JAY-WOOLRIDGE

A very pretty wedding was solemnized in the United Church Manse, Mt. Stewart, when Rev. W. T. Mercer united in marriage Olga Florrie daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Woolridge, Pisquid East, to Alton Le Roy son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Jay also of Pisquid East.

The bride looked charming in white sheer over taffeta and veil and carried a bouquet of roses. She was attended by her twin sister, Evelyn, who wore a blue sheer gown and carried a bouquet of carnations.

Mr. Guy Jay was groomsmen. After the ceremony the bridal party motored to Charlottetown and other parts of interest in the province returning in the evening to the home of the bride where a delicious supper was served to the immediate families and near neighbors.

Serenaders arrived during the evening, expressing their good wishes to the bride and groom. The following morning they left on a trip to Cambridge, Mass. All join in wishing Mr and Mrs Jay much happiness.

The fishermen are having a wonderful lobster season. They still have two weeks and here hoping that they will have as good an ending as they had beginning.

The farmers had a lovely siege of weather for cropping. There is a good deal of their grain over-ground, and it looks good. The majority of the people have finished their planting, while the odd one is still pegging along.

The electric light poles are up as far as South Lake corner. Two cars of poles arrived by rail to Elmira, and have been unloaded and hauled to the area where the lights are to be installed. According to reports they are not going around the point via Elmira.

The Junior Farmers held their meeting in East Point School on Wednesday night. After the business was discussed of installing a water system in the barns, and how useful it could be, they had a debate, proving that the horse is more useful than the cow. Another meeting is to be held next Wednesday night.

People need not be unable to get to places desired now as there are two daily buses. One leaves at 6.30 in the morning and the other at 2.30 in the afternoon. The both buses leave the terminal at about the same time, via Elmira, North Lake, East Point, South Lake through to Charlottetown. Some change from when the old people used to make the return trip to Souris, St. Peters or even maybe to Charlottetown with a horse and buggy.

Friends of Mrs. Ernest Bambrick will learn with regret that she had the misfortune to fall down the cellar steps of her home last week, injuring her head. She was taken to the hospital in Charlottetown, and later to her home where she will be under doctor's care for some time. She was Josie Lapierre, before her marriage.

The old horse shed at the Bristol United Church that has been falling down by degrees, was torn down some time ago. The long shed had been built in sections at different times during the horse age but today cars replace the horses so the shed is gone. When it is all hauled away it will make quite an improvement to this nicely kept church grounds.
