SLAIN BY THE DOONES

BY R. D. BLACKMORE

AUTHOR OF LORNA DOONE

(Continued.) A young man began to lounge about in a manner most provoking, as if I had passed round his mind, altogether, and some of them went to the kitchen for victuals, and grumbled at our fare, by the light of the lantern which they had found upon a shelf.

"Did you leave that brace man to be shot?" I asked, as if that were all my gratitude. "I am not so bad as that," he answered.

"Anthony holding a horn of water." without any anger, for he saw that I was not in earnest. "A right sight of my men, although we were but five in all, the robbers fled, thinking the regiment was there; but it is God's truth that I thought little of anyone's peril compared with mine."

"In horror of what I had so narrowly escaped, I fell upon my knees and thank of the Lord, and then I went softly to the captain's side and said 'I am ashamed to look at thee. Without Anthony Purvis, where should I be? Speak of no John Ridd to me.'"

"For this man whom I had cast forth, with coldness, as he must have thought—although I know better, when he was none—this man (my honored husband now, who hath restored me to my father's place, when Kings had no gratitude or justice) Sir Anthony Purvis, as now he is, had dwelt in a house and lived on scraps, to guard the forsaken orphan, who had won, and shall ever retain, his love."

"Pat—Yis, sor. Sure, an' a wise man is that that always has his afterthoughts first of all."

"Novel Case of the Wheel." Daisy Bell and her lyrical chronicler need no longer feel compelled to go tandem through woe or weep. They may now ride side by side on a three-wheeled bicycle.

"Governor Morton's Base." Governor Morton of New York is probably the shrewdest man of affairs on this continent, and any business would find its way into his hands.

"A Child's Right to Property." With children, as with adults, what they possess ought to be recognized as being absolutely their own. But this is very far from being the case. Sometimes a grown-up person has need of some article belonging to a child, and the rightful owner is so coerced and shamed as to be actually compelled to give up the article.

"Painless Dentistry." CRAPAUD. Dr. J. E. McDonald, Dentist, will be in Charlottetown, P. E. I., on Friday and Saturday, 14th and 15th inst. He will demonstrate his new method of painless dentistry, and will give a full and complete course of instruction to all who desire to follow the use of this method, and who are prepared to try it and judge for themselves.

Timely Warning.

The great success of the chocolate preparations of the house of Walter Baker & Co. (established in 1780) has led to the placing on the market many misleading and unscrupulous imitations of their name, labels, and wrappers.

Shop Closed for Two Months—The Patient takes Dodd's Kidney Pills.

RICHMOND (Ontario) Dec. 9.—A correspondent of Ottawa of a Toronto paper is writing a sensational article on Dodd's Kidney Pills found himself here among ardent friends of this great kidney treatment.

Seeing Mr. McCarty at work in his shop after being closed for two months in expectation of a visit from Bright's Emulsion, that gentleman referred him to the man who advised him to use the Pills. This was Wm. McCord a farmer who had been helpless and bed-ridden for twenty-seven months with what was said to be "Incurable Diabetes." On calling the correspondent found Mr. McCord ploughing in the field. A few boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills had worked the cure. It was a matter of no surprise as they always cure.

He is a great simpleton who imagines that the chief power of wealth is to supply wants. In ninety-nine cases out of a hundred it creates more than it supplies.

Bad Blood Between Them. The ever-slaving farmer's wife, her delicate sister in the city, suffer more than they care to tell. The dark rings round the eyes, headaches, dizziness, palpitation or chronic twinges, betoken a run-down system.

I never listen to calumnies, because, if they are untrue, I run the risk of being deceived; and if they are true, I have no people worth thinking about.—Montesquieu. Mr. C. Donnelly, wholesale liquor dealer, Alliston, Ont., was troubled for years with itching Piles. He was persuaded by Jas. McGarvey, Alliston, livery man, to use Chase's Ointment, which he did, was cured, had no return of them and highly recommends this Ointment as a sovereign cure for Piles.

The Rev. W. J. Dawson, of England, who, as a speaker, is always wise and frequently witty, speaking at a young people's meeting recently on the value of outdoor sports as an outlet for youthful energy, said: "My belief is that most vice is the result of oppressed perspiration. That is a bit of what might be called a nutshell philosophy."

"I now weigh nearly 200 pounds," said a robust, fine looking man the other day; and yet this same man was given up to die of consumption less than two years ago. What cured him? Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil did. He took it when at a low ebb, when his weight was less than 100 pounds. It created new blood for him, and that combined with his will power, raised him up to a life of vigor and health. It cured his cough, his bronchitis, his scrofula, and all lung affections. In big bottles, 50c. and $1, at all drug stores.

It is reported that the assistance of Russia has been asked to quell the rebellion in North China. The Chinese Emperor may find it very much easier to get the Russians in than to get them out. It is said that the Anglo Saxons first got a footing in the British Isles in this way. They have stayed there for five n centuries, and seem likely to stay there for as many more.

Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. Chase's Pills have gained popularity because they are a specific for uric acid condition, prevent Bright's disease, cure Rheumatism and all Catarrhal conditions of the Kidneys and Bladder. They do this because they possess remarkable alterative, tonic and diuretic properties, exerting a wonderfully soothing influence on irritated or inflamed mucous membranes of the kidneys or bladder. One pill a dose. 25 a box. The cheapest medicine in the world.

S. S. Britannic, which has just arrived at New York, brings Lord Salisbury's reply to President Cleveland's message about Venezuela, and the fact was announced in this way. President Cleveland has gone duck shooting, and will not even see the reply for some days to come. Evidently, his intervention in the matter is meant for political purposes, and is not prompted by any great anxiety about the interests of the Venezuelans.

My little daughter, three and a half years old, suffered three years with Rheuma. Her little body was covered with the itching rash, and doctors did no good. For a long time she was in bed, and her skin was so sore that she could not get up. Her skin is clear and not a sign of rash is to be seen. Andrew Aiton, Harland, N. B. Mr. Aiton is one of thousands benefited by this unfailing cure for piles and skin diseases.

The Czarina does not approve of smoking for women, and has made a sensation in Russian circles by requesting her ladies-in-waiting not to come near her while the odor of tobacco is on their clothes. Her Majesty is credited with the observation that a cigarette in a woman's mouth is as bad as an oath in a man's.

ONE GIVES RELIEF. The ever-slaving farmer's wife, her delicate sister in the city, suffer more than they care to tell. The dark rings round the eyes, headaches, dizziness, palpitation or chronic twinges, betoken a run-down system. The blood is poor, and is a bar to enjoyment of life. Scott's Sarsaparilla purifies the blood, strengthens and vitalizes the system, and speedily restores the bloom of health to the cheeks. It cures when all others fail.
