

Gathering of the Clans.

THE weather to day was favorable for the grand Gathering of the Clans. A light shower or two in the afternoon served only to remind the assembled clansmen of the mists of Auld Scotia.

Military Review.

THE city batteries of Artillery, the Engineers, and three companies of Infantry, were inspected and reviewed by General Middleton and Sir John Ross yesterday.

The companies met at the Drill Shed at 2.30 o'clock. After some practice in the movements they were to go through, they marched to the Park headed by the Artillery Brigade Band.

The General expressed himself as very much pleased with the way they had acquitted themselves, especially the Artillery and Engineers, or in other words the right half battalion.

Lawn Tennis.

A match between teams drawn from H. M. S. Bellerophon and Pyraides and the Charlottetown Tennis Club was played yesterday afternoon at Victoria Park.

Table of tennis matches with columns for player names and scores. Includes matches like Pope Stewart vs Cottingham Wright and Palmer Arnaud vs Ulfreville Lloyd.

A Zanzibar despatch says the Germans are doing their utmost to create a disturbance there, and a rising against all Europeans is thought probable.

There has lately been such a glut of herrings that the Scotch fishing smacks are leaving Ardglass for home, herring being so cheap and plentiful that it does not pay to catch them.

The opinion in London, in respect to Mrs. Maybrick is: though the unfortunate woman was tried for murder, she is to be hanged for adultery.

THE vicissitudes of climate are trying to most constitutions, especially to people having impure blood.
