Halifax Sailor Scores 28 Sec. Knockout To Win Amateur Light Heavy Ch'ship

REGINA, (CP)—Bob Hesson, with power in each fist, produced one of the fastest wins in amateur boxing Saturday night when he stopped Al Sparks of Winnipeg, in 28 seconds of the first round to win the Canadian light heavyweight title in the Dominion amateur boxing championships held here.

The Royal Canadian Navy fighter from Halifax drove Sparks into his own corner and pounded him to the canvas. Sparks regained his feet before the full count, but was badly dazed and referee Jim Coughlin stopped the fight.

Another boxing title went to the Maritimes when Ray Shanks of Halifax, who fought two bouts Saturday night, captured the lightweight championship. He decisioned John Houle of Sudbury, and won the same way from Ed Smith of Montreal.

Eight other champions were declared, one without entering the ring.

WINS TITLE

A thin little guy who hasn't touched a razor to his fuzzy cheeks became a Canadian champion.

Fifteen-year-old Ron Paulsen of Edmonton captured the bantamweight title in the Dominion amateur boxing championships here, outpointing high-favored Lloyd Dupas of Vancouver in a three-round bout.

Paulsen had Dupas hanging on in the second round and carried the fight throughout. Paulsen, in taking the title, claimed his 73rd consecutive victory.

Keith Morrow of Regina won the flyweight crown without a battle. No one else showed up for the division.

REGAINS CROWN

Wilf Greaves of Edmonton, Canadian and British Empire light-middleweight champion, knocked out Willie Barboie of Toronto at 28 seconds of the third round to keep his title.

Sonny Forbes of Toronto lost his welterweight title Friday night in preliminary bouts.

New welterweight king is Norm Jorgenson, Vancouver. He decisioned Forbes and defeated Paul Bailey, Manitoba welter champion, in the final.

Wally Gordon of Montreal took an upset victory over Trent Ketcheson, Esquimalt, B.C., to win the middleweight title. Gordon scored repeatedly with good lefts and tied up the more powerful Ketcheson in the infighting.

KNOCKOUT BLOW

George Chuvallo, Toronto, won the heavyweight title by knocking out Peter Piper of Winnipeg at 1:18 of the second round. Chuvallo caught Piper with a right and left which drove Piper through the ropes for the 10-count.

Two other fighters had to box two bouts Saturday night. Bailey of Winnipeg, and Chuck Gilhooley, Melfort, Sask.

Jim Walters, Vancouver, defeated Gilhooley for the light welterweight title. Gilhooley was matched earlier with Al McGunigal, also of Melfort, in a crowd-pleasing match with plenty of toe-to-toe slugging.

Hugh Meikle, Vancouver, dropped Paul Kenny of Barrie, Ont., twice for compulsory eight-counts in the second round in winning the featherweight title.

City Athlete Impressive In U.S. College Baseball

Don "Duck" MacLeod, Charlottetown junior baseball star who is attending Boston University, is getting along quite well in American College baseball, it has been learned here.

Randy Edwards, in a recent letter to Earl Nicholson, tells of Don's fine pitching performance on Saturday, April 30 against Holy Cross.

The Charlottetown youngster tossed a three-hitter, struckout ten and got a hit himself. Against Holy Cross this was a very creditable showing for Holy Cross is considered one of the top College baseball clubs in the New England area.

The baseball coaches at Boston U are quite impressed with MacLeod's ability and feel that he has a good future in the game. Always a good student Don is also doing very well in the scholastic department.

Newcastle United Wins Football Cup

LONDON (CP)—Underdog Newcastle United defeated injury-short Manchester City 3-1 Saturday to win the Football Association Cup for the third time in five years.

Newcastle, which had to win four replays of tie games on its way to the final before 100,000 fans at Wembley Stadium, came through with two goals in the second half after Manchester had tied the score 1-1 in the first half.

It was the sixth cup victory for Newcastle, matching the record held by Blackburn Rovers and Aston Villa.

The Queen, Duke of Edinburgh and Princess Margaret turned out on the sunny afternoon to watch the final. Immediately after the game the Queen presented the coveted trophy to Newcastle captain Jimmy Scoular.

Boxer Archie Moore Arrested

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Light heavyweight champion Archie Moore was arrested Saturday on a charge of non-support of his son, Archie Moore Jr., a child by his former wife.

Moore, who is scheduled to defend his title against Bobo Olson, middleweight champ, in New York's Polo Grounds June 22, was booked at county jail on a complaint signed by his ex-wife, Elizabeth Smith. He was released after posting $500 bond pending a hearing in municipal court Wednesday.

California-bred Swaps Winner Of Kentucky Derby

By John Chandler

LOUISVILLE, Ky., (AP) — Swaps, a chestnut speedball owned by a former Arizonta cowpuncher, fought off the challenge of favored Nashua to win the 81st running of the Kenturcy Derby at Churchill Downs Saturday.

The second California-bred horse to capture the classic for three-year-olds, Swaps took the lead soon after the start of the 1¼-mile run and held on in a stretch dash to cross the finish line 1½ lengths ahead of Nashua.

The winner, ridden by champion jockey Willie Shoemaker, earned $108,400 of the Derby record $152,500 for Rex Eilsworth, California's leading thoroughbred owner.

Nashua, from the Belair Stud of William Woodward Jr. of New York and ridden by the renowned Eddie Arcaro, came through with his usual strong finish but didn't have enough to overtake the speedy Swaps.

Mrs. John W. Galbreath's well-regarded Summer Tan finished third, 6½ lengths behind Nashua. Four more lengths back was Racing Fool, from the Cain Hoy Stable.

CLOSE TO RECORD

The clockers caught Swaps, son of the imported Khaled out of Iron Reward, in a flashy two minutes, 1⅘ seconds, only two fifths of a second slower than the track and Derby record set by Whirlaway in 1941.

The crowd of 100,000, in holiday mood, kept one eye on the weather and the other on the tote board. Swaps went off second choice and paid $7.60, $3.40 and $2.60. Backers of Nashua—the 1954 champion two-year-old who hadn't been defeated this year in four starts—groaned.

Nashua had been made the 6-to-5 favorite, and his price was $3 and $2.40. Summer Tan, off at 9-to-2, paid $3.

Ten three-year-olds started in the smallest Derby field since Citation zeat five rivals in 1948. But there was no contest for the others as Swaps and Nashua fought it out for supremacy in the final quarter mile.

Jean's Joe, from the Murcain Stable, came in fifth, followed by Flying Fury, the other half of the Cain Hoy entry. Harry M. Warner's Honey's Alibi, Harvey C. Fruehauf's Blue Lem, Clifford Mooers' Nabesna, and G. Rollie White's Trim Destiny.

WINNER OVERLOOKED

The Derby was supposed to have been a scrap between Nashua and Sumer Tan who fought it out in the Wood Memorial two weeks ago at Jamaica, Nashua winning by a neck. But they didn't reckon with Swaps, who was making it four wins in four starts this year. He was the third winner of the $100,000 Santa Anita Derby to come on and take the run for the roses. Hill Gail won the two races for Calumet Farm in 1952 and Andry Crevolin's Determine won it last year.

The big pot ran Swaps' grand total to $236,650. Nashua had to settle for $25,000 second money as Arcaro missed winning his sixth Derby and Willie the Shoe was gaining his first. This brought Nashua's total to $502,440.

The victory for Swaps was a terrific triumph for Ellsworth and his lifetime buddy and trainer, Mickey Tenney, also a 47-year-old ex-cowpuncher who sleeps in the stall with his horse.

It was the first starter in the Derby for Ellsworth and Tenney, who were brought up together on the range in Safford, Ariz. Now they're partners in the racing stable, with two ranches in California, one in Colorado and another in Arizona.

IN TH EBAG

Shoemaker had ridden in three previous Derbies without success. He said he knew he had this one in the bag when Nashua came at him in the stretch drive and Swaps pulled away.

"I tapped him once and he scooted," said Willie with a grin. "I wasn't scared of Nashua after that."

"Nashua didn't have any excuses except Swaps," said Arcaro.

Eric Guerin, who won the Derby in 1947 with Jet Pilot and tried again with Summer Tan, said that when he tried to run up with Nashua and Swaps his mount "died."

Rain threatened all through the day until derby time and there were occasional showers. But the downpour never came.

Wes Santee Wants Race In Toronto

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Wes Santee, top American miler, said Saturday he wants to run against Gordon Pirie of England in Toronto this summer "if the marines permit."

Pirie plans to go to Toronto in mid-August and Santee said "I hope to be there too." But the 23-year-old Kansas runner said he will go into the U.S. Marine Corps in June and doesn't know yet whether he can get to the Canadian National Exhibition meet.

Santee, who holds the U.S. mile record of 4:00.5, was beaten by Pirie in a race two years ago. Pirie, in Germany now, said he would like to run against Santee again and added that he hopes to arrange it when he goes to Toronto for a holiday around Aug. 15.

Santee made another attempt to run a four-minute mile Saturday but his effort was deterred by a 15-mile-an-hour wind and he was clocked at 4:07 in winning the University of Miami invitational mile.

George Lemay Is Fined $25

MONTREAL (CP) — Georges Lemay, 29, whose wife disappeared mysteriously three years ago during a holiday in the Florida Keys, was fined $25 Friday and ordered to post $200 bond to keep the peace for a year after an early-morning tussle with a policeman.

Lemay pleaded guilty to disturbing the peace and resisting arrest. Constable Roger Normandin said Lemay berated him last week when Normandin was checking the licence number of another car. When told to move along, Lemay grabbed the constable by the throat and then fled.

Municipal Judge Henri Monty said he hoped Lemay "will learn the merits of minding your own business."

Lemay's attractive wife, 19-year-old Huguette, disappeared while the couple were fishing in Florida. No trace of her has ever been found.

AID FOR COLONIES

LONDON (Reuters)—Britain disclosed Monday she will pour £120,000,000 into her far-flung colonies in the next five years to improve living standards. Among the largest new allocations are £13,560,000 for the British West Indies and £13,080,000 for Nigeria, Britain's largest colony in Africa.

George Formby Arrives For Fourth Tour Of Canada

By JOE MacSWEEN

Canadian Press Staff Writer

MONTREAL (CP)—The visiting lad from Lancashire gave his questioner a quizzical look, grinned his famous grin and declared:

"Actually, there are three George Formbys.

"There's the Formby who loves to relax quietly at home with the missus.

"There's the Formby whose delight is to sail about in his cruiser.

"And there's the Formby of public appearances and entertainment, who leads a hectic life and loves it."

CLOWNED ON SHIP

It was the third George who arrived here Saturday aboard the liner Empress of France, starting his fourth Canadian visit.

Accompanied by his attractive wife, Beryl, George was bubbling with pep, clowning about the bridge of the Empress in a sailor's hat, squinting at the horizon and strumming his ukelele.

His visit is sponsored by the Variety Club of Toronto. Proceeds will go in aid of the club's work for crippled children.

Formby, who started his career as a jockey before winning popularity as Britain's favorite stage and screen comedian, told reporters he now works almost entirely in benefit performances.

"Why not?" he said with a laugh. "Any other money disappears in income tax."

But he showed a serious side in saying he decided to devote his time to benefits while recovering from a heart attack two years ago.

"I did a lot of thinking lying in bed," he said. "I wondered if I could help others who are not so lucky."

LAUGH AND GROW FAT

He has just finished a tour of South Africa in aid of that country's national cancer fund, and also visited Rhodesia.

Formby said he's had to give up his hobby of motorcycle driving because of the heart ailment, but at 50 is feeling in top shape, his chief relaxation being sea trips on his 54-foot cruiser Beryl, named after his wife.

Formby has added a few flecks of grey in his clicked-down thatch since his last visit to Canada in aid of Winnipeg flood victims in 1950—and also a few pounds.

"I'm about 178 pounds now, I think," said George. Laugh and grow fat, you know . . ."

Three Stranded On Ice Walk Ashore

ST. JOHN'S Nfld. (CP)—Three men stranded on an ice pan since early Saturday walked to shore over shifting ice Sunday as the icebreaker Saurel was preparing to pick them up.

Isaac Emberley, 40, and his two nephews, Melvin and Hebert Emberley, both in their early twenties, were stranded on the ice between Trinity and Conception bays along Newfoundland's southeast coast before daylight Saturday as they were hunting stray seals.

The RCAF dropped food and clothing to the three men late Saturday. The men left their 20-foot boat in the ice Sunday and walked to shore as the Saurel prepared to leave Bell island to pick them up. None of the men were believed injured. They arrived ashore near their homes at Bay de Verde.

Dodgers Continue Amazing Pace; Indians Increase Lead

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Brooklyn's unstoppable Dodgers racked up their 10th consecutive victory for the second time this season Sunday with a 9-8 triumph over the fading Philadelphia Phillies that kept the Brooks nine games in front of the National League field.

Cleveland's Indians made it nine of their last 10 with a sweep of their doubleheader from Kansas City 9-6 and 2-1 to open up a two-game bulge on the New York Yankees and Chicago White Sox in the American League.

The Yankees and White Sox also turned in victories. New York vanquished Willard Nixon, an old nemesis, in shutting out the Boston Red Sox 5-0. The White Sox took a pair of squeakers from Detroit 5-4 and 1-0 to plunge the Tigers from the top perch into fourth place. In another American League twin bill, Baltimore and Washington split, the Orioles winning the opener 4-3 and the Senators running off with the nightcap 15-7.

Milwaukee moved into second place with a 6-2 victory over St. Louis for a sweep of the three-game series with the Cards. The New York Giants were hard pressed to gain a split with Pittsburgh, copping the finale 6-3 after the Pirates had won the opener 7-5.

DIVIDE TWIN BILL

Chicago and Cincinnati divided a doubleheader, the Cubs taking the opener 5-3 and the Redlegs coming back to win the nightcap 4-3.

Duke Snider's grand slam home run off Bob Miller in the seventh inning gave the Dodgers their 21st triumph in 23 starts this season. The Phils, trailing 9-2 as they came to bat in the seventh, scored four times and added two more in the eighth but fell one run short as they dropped their ninth straight and remained in the basement.

Al Smith hit three home runs and Al Rosen and Dave Pope one apiece in the Indians' two victories over Kansas City. Rosen won the nightcap with his fifth homer in the 11th inning.

Bob Grim hurled the Yankee shutout over Boston but needed help from Jim Konstanty after issuing two walks in the ninth. Hank Bauer and Joe Collins homered off Nixon who had beaten the Yankees six straight times over a two-year span.

TWO-RUN HOMER

Nellie Fox singled in the winning run in the 11th for the White Sox after they had tied the score at 4-4 in the ninth on pinch hitter Ron Jackson's two-run homer. Fox also accounted for the lone run in the second game as Dick Donovan hurled a nine-hit shutout. Little Nellie tripled and came home on a single by Minnie Minoso.

A triple by pinch hitter Eddie Waitkus drove in the tying and winning runs for Baltimore in the ninth of the opener. Tom Umphlett, with a home run and three singles, and Jesse Levan, with a three-run pinch homer, paced the Senators' second game attack on seven Baltimore pitchers.

169th VICTORY

Warren Spahn pitched his 169th victory, his 37th against the Cardinals as Ed Mathews helped him with a two-run homer and a fourth-inning single that started a three-run explosion against loser Harvey Haddix.

Jerry Lynch batted in three runs with two singles and his first home run of the season to lead the Pirates to their first game victory over the Giants. Willie Mays' four hits including his fourth homer, Sal Maglie's airtight relief pitching won the second game for the Giants. Don Mueller collected two hits in the opener and three more in the second game to extend his hitting streak through 21 consecutive games.

Home runs were the decisive blows in the Cubs-Reds twin bill. Four-baggers by Chicago's Randy Jackson and rookie Bob Speake proved the difference in the first game. Catcher Hobie Landrith's ninth inning homer, his second of the game, won the second game for Cincinnati.

The spring spurt of Pittsburgh Pirates, one of the surprises of the National League season, ended Saturday when New York Giants broke their six - game winning streak with an 11-3 victory at the Polo Grounds.

Don Mueller stretched his consecutive-game hitting streak to 19 with four successive hits for the Giants to back up Jim Hearn's seven-hit pitching effort.

At Cincinnati, Bob Thurman came through with a three-run homer in the eighth as a pinch hitter for the Redlegs' 8-7 margin over Chicago Cubs.

Brooklyn defeated Philadelphia at Connie Mack Stadium 6-3 with Robin Roberts the loser and Roy Campanella leading the Dodgers' 13-hit barrage with three doubles. Carl Erskine, winning his fifth for the Dodgers, gave up seven hits, including two homers to Willie Jones.

Bill Bruton, Joe Adcock and Hank Aaron hit homers as Milwaukee defeated St. Louis 9-7. Stan Musial and Wally Moon each hit two-run homers in the seventh for the Cards.

CHASE SHANTZ

In the American League, pitcher Early Wynn helped himself with a two-run double in Cleveland's 9-3 win over Kansas City. The Indians knocked out Athletics' starter Bobby Shantz in the fourth inning.

Steve Gromek held Chicago White Sox to five hits while Detroit's Harvey Kuenn and Al Kaline contributed four hits apiece for a 7-1 Tiger win.

Yogi Berra's three-run double in the ninth gave New York Yankees a 9-6 comeback victory over Boston Red Sox. The Yankees trailed 5-0 at one time. Elston Howard, taking over left field for the Yankees, came through with four hits, including his first major league homer.

At Washington, Jim Wilson held the Senators to five hits while Hoot Evers' homer highlighted the Orioles' 13-hit attack as Baltimore won 5-1, handing Joe Schmitz his first defeat after [illegible] wins.
