Here We Are Again!

McLEOD & McKENZIE,

STAR MERCHANT TAILORS,

The Original and Peerless Artists of Our Day.

THE ABOVE HAS BEEN A SETTLED FACT FOR YEARS, and to keep before the public what is so well known to every good dresser in this Province, may seem superfluous. But as a good dinner tends to give a quietus to the disturbing influences within the inner man, so a thorough knowledge of our capabilities will give a quietus to anyone who may have had the good fortune of being dressed by us. The sun rises and sets, and it appears to the ordinary judgment that the sun revolves around the earth instead of the earth revolving around the sun; so we, through the immense strides we have taken in our art, would appear to the uneducated to be moving around our many friends, instead of they moving around us; like the sun imparts its warm rays to revive drooping nature, so we are the benefactors of our people, by aiming high and attaining to a STYLE and FINISH in our Garments, which cannot but commend us as the MERCHANT TAILORING PHILANTHROPISTS of our day.

Are you anxious to test the foregoing? Come in, then, and see our line of Goods, which are superior, in every sense of the word, and we will fit you out with a Suit which will doubtless draw the loving remark from your best girl that she has "the best dressed young man in town." Call early, if you must have it before 1st July.

CONFIRMATION OF RANK.—2nd Lieutenant William Hunter, R.S.L., No. 7 Company, 82nd Battalion, has been confirmed in his rank, from 31st March, 1889.

TRAGEDY.—The mammoth tea at Tracadio will be the attraction for the 10th July next. Make your arrangements as to be able to be present and take part in the festivities.

The value of a remedy should be estimated by its curative properties. According to this standard, Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best and most economical blood medicine in the market, because the most pure and concentrated. Price $1. Worth $5 a bottle.

ANOTHER VICTIM.—A man named Maurice O'Brien was arrested in Montreal for drunkenness, on Thursday night of last week. He paid his fine, and on Friday night was again arrested for intoxication. Being penniless, he was sent to jail on Saturday, and died there.

BIG BANK ROBBERY.—The Bank of Forest City, Mo., about forty miles from St. Louis, was robbed on Tuesday afternoon last. President Webber and Cashier Hunt were held up by masked men with revolvers. The cashier was forced to open the safe. The robbers escaped with $45,000.

WANT BETTER PROTECTION.—The Troop Guardian says: "The prevalence of vandalism, mischief, unqualified scoundrelism which has been exhibited during the present year, should suggest something more than ordinary vigilance on the part of the citizens. Just think of a town the size of Truro, protected by one policeman."

HIS HEAD TURNED.—North Easton, Mass., advises that Joseph Dow, a lad of 15, a scholar in the Eastern high school, has suddenly left town, and is supposed to be on his way to the wild west to fight Indians, taking with him a 38-caliber English bulldog revolver and a large sum of money, which he had drawn out of the bank. In his room were found about 25 dime novels.

WHAT KILRAIN IS DOING.—The latest news from London is to the effect that Jake Kilrain, the prize-fighter, who is to meet Sullivan in July, has followed the example of the immortal John L., and has developed a practically unquenchable love for the tawny juice of the grape. He has been playing the English races heavily, and his pecuniary condition is quite as bad as his physical.

MORE OLD PEOPLE.—The Margaretsville correspondent of the Bridgetown, N. S. Monitor says there is a Mrs. Rafus living about three miles from Margaretsville at the advanced age of 103 years. Also that a lady resides in Margaretsville who age is 84 years, while the united ages of her three brothers, who are all in fair health, foot up a total of 246 years, giving an average of 84 years for the four.

AN ESTABLISHED INDUSTRY.—Steel ship-building is one of the established industries of the Dominion, thanks to the enterprise of the Canadian Pacific. Their new steamship, the Manitoba, launched the other day at Owen Sound, is pronounced a beauty. She is 305 feet in length, has a capacity for carrying about 75,000 bushels of grain and accommodation for 400 passengers. She will commence running between Owen Sound and Port Arthur in about six weeks.

AN EPIDEMIC OF SUICIDE.—The list of suicides in Chicago sometimes equals five a day. The Tribune of that city says: "Within the last three months three clergymen, three postmasters, six physicians, twelve well-to-do merchants, seven office-holders, three lawyers, three bankers, four railroad officials, two artists, three mayors, one journalist, one army officer and two capitalists have, for various reasons, voluntarily shuffled off this mortal coil."

WHAT IT FEELS LIKE.—A man in Elmira, N. Y., who lately experienced the pleasure of being nearly hanged, states that the sensation was not at all a painful one. Here is what he says: "I could hear distant music, and a wonderful light flashed through the scene that made the whole place the most beautiful I had ever seen. I felt awfully happy, and when I recovered my senses my first thoughts were of resentment to the rude persons who took me away from my beautiful vision." The experience of any of the persons executed by electricity under the New York law has not yet been told—nor is it likely to be.

FOR BOSTON.—The steamer Carroll left this port for Boston last evening at six o'clock. Her cargo was made up of eggs and potatoes. She carried the following passengers: J. Murray, Flora White, M. A. Doyle, Mrs. Moore, Kate Connolly, Miss B. Connolly, Miss Higgins, Mrs. B. McLeod, R. Laird, Miss Pearson, James Farquhar, Jos. Blackett, H. Wood, R. Halfpenny, J. J. Gregory, D. H. Brown, Miss McLeod, J. A. McLeod, Miss Carey, Miss McDonnell, Mrs. S. R. McLean, A. Munro, Jno. McQueen, Mr. Hickey.

WHICH WAS RIGHT?—The Boston Courier says: At the late election on the prohibitory amendment a Chelsea man on going to the polls was confronted by a lady who said to him: "Young man, are you married?" "Yes, madam." "Have you a family?" "Yes, madam." "Then take this Yes ballot and cast it, and you will find it all the better for your family and your home." "Madam," said the young man, "are you married?" "Yes, sir." "Have you a family?" "Yes, sir." "Then give those ballots to some man and go home and attend to your family, and it will be all the better for everybody."

Mrs. Mary Nolan, a native of Ireland, has just died at Glen Cove, L. I., aged 104 years and 9 months.

The Grit Paradise.

A CYCLONE DOES MUCH DAMAGE TO PROPERTY IN KANSAS.

A Hutchinson, Kansas, despatch of the 8th says:—The wind storm which prevailed over Kansas for three days culminated in a destructive cyclone in the eastern part of Stafford county on Monday night. The district visited was but sparsely settled. Had it been otherwise the loss of life and property would have been something terrible. As it was, scarcely a vestige of farm improvement is remaining. Houses and barns were demolished, trees torn up by the roots and in many places growing crops were literally blown out of the ground. The air was filled with dust and the sky was thick with black clouds and deep toned thunder and frightful flashes of lightning. The funnel shaped cloud came dipping its remorseless tail to earth and obliterating whatever obstructions lay in its pathway, drowning in its roar the peals of thunder and blinding by its darkness the forked flashes of lightning. Men and women who witnessed the oncoming tornado were paralyzed by its awful terrors, while horses and cattle seemed to fully realize their impending doom. The path of the storm lay through Stafford county, extending through the southwest to northeast and slightly east of the centre of the county. The farmhouse of E. Slade was swept away and hardly a splinter of it left. The family were considerably bruised, but none of them have died. The house and barn of A. Guinness are gone. Guinness was badly injured. Mrs. A. Potter had her house and stable blown away, but the family escaped uninjured. The house of Mrs. Lindsay was torn into pieces and Mrs. Lindsay probably fatally injured. George Deves' house was demolished and his little girl fatally hurt. S. S. Crawford's residence was blown away and his son William killed. J. L. Love's house is a thing of the past. His wife was blown fifty feet north of the house into a wagon to which she clung, and it carried her 100 yards farther. She was fatally injured.

Parnell Scores a Point.

Parnell's examination was finished before the special commission on Wednesday. He testified that the reception committee in America comprised the leading merchants of New York, representative citizens and ministers of religion. In his speeches in New York, witness declared that not a farthing contributed to the Irish cause would go towards organizing rebellion in Ireland. Attorney-General Webster, witness said, quoted from five of sixty speeches made in the United States, ignoring the general tenor of the speeches, so as to misrepresent his words. In no sense could the American receptions be identified with the proceedings of the physical force party. Witness firmly believed that none of his colleagues since joining the Irish parliamentary party had anything to do with Fenians. Here Parnell scored, by remarking that the Tories were more certainly associated with the movement, for instance, when they co-operated with the Parnellites to obstruct the criminal code bill to the death.

Archbishop Walsh took the stand. He testified that he came to the conclusion before 1879 of the need of defensive land organization. He said that in the course of his visits through his diocese he had abundant means of knowing the league denounced outrages. Many priests had joined the league with his full approval.

News Notes.

Severe distress appears among the coal miners in Pennsylvania.
The tranquility of the public mind is again disturbed by Professor Wiggins, of Ottawa, who announces that "we are to have a hot, dry summer, and what little rain we will get will come from a northerly point."
Rev. Wm. Frizzle's overture recommending certain modifications in the confession of faith, has been discussed in the Toronto Presbytery and thrown out by 14 to 9.
Rev. Principal Grant was nominated by the presbytery for the moderatorship of the general assembly of the Presbyterian church.

A special cable says Howard Vincent's motion in favor of the commercial union of the British Empire is not likely to reach a discussion this session, and that there seems to be a feeling among the friends of imperial federation that public opinion is not ripe for such a proposal and that a premature debate would likely injure the general movement.

Personal.

The Czar, it is reported, will be crowned King of Poland.
The salary of the Mayor of Toronto for the year has been fixed at $4,000.
Chief of Police McKimmon, of Hamilton, Ont., has had $400 tacked on to his salary, which is now $2,000 per annum.
John Bright, as is well known, was a most skilful and enthusiastic fisherman. He was extremely proud of the first salmon which he captured. "It was," he said, "the first I ever saw alive and the first I ever killed. If I had been near Manchester I would have had it stuffed and placed in my dining room." It is recorded that on one occasion he struck a salmon on Saturday and did not bring it to land before the people were going to church on Sunday.
Lord Walter Campbell, who died the other day while on a visit to South Africa, resided for some years on this continent. Ten years ago he went to New York and entered the office of the American agents of a Liverpool firm in the humble capacity of clerk. He put in three years at that and was noted for his activity and assiduity. The fact that he was a Duke's son and a scion of an ancient family did not prejudice New York society against him, and he received more attention, probably than the ordinary commoner who goes to the United States with the idea that democracy will open its arms to receive him.

An Idle Word.

Only an idle word!
But it grieved a tender heart;
It passed in a breath, but it left behind
A bitter, nameless smart.
Only an idle word!
But it added a burden more
To a soul, whose heavy weight of woe
Was heavy enough before.
Only an idle word!
Forgotten as soon as said;
But 'twill rattle deep in some human heart,
Until that heart is dead.
Only an idle word!
Beware that ye speak it not;
Lest always, for one, might its echo live,
And its sting be unforgot.

Renounced the World.

A YOUNG LADY MILLIONAIRE GIVES UP THE PLEASURES OF LIFE AND ENTERS A CONVENT.
According to recent Philadelphia advices Miss Kate Drexel, the second daughter of the late Francis A. Drexel, who left $6,000,000 to each of his three daughters, has practically renounced the world. The young lady, a few days ago, entered as a postulate of the Order of the Sisters of Mercy, in the Mother House of the Order, at Pittsburg. Miss Drexel has meditated this step for some time. She is well known as the most attractive of the three sisters, and Miss Drexel attended mass at St. John's Roman Catholic Church Sunday morning, and it was there she elected to part from her intimate friends. After finishing her devotions she kissed all her relatives, and accompanied by two maids was driven to the depot where she took the train for Pittsburg. She arrived at the convent on Monday night and entered formally on her new life there.

The Job Was Open.

One cold day during the war, a fugitive slave was standing before a fire in Washington warning himself. "Where did you come from, uncle?" asked a pro-slavery bystander. "From Culpepper, sah." "Leave your master?" "Yes, sah." "Was he bad to you?" "No, sah; very good, kind master, sah." "Gave you all you wanted to eat and wear, did he?" "Yes, sah, never wanted for much of anything, sah." "Well, don't you think you'd be much better off with him as a slave than grubbing around Washington for yourself?" "Well, sah, the job up dah is open for any one dat wants it," responded the negro calmly, and in the laugh that went up the admirer of slavery disappeared.—Chicago Mail.

Last Use of Lemons.

"If you ever use lemons," remarked one housewife to a lady friend, "and have a portion of one left over, be sure you do not throw it away."
"I am never without them in the house, as I always use them for flavoring; but of what use are the pieces?"
"Just this. The next time you think you have done with a lemon, just dip it in salt and rub your copper kettle and stew-pot with it. You will be surprised to find what a brilliant surface you will obtain if you rub the article instantly with a dry, soft cloth. You can polish all brass work by the same means, every stain disappearing as if by magic. A mouldy lemon put into a dirty saucepan half full of water and boiled for half an hour cleanses the utensil amazingly and removes any odor such as fish or onions. Try it and see if I am not right."

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles!

SYMPTOMS.—Moisture; intense itching and stinging; moist at night; worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and swelling, heals ulcerations, and in most cases remove the tumors. All druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia. oct19 6m dw

At Taunton, Mass., April 30, by the Rev. J. K. Weson, Benj. H. Smith, of Taunton, to Hannah, eldest daughter of Wm. F. Fraser, Esq., of Lynwood, Lot 31, P. E. I.

DIED.

After a lingering illness, Oliver J. Stewart died at his residence, Red Point, Lot 46, April 26, 1889, aged 37 years. Bro. Stewart was baptized by Dr. John Knox, when quite young, and henceforth lived and died a member of the Church of Christ, at South Lake. On the 29th January, 1885, he was married to Miss Lillie Dale, daughter of Wm. Macdonald, Esq., West River, who, with her dear little girl, his aged mother, brothers, sister and a large circle of friends, mourn the loss of one whom to know was to love.
At Grand River, on Thursday, April 25th of pneumonia, Daniel Francis, son of Thor. Welsh, aged 23 years, deservingly regretted by all who knew him. May his soul rest in peace. (Herald please copy.)
At Scotchfort, on the 28th ult., of inflammation of the lungs, Agnes Ann, eldest daughter of Michael and Mary Ann Steel, aged 8 years.
At Freetown, on the 27th ult., John Cairns, in his 71st year.
