TORONTO

TORONTO (CP) — The stock market fell lower Monday during the heaviest turnover of shares since Nov. 9.

Base metals took a beating and fell more than 1¼ points on index. Golds were down a little more than one-half point and western oils fell a few decimal points.

Mines, with the exception of lower-priced issues such as Starratt, Can Erin and New Mylamaque, were relatively quiet. Senior uraniums all lost fractions. Most issues, with losses well ahead of gains, moved in a narrow range.

Western oils entered their second week of slow and dull trading.

Index changes: golds down .57 at 86.45; base metals off 1.39 at 16.43; and western oils off .15 at 99.59.
