

New York Wins On Penalty Shot

By THE CANADIAN PRESS
 One of those hockey rarities, a penalty shot, helped New York Rangers to a 3-2 victory over Montreal Canadiens right in Les Canadiens home rink Saturday night.

Little Camille Henry scored the first of the National Hockey League season, at 6:12 of the final period.

Ranger's win, before 14,712—largest crowd of the season in Montreal—gave them a firmer hold on second place behind Habs and Toronto Saturday night.

Montreal's Dick Puff pumped home two goals to lead his club in an uphill struggle to a 3-3 deadlock with Boston Bruins.

The Saturday afternoon televised game in Chicago was a 4-3 decision for the Black Hawks over Detroit Red Wings.

TIRELESS PACE
 Both Montreal and New York played a tireless pace Saturday night, with defenceman Lou Fontinato giving Rangers a 1-0 lead at the end of the first period.

Montreal's Andre Pronovost and Jean Beliveau scored in the second period to push the Habs ahead 2-1.

Henry tied it with his penalty shot, and Guy Gendron scored the winner at 11:28 when goalie Jacques Plante appeared to have lost sight of a rebound.

The deadlock in Toronto was acceptable to the Leafs, but they badly needed a victory to enhance their chances of catching a Stanley Cup playoff berth.

The fifth-place Leafs yielded a 2-0 lead to the Bruins in the first period on goals by Gerry Toppazini and Norm Johnson. Leafs got one back off the stick of Marc Reaume, but Fleming Mackell made it 3-1 for the Bruins. Came then Duff's first goal, at 2:11 of the second period.

He tried the game at 8:58 of the windup period while Bruins' second period.

He tied the game at 8:58 of
