Semi-annual Examination At Springvale School

Island Student Wins Scholarship At King's College

On June the 26th the semi-annual examination of Springvale school was held and despite the very unpleasant day was a decided success, over thirty interested parents and visitors being present.

The ten grades were examined by their teacher Miss Mary Edwards, assisted by Mrs. C. Newport and Mrs. E. Johnston and showed by their ready answers and good order, that they were being very efficiently instructed.

Interspersing the various grades was a short program consisting of recitation, Audrey Kent; solo, Mae Younker; recitation, Harold Clark; reading, Heath Johnston; duet, Kenneth and Lloyd Macdonald; recitations, Danny Coles, Ralph Gillespie and Gerald Dollar and monologue by Florence Coles. The following certificates and prizes were then given:

1. Keating Trust Scholarship ($250), J. R. E. Smith, Summerside, P. E. I.
 2. Norwood Memorial Scholarship ($250), Miss Elinor Strong, Springhill, N. S.
 3. Almon-Welsford Testimonial ($20), A. L. Fraser, New Glasgow, N. S.
 4. Crockett Greek prize ($50), G. de Catalano, Yarmouth, N. S.
 5. MacFarlane Classical Scholarship ($35), C. R. Elliott, New Ross, N. S.
 6. Harry Crawford Memorial prize ($25), G. M. Lynch, Digby, N. S.
 7. Stevenson Scholarship $135-37 ($180), Miss Elinor Strong, Springhill, N. S.
- This last award to Miss Strong is a correction of a previous announcement, in which it was erroneously awarded to another student, but on a closer examination of results Miss Strong was found to be the winner.

At a recent meeting of the Executive Committee of the Board of Governors of the University of King's College resolutions of thanks were passed in acknowledging the following gifts recently made to King's:

1. A beautiful collection of marble statuary given by Miss Odell of Halifax, consisting of four busts of classical authors and four representations of classical subjects, two of which are mounted upon exquisitely carved pedestals. All of these are replicas of the great Italian sculptor, Pisani, and constitute a magnificent and most valuable addition to the University museum.
2. A beautiful framed engraving of the famous picture "Christ Before Pilate," by Munkacsy, donated by Mr. and Mrs. John J. Power.
3. A collection of books presented to the Library by Miss H. D. Kimber, of Sydney.

Word has been received at King's College, Windsor, N. S., that Miss Mabel Mason, Professor of Modern Languages and Dean of Women, is seriously ill at her home in England.

Brother Andrew And Party Visit Island Province

Brother V. Andrew, a member of the Brothers of the Christian Schools of San Francisco, California, arrived on the Island recently. He is accompanied by Bernard J. McDonald, his cousin from San Anselmo, California, who is visiting his relatives at Gowan Brae, Little Pond and New Zealand.

Brother Andrew is the son of the late Cyril White of Roilo Bay. He left the Island 51 years ago to join the Christian Brothers in California and this year is celebrating his Golden Jubilee as a member of the Order. He combined business with pleasure and travelled by auto through Arizona, New Mexico, Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana, Georgia, Alabama, Florida, the Carolinas, Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, Massachusetts, New Hampshire and Maine, a distance of over 7,000 miles.

From Boston, Mass., Mary C. MacDonald, his niece and daughter of Columbia MacDonald of North Lake, accompanied him and his travelling companion. She is visiting with her father, brothers and sisters and expects to remain on the Island for three weeks.

Brother Andrew is to return to California via Quebec, Montreal, Chicago and the Middle States.

"Weekly Payroll"

First Vote Showing in the GUARDIAN SUBSCRIPTION CAMPAIGN

First count of the "Weekly Payroll" Subscription Campaign finds candidates who have started closely arrayed. Comparatively little work done to date. Concentrated "pep" will go a long way toward winning big awards.

Only the relative standing of candidates is given below, and the ranking of contestants appearing in the paper each week will not include all the votes that a candidate may have earned, but will indicate his or her position. Several of the candidates have just got nicely started and just who will win the first honors depends entirely upon what each accomplishes from now until the finish. Results secured to date do not count for much, it will be the candidate who makes the best finish that will win. Whether that person is you or not depends upon yourself.
