years.

Overseas shipping arrivals to Sweden rose 15 per cent in July, 1963 compared with the same period in 1962.

Rangers Top St. Paul Club

BRANDON, Man. (CP)—Veterans Andy Bathgate, Camille Henry and Rod Gilbert each scored twice as New York Rangers of the National Hockey League opened their exhibition campaign with an impressive 10-4 victory over St Paul Rangers of the new Central Pro League.

New York was never headed after taking a 3-0 lead in the first period.

Don McKenney, Phil Goyette, Don Marshall and Jim Neilson added single goals for the NHL club.

Ted Taylor counted twice for St. Paul and Don Johns and Jean Ratelle added singles.

Dodgers Are Blanked; Cards Fall To Reds

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Pittsburgh Pirates blanked Los Angeles Dodgers 4-0 on the three-hit pitching combination of Bob Veale and ElRoy Face Sunday at Los Angeles to keep the Dodgers from clinching the National League pennant.

The Dodgers were assured of at least a first place tie when second place St. Louis Cardinals were beaten 5-2 by Cincinnati Reds.

Now is takes only one Los Angeles win or one St. Louis loss to bring the Dodgers their second championship since they moved from Brooklyn in 1958.

The future looks rosy since the Dodgers open a three-game series today with New York Mets.

Other action in the National League Sunday saw San Francisco Giants romp over the Mets 13-4 and Chicago Cubs coast to a 7-3 win over Milwaukee Braves.

YANKS WIN ANOTHER

In the American League, where the Yankees already have the flag nailed down, it was a 4-3 win for the New York club over Kansas City Athletics. Minnesota downed Boston 6-1, Chicago edged Detroit 3-2 and in two doubleheaders, Baltimore split with Washington, winning 5-3 and losing 4-2, while Cleveland took a pair from Los Angeles Angels, 5-3 and 2-1.

At Los Angeles, Veale held the Dodgers to two singles and allowed only one runner past first base in the first eight innings, but was relieved in the ninth after walking Lee Walls and Maury Wills with one out. Jim Gilliam's bunt single off Face loaded the bases, but the reliever got Tommy Davis and Frank Howard on pop ups, ending the threat and the game.

Singles by Bob Bailey, Dick Schofield and Donn Clendenon got the Pirates a run in the first inning. They scored another in the sixth, when Clendenon singled and eventually came home on a single by Bill Virdon.

Pittsburgh picked up two unearned runs in the ninth on singles by Bailey and Clemente and two Dodger errors.

Dodger loser Johnny Podres allowed six hits and two runs in six innings.

NUXHALL GETS WIN

At Cincinnati Joe Nuxhall went the distance for his 14th victory. He fanned Stan Musial in his first time at bat after ceremonies honoring the veteran outfielder.

The Reds scored three unearned runs in the third.

The Reds salted the game in the eighth on pinch-hitter Frank Robinson's two-run double.

At San Francisco, Willie McCovey hit three consecutive home runs — giving him 43 for the season—to lead the Giants.

The big slugger was hit by a pitch on his next trip and grounded out in his final at bat.

Willie Mays also homered in the Giants' 16-hit attack, for his 37th of the year.

At Chicago, the Cubs scored six runs during the first three innings for their 10th in 15 games against the Braves, clinching the Chicagoans' seasonal series between the clubs for the first time since Milwaukee entered the National League in 1953.

Joe Pepitone's two-run homer in the sixth inning carried the Yankees and youthful left hander Al Downing to their victory over Kansas City.

STAGE RALLY

The American League champions came from behind for a tie with two unearned runs against loser Dave Wickersham in the sixth. Pepitone snapped the tie in the next inning with his 26th homer.

Downing, spaced nine hits, including a homer by Doc Edwards in the seventh.

At Cleveland, John Romano ripped a two-out pinch-single in the bottom of the 11th inning, giving Cleveland its victory in the nightcap.

The only Angel run came on Jim Fregosi's first - inning homer.

Cleveland mounted its winning rally on a pair of walks prior to Romano's clutch single.

The Indians won the opener with Fred Whitfield knocking in a pair of runs and rookie Tommy Agee cracking his first major-league homer.

At Baltimore, Washington scored three runs in the eighth inning and defeated the Orioles in the second game after Baltimore won the opener clinched fourth place.

In the opener, rookie Sam Bowens knocked in three runs for the second game in a row. Robin Roberts, with relief help, won his 14th game of the season and 258th of his career.

Washington's second - game rally off Oriole rookie John Miller gave the Senators the victory. Don Lock singled home one run and John Kennedy knocked in two with a bases-loaded single.

At Boston, Camilo Pascual of Minnesota became the league's fifth 20-game winner and teammate Harmon Killebrew hit his 45th home run in their win over Boston.

Pascual hit the 20-victory circle for the second straight year. Killebrew, moving closer to his second straight league home run title, lashed a pitch by loser Bob Heffner in the seventh inning.

Jimmie Hall and George Banks also homered for the Twins, giving the club 224 home runs for the season, second highest total in major league history. The record is the 240 hit by New York Yankees in 1961.

At Detroit, homers by Floyd Robinson and Ron Hansen providing all the White Sox runs.

1 Knockout Only Seen At Ch'ship

By WALTER KREVENCHUK

EDMONTON (CP)—Hartmut Zimmermann of Toronto chopped Ray Storie of Edmonton to the canvas with a solid right to the head at 55 seconds of the first round to win the light - middleweight crown at the Canadian amateur boxing championships Saturday night.

The 26-year-old Zimmermann stormed from his corner at the bell and slammed Storie into the ropes for a mandatory eight count with a right cross to the head. After the count, he charged in and battered the groggy Alberta boxer with another right that sent him down for the 10-count.

The knockout was the only one in nine title bouts that brought the championships to a close. It was the second for Zimmermann. He knocked out Private Edward Mercier of Camp Valcartier, Que. with a left to the stomach followed by a right to the head at 16 seconds of the third round in a semi-final match Friday night. Mercier had battered the Ontario fighter freely until that point.

Corporal Harvey Reti of Edmonton earned a technical knockout over Johnny Lapadula of Scarborough, Ont., to win the light-welterweight title. Lapadula's handlers threw in the towel at 2:35 of the third round.

Reti, a native of Tata., who won the Canadian army championship this year, wore down Lapadula, national welterweight championship last year, with left jabs and an occasional right.

BURKE DECISIONED

Pte. Ray Herrington, like Reti a member of the 2nd battalion, Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry, won the bantamweight crown with a unanimous decision over Jack Burke of Saint John, N.B.

Burke won his way to the final by outpointing Roger Adolphe of Prince George, B.C.

Herrington, a native of Tisdale, Sask., scored well with a right jab while Burke, Maritime golden gloves champion, was wild with numerous punches.

Billy McGrandle of Edmonton won the flyweight title with a unanimous decision over Walter Henry of Orillia, Ont.

Other championship winners were Ted Billingsley of Edmonton, featherweight; Albert Breau of Montreal, welterweight; L. Cpl. Lawrence Cardinal of Victoria, middleweight; Pet. Earl Pilgrim of Edmonton, light heavyweight; Allan Quirk of Montreal, heavyweight and Buddy Palmer of 100 Mile House, B.C., lightweight.

Pilgrim, a member of the 1st Battalion PPCLI from St. John's, Nfld., used a quick left-right combination to pound out a unanimous decision over Heinz Koppe of Toronto. Koppe tired rapidly and the sting seemed to go out of his punches midway through the second round.

Duke Rodney Is Winner

YONKERS, N.Y. (AP)—Duke Rodney, driven by Bill Haughton, outduelled Su Mac Lad, harness racing's leading money-earner, in the stretch and won the $25,000 Galophone Trot by a neck at Yonkers Raceway Saturday night.

Time for the mile was 2:02.

Duke Rodney, a five-year-old son of Rodney, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Pat di Gernaro of Rochester, N.Y., returned $7.90 in gaining his fourth straight victory. He boosted his 1963 earnings to $132,877 and his lifetime total to $500,700. Su Mac Lad increased his all-time earnings to $707,049.

Porterhouse finished third, a nose behind Su Mac Lad.
