The women of St. Peter's congregation will please meet at Mrs. George Hodgson's, on Thursday next, at 2:30 p. m., when a full attendance is urgently requested.

The steamer Princess of Wales arrived from Pictou this morning at 5 o'clock. Owing to the thick weather, she was compelled to anchor at Point Prim for the night.

The market to-day was as large as any previous to the outbreak of smallpox in the city. This shows that the inhabitants of the surrounding country are rapidly gaining confidence in the city.

An eleven year old lad, named Black, skated through the ice in the river at Newcastle, N. B., on Saturday and was drowned. The body was grappled for and recovered in about two hours.

Up to the end of November the sale of Sydney coal at the mine, Cape Breton, was 92,500 tons against 114,000 for the corresponding period last year. There was a heavy drop in sales during November.

THE Peterboro (Ont.) Times complains that the solitary case of smallpox they had in that town cost the ratepayers $444.43. The items in the bill are use of land, building, well and pump, stove, drugs, attendances, furniture, tent and sundries.

THOMAS ROUTH, a tailor employed at Maxwell & Sons, Halifax, died very suddenly at the Parker House, on Sunday. While eating his dinner, he got up and went out into an adjoining room. His son followed him and asked him what was the matter; but before he could reply he had fallen on the floor dead.

WILLIE WILSON, the 13 year old son of a post office official in Halifax, N. S., ran away from home about two weeks ago, intending to go west and become an Indian fighter. He came to Woodbridge station, near Detroit, on Tuesday night last, half frozen, and said he had concluded not to bother the Indians just now and wanted to be sent home. His father has been notified and promises to come for him.

A VACCINE POINT.—Dr. McKeechic, of London, Ont., got in a fresh supply of vaccine points a few days ago, and some of them happened to be exposed to view on his counter. A farmer from that neighborhood was in at the time and amused himself by using one of the points as a toothpick, pricking his gums in the operation. It "took" in the most approving style, and the man is now in possession of a mouth that is crowding all the other features of his face out of shape.

The tobacco of Martinico was once the favorite with the smoking world, and when old Father Henipen descended the Mississippi about 1690 the Indians were much surprised to see an European with such an excellent sample of their native plant. But the smoke of the "Myrtle Navy" would give but a poor account of the once celebrated Martinico. Their favorite brand is as much superior to it as it was to the raw and un cured leaf which the Indians of that day smoked.

"LITTLE SWEETHEARTS" is the title of a wonderful picture by the great artist, Millais. It is of bewitching beauty; that words fail to describe. It is published by the Family Herald and Weekly Star, Montreal, and is carrying the hearts of the people by storm. It is the work of Provincial Governors, Senators, Members of Parliament, and all classes of people the world over have deluged the publishers with congratulations and compliments. A postal card to the publishers of the Family Herald, Montreal, will get you terms and particulars.

DURING Wednesday night last there was a shower of fish at Cumberland, near Portland, Me. Next morning, for a radius of a mile or so, small fish were found in abundance. The depot at Cumberland was strewn with them and passengers on the train procured handfuls of specimens. Some of them have been brought to Portland and placed in the natural history rooms. The fish are about an inch long, and have the appearance of young smelts. It is supposed that they were taken from the bay in a whirlwind or water spout, the wind being very high that night.

GOING TO THE ETERNAL CITY.—His Grace Archbishop O'Brien will leave Halifax on the S. S. Parisian, which sails on the 2nd of January, for Liverpool, en route for Rome, where he goes to present himself to His Holiness the Pope, for the first time since his consecration as archbishop of this diocese. His Grace spent many years in the Eternal City, where he studied philosophy and theology, and it is four or five years since he was last there. His visit to Rome on this occasion will doubtless be a source of great pleasure to His Grace, and it will certainly be gratifying to His Grace's many friends there to welcome to the Eternal City the youngest archbishop in the world. The archbishop will be accompanied by Rev. Father Ellis, who has for some time past been in indifferent health, and is in much need of such a rest and change as a visit to Europe gives.—Hal. Herald.

THE PUBLIC HEALTH.

DEATH AND CONDITION OF PATIENTS.

Dr. Jenkins last evening made the following report:—

To the Chairman of the Board of Health: Sir,—I have to report the death of Ann Murphy, who died at 4 o'clock this morning.

Mrs. Vaughan and Christy Bell remain much the same.

Mary McTague is showing some symptoms of bronchitis. Her case is critical.

Mrs. Parkman is improving.

Mary Ann Doyle, a child admitted yesterday, has a severe attack.

In the men's ward, John Crockett is still very weak.

James McDonald is progressing. His throat is very bad, but otherwise his symptoms are not unfavorable.

I have, etc., J. T. JENKINS, Health Officer.

Dr. Jenkins at noon to-day made the following report:—

To the Chairman of the Board of Health: Sir,—I have no death to report to-day.

Mary McTague, whom I reported as having bronchitis, has now pneumonia, and her chance of surviving is very slight.

Mrs. Vaughan has also bronchitis, but not so general as Miss McTague.

Christy Bell, though very ill, has no complications at present.

Mrs. Parkman is progressing favorably.

Mary Ann Doyle is doing well.

In the men's ward, John Crockett is very low. He has small abscesses all over his body which create a good deal of irritation, fever and much debility.

James McDonald's case is severe, though at present he has no bad symptoms.

I have, etc., J. T. JENKINS, Health Officer.

PATIENTS IN THE CITY.

Dr. Johnson, Health Officer, to-day made the following report:—

To the Chairman of the Board of Health: Sir,—Four houses have been released from quarantine—all inmates well.

No new cases have occurred since Sunday evening.

Dr. Warburton's report informs you regarding the patients in the city.

Yours, etc., RICHARD JOHNSON, Health Officer.

To Dr. JOHNSON,—

SIR.—The patient in town are doing well to-day. Mrs. McMahon is somewhat better, and I think will recover. Mr. Walsh's case has not developed.

JAMES WARBURTON.

LETTER FROM DR. JENKINS.

SIR.—Every man has a right to his own opinion, and if he thinks he knows anything, to the privilege of giving public expression to it; but I have no sympathy, but on the contrary, a profound contempt for those who write anonymously. They must be either ashamed of their name or of their productions, otherwise they would let the public know who they are and what weight their opinions should carry. As far as I have seen, these writers have displayed, as one might naturally expect, extreme ignorance both as to facts and the deductions to be drawn from them.

I intend in due time, for the satisfaction of the public, to publish a comprehensive report on the smallpox epidemic, from which I think it will be seen that the mortality at the smallpox hospital can be reasonably accounted for, and that under the circumstances it has, though large, not been excessive.

Yours etc., J. T. JENKINS.

Dec. 15, 1885.

RUSTICO CASES.

SIR.—Since my last report Angus McKenzie has taken varioloid; nurse Curran is doing well. The cases are now hopeful and prospects of good recoveries. The family is in three divisions and must be kept that way for some time until the house is fumigated and thoroughly disinfected. The services of a male attendant was secured. Every effort is put forth to confine the disease to this house. It is satisfactory that no more cases have broken out in Mr. Laird's house, New Glasgow. His flag comes down to-morrow.

Yours truly, R. McNEILL, M. D.

Stanley, Dec. 14, '85.

THE GOSPEL ARMY.

SIR.—I would like to know why it is that the Board of Health in their wisdom refuse to allow the Gospel Army to hold their meetings in the upper room, while all the churches are in full blast. Where do they draw the line? Is it because Captain Mallory and his zealous co-workers do not claim Apostolic succession? or what? I am told that both the Mayor and the Health Officer are willing and anxious for the meetings to be resumed. An explanation is in order.

INQUIRER.

PRECAUTIONS AT CORNWALL.

A meeting of the Board of Health for Cornwall and West River, was held in Cornwall Schoolhouse on Monday, Dec. 14th. Health Officer present, Theophilus Crosby, Esq.

A Committee consisting of the following gentlemen, viz: Enoch Drake, George Scott, Angus McDonald and Samuel Frizzle, Esqs., was appointed to assist the officer in the discharge of his duties.

The following resolutions we passed:—

Resolved, That the smallpox has broken out in our midst in the house of David Walsh.

Resolved, That the infected house be quarantined, and Mr. Angus McDonald be appointed to keep watch and supply the family with necessities until such time as a Medical Officer shall declare them free from infection, and that any person found entering said house shall be subject to strict quarantine until pronounced free from danger.

Resolved, That all churches and schools in these districts be closed, and that no public gathering be allowed until further orders from the Board of Health.

Resolved, That the minutes of this meeting be published in the Patriot and Examiner newspapers.

Chas. W. KIBLER, Secretary.

NOTES.

Illustrated papers, etc., wanted at the hospital.

It cost the city $1,375 to maintain watchmen for isolated houses during the past month.

The Rev. Mr. Carruthers, who visited the hospital several times, says it is much more comfortable than he expected to find it.

Items from Rustico.

The people here were for some time in great dread caused by the sudden outbreak of smallpox in the city; but they are now becoming more reconciled. Notwithstanding this, we do not destroy THE EXAMINER. We are but too glad to receive it.

Mr. Dominic Bnoto has received the appointment as Postmaster for Rusticoville—a new Office to be opened at the beginning of the new year. This is a want supplied that has been long felt.

The schooner Four Sisters, owned by Joseph Gallant, has just returned from Newfoundland. She will lay up here for the winter.

Mr. John Snowie shot and captured a fairly large seal on day last week. He has since got sight of another, but was not successful in securing it.

Mr. Benjamin Buntain has just returned home from the neighboring provinces where he disposed of some valuable horses.

We learn that Mr. John Newson has concluded to move the Seaside Hotel some little distance from its present site.

Mr. James L. Smith is now on a visit to Dakota. His return is anxiously awaited, as those who are contemplating going out there this fall would like to hear Mr. Smith speak of that far famed territory in favorable terms.

Of all the absurd songs you ever heard is one just published in Boston, with the astonishing title, "You'll never miss your mother till she's gone." Well, of course not. With all the love and reverence in the world for the mother, how in thunder could you miss her when she is right in the same room, talking to you? Such profanity is enough to weary a wooden Indian.—J. H. Burdette.
