"America's Sweetheart" Retains Simple Charm

NEW YORK, (AP) - "Sure, the Irish drank goat's milk," said Mary Pickford. "That's how I have my vitality--because my ancestors drank goat's milk."

At 60, "America's sweetheart" of yesterday still retains the simple charm that once made her the movie favorite of millions.

"The busiest woman in Beverly Hills--or any other hill," she said, smiling, as we sat in the living room of her hotel suite.

"I have a big house to look after, and my husband, Buddy Rogers, and my business interests--and the children, Ronnie and Roxie."

Roxie will soon be 12, but she's already four inches taller than I am. She's horse crazy. But I'd rather look forward to her being horse crazy than boy crazy."

Mary also is active in half a dozen philanthropic and charitable enterprises. "That's how I completed her memoirs for 'Compeller' magazine, and said she would like--after 20 years away from the screen--to return in one last film.

Born in Toronto

"It would be the story of my mother's life," she said, "and end that day in 1909 when I walked into the old Biograph studio and got my first movie job."

Mary was born in Toronto and started her stage career there at the age of six. She rose from $40 to $10,000 a week in a few years, and piled up millions later producing her own films. This girl with the haunting face of a golden angel also had a cashbox mind.

"But I dislike business heartily," she said.

Here is Mary Pickford looking back at her life--a reverie aloud: "The greatest picture ever made? My choice would be 'Gone With the Wind.' Of my own picture, I suppose I still like 'Tess of the Storm Country' best. I made it twice--in 1914 and 1922.

Chaplin, Disney Great

The greatest geniuses of the motion picture have been Charlie Chaplin and Walt Disney. After them? D. W. Griffith and Irving Thalberg. Irving had a bad heart. He walked with death at his back. He knew he had not time to waste on trivial things, or things half done. He died young.

"I made 20-odd feature pictures. We do look ridiculous in them to

In Memoriam

THOMAS BOLGER

On January 30, the angel of death claimed Mr. Thomas Bolger, beloved husband of Margaret Bolger (nee Walsh) for his own. The deceased had been a patient for less than a week, and no anxiety had been anticipated for his recovery. Thus shock and gloom descended upon the Community of Hope River, when the wires brought the unexpected sad news of his sudden death.

Mr. Bolger was born in Hope River, P.E.I., nearly 75 years ago, the son of Patrick Bolger and Catherine Cosgrove. Here he spent his youth and settled with his young bride, on a farm near the place of his birth. For the next 40 years, he devoted himself to being a good husband, a loving father, as well as developing the sterling qualities of being a good citizen and an obliging neighbour.

Nothing that was for the good of the community or the betterment of his home was allowed to pass without his helping shoulder.

Almost 10 years ago, when he felt the years growing upon him, his wisdom as ever caused him to turn over the care and management of his lovely farm to his son, Allan, and he and his wife retired from active farming.

Tommy as everyone knew and called him was kind and tender hearted man, who rejoiced with those who rejoiced and sorrowed with those who sorrowed. No trouble visited a member of the community without the afflicted receiving kind and tender sympathy from Tommy. Nor was kindness his only contribution to the community, his advice was sought and readily given.

His fairness was known and appreciated by all. This characteristic was manifest in many ways, but particularly in the strenuous task he so capably fulfilled in the capacity of Community Auctioneer. In this as in all his endeavours he strove to perform his duty as perfectly as possible. In his relations with the Church he was fervent, sincere and generous. God was always before him, and he saw the Maker's hand in all the trials and joys of life. Tommy never denied himself the opportunity to receive the Bread of Life in the Most Blessed Sacrament, and this over three score years, he quietly, steadily but firmly built up the knowledge, the strength and resignation for the Supreme Moment that came to him on Jan. 30.

Before God called him home, he was permitted to experience some of the joys of this life. Last year with his wife at his side, and his children and grand-children gathered about him, he celebrated his Golden Wedding Anniversary. On that day he gazed over a half century of his direction of a Christian Home and the rearing of a Christian family. His success as the breadwinner and giver of a Christian home were amply attested to, by the words of praise and the tokens of affection presented to him by the members of his family.

But great as was his joy on the anniversary greater still was Tommy's joy on June 10, 1952, when he saw his son elevated to the Eternal Priesthood of Jesus Christ and to receive the following morning from the hands of his son, the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ.

He leaves to mourn besides his sorrowing widow four sons, Ernest, Hunter, Peter, Austin, Hope River; Alton, Halifax, and Paul, Francis, St. Dunstan's, Three Rivers; also survive, Mrs. Clarence Field, Hope River; Mrs. Frank Greenan, Kinross, and Mrs. B. Fitzsimmons, Detroit, Mich.

His funeral was held to St. Anne's Church, Hope River, where Solemn Requiem Mass was sung by Rev. J. C. Pitts Deacon and Rev. Earl D. Jones, subdeacon. Rev. Eric Robit master of ceremonies. Clergy present were: Rev. Justin MacDonald, Rev. Preston Hamrill, Rev. Owen Sharkey, Rev. Vincent Murnaghan, Rev. F. Aylward, Rev. Charles MacDonald, Rev. P. F. MacDonald and Rev. F. Corcoran.

Pall bearers were Messrs. Leo Field, Alexis Murphy, J. L. Reid, Elmer, Leif Leander Reid and C. H. McCutcheon.

May his Soul Rest in Peace.
