The following address was read by the Rev. S. Weston-Jones:—

To the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of Nova Scotia:—

We, the undersigned Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen of the parish of Charlottetown, desire on behalf of ourselves and the members of our parish, to extend to Your Lordship, on this your first visit to our Province and city, a most cordial and loving welcome.

Realizing fully the importance and necessity of the high and holy office of the Episcopate, we felt the long delay in electing a successor to our late chief pastor to be disastrous to the best interests of our beloved church. It was, therefore, with heartfelt gratitude to Almighty God that we heard, on the first of February last, that the Synod of our diocese had made a unanimous election to fill the vacant See.

From reports which came in from day to day of your labors in the past in the Mother Church in England, and in the Sister Church in the United States, we were the more assured of the over-ruling of Providence in the wisdom of the choice made. We entered, therefore, most heartily into the feelings of joy and happiness that prevailed throughout the church upon the occasion of Your Lordship's consecration on St. Mark's Day. We observe with no little gratification that you were accompanied on that occasion by a large, thoroughly representative, and we may add, an illustrious delegation from the diocese where last as a Priest of the church you labored.

It remains now for us to support your Lordship in every way that we can in the trying and onerous duties that you have been called of God the Holy Ghost to undertake. You may rest assured of our earnest prayers for you, and our hearty sympathy and zealous co-operation with you in all your works. From the depths of our hearts we wish your Lordship success; and pray that from parish to parish throughout the whole of your diocese the happy and spiritual influence of your well known piety, zeal and incisive Biblical preaching may be felt.

We look forward with confidence to the extension and enlargement of our beloved church in this Island province under the wise administration of Your Lordship; trusting that the reach of every public mention of the fact that our Rector attended to represent us at your consecration, shows us that we have in our Bishop a Father in God who appreciates even the most humble efforts of his flock to share his burdens and encourage his heart.

May it be ours in more substantial ways hereafter to deserve your kindly commendations.

Praying that the great and good God who gave you to us will pour out upon you abundantly, with His Holy Spirit, all the grace, wisdom, and strength that you need,

We are, Your Lordship's obedient servants,

(Signed) S. Weston-Jones, Rector. John Ings, Churchwardens. H. J. Cudde, H. Horace Hazard, Sam. Lowe, G. Wright, R. R. Fitzgerald, J. Lewis.

The Bishop replied briefly and eloquently, referring particularly to the Rectory now being built, and expressing the hope that a new church would be erected ere many years have passed. His Lordship the Bishop of Charlottetown afterwards called upon Bishop Courtney, and the two had a fraternal interview.

CONFIRMATION.

"Te Deum" was sung at the beginning of the service in St. Paul's Church on Sunday forenoon. Then His Lordship proceeded to administer the rite of Confirmation to about forty candidates, who were presented by the Rector. The Laying on of Hands was followed by an address, in which His Lordship expounded the doctrine of Regeneration, Adoption, Sanctification and the Resurrection, and pointed out the great blessing in Confirmation: the development of manhood and womanhood under the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

ST. PETER'S.

ADDRESS TO THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

THE Lord Bishop of Nova Scotia addressed the children of St. Peter's Sunday School at the children's service yesterday at 3.30 p. m. There was a very large number of adults present in addition to the children of the Sunday School, who numbered more than one hundred. The Bishop walked in the procession, both upon entering and leaving the church. His Lordship's address, enforcing the duty of perfect obedience on the part of children to those who have them in charge, listening to the voice of God, and loving one another was a very beautiful one, and by his catechising he succeeded in thoroughly arousing and sustaining the children's interest and attention—which is often a very difficult task. The other portions of the service were taken by the Rev. James Simpson. The Rev. Mr. Lancaster (Chaplain) was in attendance upon His Lordship in addition to two acolytes.

CONFIRMATION.

At 7 p. m., Evensong was sung by the Rev. Fred. E. J. Lloyd, at the conclusion of which the Confirmation service began. The church was crowded to the doors, and many were unable to obtain admission to the sacred edifice. It was calculated that there were in excess of five hundred persons present. The Office Hymn was the familiar "Our blessed Redeemer ere He breathed." The candidates for Confirmation were presented to the Bishop by the Priest Incumbent, in the following words:—"Right Rev. Father in God, I present unto you these persons for the Apostolic Rite of Confirmation." The candidates were all kneeling. Here the Bishop asked the prayers of the congregation on behalf of those who were to be confirmed, for which purpose silence was observed for a space. As at St. Paul's in the forenoon, the preface in the Confirmation service was read by the Rev. Mr. Lancaster in a most clear and distinct voice. Five of the choir boys were amongst the candidates and several persons of mature age. The Veni Creator was sung immediately before the Sacred Rite was performed. The Bishop's lengthy address to the newly confirmed was listened to with the closest attention throughout. It consisted mainly of an elaboration of the army-like aspect of the Christian Church. His Lordship illustrated and enforced his remarks by the relation of incidents in the lives of the Emperor Napoleon Bonaparte, Raglan and other soldiers. The hymn, "O Jesus I have promised," was sung during the collection and presentation of the alms, which latter was made by the Bishop in a most orderly and reverent manner. This concluded, a solemn Te Deum was sung, the choir, priests and Bishop, with his chaplain and acolytes, being grouped before the altar. The choir and congregation then knelt, the former remaining on the altar steps to receive the Episcopal benediction. The music was excellent, reflecting great credit upon Mr. L. W. Watson, the organist, and the members of the large and flourishing choir. In consequence of the crowded condition of the church there was no procession.

—The London Times commenting on Mr. Blaine's last letter says:—"He (Blaine) talks as if he were wholly ignorant that free trade in Europe is the exception and protection the rule. He seems to have no suspicion that poverty in protectionist states is as acute as in those which are votaries of free trade. Let him examine the conditions of labor in the industrial districts of protectionist Germany and acquaint American protectionists with the lesson they convey. It suits his argument to mass together Europe as at once poverty stricken and free trading, and to impute the misery to the alleged doctrine. He chooses to be equally oblivious of the combination of physical advantages which push up the standard of American industrial wages as well in agriculture, which is not susceptible of protection, as in manufactures which are. The style of reasoning is not a favorable specimen of the economical teaching which American protectionists think good enough for home consumption."

THOROUGHbred CATTLE.—We clip the following from the Country Gentleman: At the ninth annual sale of Jerseys, held at New York from the 13th to the 18th inst., the best average made for five animals fell to Mr. F. S. Cooper, of Cooperburg, Pa., the price obtained was $427 each. The dispersion sale of the Brookbank herd of Holstein-Friesian cattle owned by Mr. Thomas B. Wales, took place at Cleveland, Ohio, May 17, when the ten best animals brought an average of $1,262; the highest price obtained was $2,050. At Mr. Luther Adams' sale of Scotch short-horns, held at Chicago, May 15, 50 animals averaged $300.90; the highest price paid being $620.

Cricket.

THE Park Cricket Club held its annual meeting on the grounds last Saturday. The following officers were elected:

Patron—His Honor Judge Young. President—L. H. Davies, M. P. Field Captain—Geo. E. Robinson. Sec.-Treas—C. Leigh, Jr.

Considerable expense having been incurred in putting the field in order, and in getting out some material from England, the membership fee was fixed at $1, and a committee appointed to solicit subscriptions from persons interested in the "grand old game."

It was decided to allow boys to become members on payment of 50 cents, in order to get up a second eleven, who can have matches with the junior clubs.

Several matches are on the tapis. New Glasgow will probably send over a team during the summer; Law and Banks vs. Allcomers is talked of for next Saturday.

All cricketers, or would-be cricketers, are urgently requested to come forward and take a hand in putting the club on a solid basis, so that our citizens may see some games that will remind them of old times.

A Case to be Heeded.

SIR,—My attention has been called to a case of need that requires prompt action on the part of a kind and benevolent public. A family living in a rear tenement of Cumberland, between Easton and Fitzroy Streets, is in sore straits. The father, a young and respectable mechanic, is very ill, and the mother in a delicate condition is scarcely able to wait on her husband. They require necessaries and regular support, as with careful nursing the sick may recover. Friends having leisure might relieve the wife in waiting by her sick husband's bedside, and contributions of any kind will be received by Mr. E. Purdy, Kent Street, who has kindly consented to receive and forward the same.

HUMANITY.

Child Harold Speaks.

SIR,—The readiness with which your correspondent's question, as to what Mac-Aulay could have meant, when he coupled Scotchmen with the Turks as plunderers of Athenian temples, was answered in yesterday's EXAMINER, shows clearly that there are, at all events, a few among us who read, and that too, apparently, the very best of English literature. The beautiful selections with which your correspondent "T. H. H." has, for some time past, delighted every intelligent reader of the Guardian, showed that he was a reader of the best prose. His short communication in yesterday's EXAMINER made it equally clear that he is no stranger to the greatest of English poets.

CHILDE HAROLD.

Ch'town, June 2, 1888.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain; and the little cherub awakes "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind. [April 1 '88]

SOME SALARIES.—The Northern Presbyterian Church in United States reports 6,436 churches, of which 115 pay their ministers a salary of $5,000 or over; 84 pay a salary of $3,000 and under $5,000; 52 pay a salary of $2,448—or 93 per cent. of the whole—pay $1,800 or less, mostly less; in fact, the average salary of Presbyterian ministers in the state is under $800, many of them receiving even less than $500 a year.

A CAMPAIGN SLANDER.—Some person has started the story that President Cleveland smokes cigarettes.
